THE MAN WHO TAUGHT ERIN TO FIND Herself

BY PADRIAC COLUM

A Life Sketch and Analysis of Arthur Griffith, Whose Fight for Irish Recognition Dates From the Days of Parnell

NEW YORK TIMES, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1921

THERE are many who claim that Parnell was the first man to call the Irishman to arms, but there is no doubt that the Irish in their struggle for freedom have followed in the footsteps of Arthur Griffith.

Griffith was an Englishman by birth, but he was a Irishman by education and training. He was a man of many parts, and he was a man of many ideas.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the pen. He was a man who believed in the power of the mind. He was a man who believed in the power of the people.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the spirit. He was a man who believed in the power of the soul.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the heart. He was a man who believed in the power of the love.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the faith. He was a man who believed in the power of the word.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the music. He was a man who believed in the power of the dance.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the art. He was a man who believed in the power of the science.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the law. He was a man who believed in the power of the justice.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the education. He was a man who believed in the power of the knowledge.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the culture. He was a man who believed in the power of the civilization.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the history. He was a man who believed in the power of the progress.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the future. He was a man who believed in the power of the hope.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the freedom. He was a man who believed in the power of the power.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the justice. He was a man who believed in the power of the law.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the spirit. He was a man who believed in the power of the soul.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the heart. He was a man who believed in the power of the love.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the faith. He was a man who believed in the power of the word.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the music. He was a man who believed in the power of the dance.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the art. He was a man who believed in the power of the science.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the law. He was a man who believed in the power of the justice.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the education. He was a man who believed in the power of the knowledge.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the culture. He was a man who believed in the power of the civilization.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the history. He was a man who believed in the power of the progress.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the future. He was a man who believed in the power of the hope.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the freedom. He was a man who believed in the power of the power.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the justice. He was a man who believed in the power of the law.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the spirit. He was a man who believed in the power of the soul.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the heart. He was a man who believed in the power of the love.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the faith. He was a man who believed in the power of the word.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the music. He was a man who believed in the power of the dance.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the art. He was a man who believed in the power of the science.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the law. He was a man who believed in the power of the justice.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the education. He was a man who believed in the power of the knowledge.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the culture. He was a man who believed in the power of the civilization.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the history. He was a man who believed in the power of the progress.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the future. He was a man who believed in the power of the hope.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the freedom. He was a man who believed in the power of the power.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the justice. He was a man who believed in the power of the law.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the spirit. He was a man who believed in the power of the soul.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the heart. He was a man who believed in the power of the love.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the faith. He was a man who believed in the power of the word.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the music. He was a man who believed in the power of the dance.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the art. He was a man who believed in the power of the science.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the law. He was a man who believed in the power of the justice.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the education. He was a man who believed in the power of the knowledge.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the culture. He was a man who believed in the power of the civilization.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the history. He was a man who believed in the power of the progress.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the future. He was a man who believed in the power of the hope.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the freedom. He was a man who believed in the power of the power.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the justice. He was a man who believed in the power of the law.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the spirit. He was a man who believed in the power of the soul.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the heart. He was a man who believed in the power of the love.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the faith. He was a man who believed in the power of the word.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the music. He was a man who believed in the power of the dance.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the art. He was a man who believed in the power of the science.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the law. He was a man who believed in the power of the justice.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the education. He was a man who believed in the power of the knowledge.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the culture. He was a man who believed in the power of the civilization.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the history. He was a man who believed in the power of the progress.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the future. He was a man who believed in the power of the hope.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the freedom. He was a man who believed in the power of the power.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the justice. He was a man who believed in the power of the law.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the spirit. He was a man who believed in the power of the soul.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the heart. He was a man who believed in the power of the love.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the faith. He was a man who believed in the power of the word.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the music. He was a man who believed in the power of the dance.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the art. He was a man who believed in the power of the science.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the law. He was a man who believed in the power of the justice.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the education. He was a man who believed in the power of the knowledge.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the culture. He was a man who believed in the power of the civilization.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the history. He was a man who believed in the power of the progress.

Griffith was a man who believed in the power of the future. He was a man who believed in the power of the hope.