A letter from the Superintendent of the Harbor Police in Philadelphia, received here, states that there is a boy in his custody named William Reed, 12 years old, whom he believes has run away from his home or a boarding-school in his or some other Western city.

Mr. Joseph Sherwin and family took their departure for Europe last evening, and as a token of esteem on the evening of the 23th their many friends congregated at the home of Mrs. Sherwin on an elegant bicultural marine glass, and Mrs. Sherwin with a rare and beautiful diamond necklace presented by Mr. Sherwin.

The matter to-morrow at the Adelphi in aid of the Newbury Home promises to be a real success. The attraction of the Adelphi company and the Emerson company, the latter of whom are giving a concert and seven of the ten men to add 10 per cent to the net proceeds have already been obtained, as follows: Charles Drayton, George Johnson, John W. Moore, and H. J. Throp.

The trial of a new character, an ingenious contrivance to lighten the work of the contractor in getting street-car tracks laid, took place yesterday on the Clinton street track, under the supervision of Mr. L. A. L. The contrivance is a small, portable, hand-operated machine which is used to cut the tracks to the proper gauge.

Elmer Washburn, Chief of the Secret Service, received information yesterday that six counterfeiters from the jail at Greenboro, N. C. had been taken out through the wooden floor and were seen to be carrying away a large amount of money.

About 6 o'clock last evening, while Dr. G. N. Davis and J. Griffin, of No. 188 West Madison street, were driving to the Washington street tunnel, the animal of the latter named Gustavus became frightened and ran away.

Some days ago Mr. Henry Ford got on a Madison street car and offered a fare ticket which had been cut in two across the middle. He offered both parts of the ticket, showing that he had not intended to use the other part.

A social and strawberry festival was held at Lower Farwell Hall last evening, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, which has been organized for the purpose of furnishing the hospital of the city with flowers during the summer.

The Chicago Board of Underwriters held a meeting yesterday afternoon at their office, No. 127 LaSalle street, and adopted a new schedule of rates, which, however, they refuse to publish for fear of a public outcry.

take a bath—and such a bath is only hardly expected to be enjoyed by a person who has been in numerous sea, lake, and river, but never did I enjoy such a bath as this. The specific gravity of the water is such, from its holding in solution so many salts, that it is a matter of fact that one floats upon its surface like a cork.

At the time there was only a gentle ripple upon the sea, and being a good swimmer I at once struck out to the westward. I was not long before I could not only swim and float with wonderful ease, but that I could actually walk in the water, making only a slight splash. Discouraged by the lack of interest for the shore and taking Dr. C., one of our party, who could not swim, by the hand, led him into the water, and he was not long before he was able to do so.
