VICTORIA.

Result of the Elections in Cook County and Elsewhere.

1872. Rawle is in receipt of numerous telegrams congratulating him upon his assured success. His majority in the State is estimated at 17,000.

CHESTER.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 2.—Chester City gives Hartranft 470 majority, a Republican gain.

Lycoming County estimated, gives a Democratic majority of 1,000; Democratic gain, 33.

Berks County gives about 6,500 Democratic majority; Democratic gain, 1,000.

COUNTY MAJORITIES.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Bucks County gives Pershing 300 majority; York County gives Pershing 3,000 majority; Clinton County gives about 700 majority for Pershing; Democratic loss, 235.

Cumberland County gives Pershing 800 majority, a gain of 105.

Columbia County gives 1,800 Democratic majority, a loss of 32.

Lebanon County gives Hartranft 1,200 majority, a gain of 162.

Susquehanna County gives Hartranft 700 majority; Republican gain, 41.

Centre County gives Pershing 1,400 majority; Democratic gain of 435.

Huntingdon County gives Pershing about 300 majority; Democratic gain, 551.

Northumberland County gives Pershing about 300 majority; a gain of 14.

Luzerne will give from 1,500 to 2,000 Democratic majority.

Pershing's majority in the County estimated at 7,050. This county last year gave a Democratic majority of 1,132.

Washington County, fifteen districts, Republican majority, 47; Republican gain, 126.

Westmoreland County, eleven districts, Democratic majority, 60; Republican gain, 118.

Elk County, three districts, Democratic majority 94; Democratic gain, 15.

In Allegheny County the Republicans claim the election of the whole county ticket, and returns from half the county indicate a Republican majority on the State ticket of about 6,000.

The Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee estimates the election of their State ticket by 20,000 to 25,000 majority. Later returns from Washington County give Hartranft 250 majority.

DEMOCRATS GIVE IT UP.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3—2:10 a. m.—Col. McClure concedes the State to Hartranft by 22,000 majority. Outside of Philadelphia the vote will be very close.

FULL VOTE OF PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3—1:30 a. m.—Full returns from all the wards of this city give Hartranft for Governor a plurality of 17,352. The Prohibition ticket polled 631 votes. The Republicans also elect their entire county ticket.

MASSACHUSETTS.

A HARD-FOUGHT BATTLE.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 2.—The Republicans have redeemed the State of Massachusetts, but their candidates have not passed through the fire without getting considerably singed. Boston, to be sure, did nobly for Mr. Rice, giving him a plurality of 16 votes, while Gaston went out of the city last year with nearly 9,000. The vote was over 26,000. The Republican gains were made in the South End wards, while North End wards did not by any means come up to the expectation of the Democracy which controls them. The Baker vote, which amounted to 879 in the city, was so much net loss to the Republican ticket, for the Prohibitory tickets were printed on the Republican State ticket, headed by Mr. Rice's name in place of Mr. Baker. The election was very quiet, and very little excitement manifested anywhere.

THE LARGE CITIES.

Cambridge went for Gaston by a small majority, though he had 700 last year, which exactly represents the loss in the Democratic vote. New Bedford threw one-sixth of its votes for the Prohibitory candidate, but gave Mr. Rice a bare plurality of 61 in a total vote of nearly 3,500. Chelsea, always a Republican city, gave him 300 majority. Worcester, where Mr. Gaston was received on Saturday evening with tremendnous enthusiasm, gave him a majority over Baker of 384 votes, and Adams not a Baker's dozen. Gloucester gave Mr. Rice 469. Springfield, 307. In Taunton there were large gains. Mr. Rice carrying the city by 300 majority. In Lynn the shoemakers stuck by the Democrats, giving their State ticket over 300 majority, and the Democracy also carried Fall River by but only thirty votes, and Lawrence by less than 200, and Salem by 950. Lowell was saved to the Republicans by a majority of 30, in a total vote of 5,000. These figures will show how close the contest was, and yet

THE VOTE IS NOTHING;

by no means as heavy as was reported. The Republican leaders have been indefatigable in their work during the past fortnight, and have used every effort to get out the voters. They have sent men into all the country towns, and done their utmost to arouse an interest in their candidate, but their efforts have been in vain. The stay-at-homes and non-voters have been almost entirely members of the Republican party, who will vote to-Republican ticket under ordinary circumstances. This year they would not come out to vote the Republican ticket, and yet could not bring themselves to the point of voting for the Democratic candidate. Another year they will probably take that step, and the result would be a majority of 10,000 to 12,000 for the Democracy.

THE ELECTION OF MR. RICE,

although by a majority considerably less than that received by the candidates on the Republican State ticket, of course carries with it the election of a large number of Representatives than last year, and there will be a great number of Republicans, both in the Senate and in the House. The Executive Council will undoubtedly be Republican, as heretofore.

RICE'S POPULARITY.

The election is a good deal closer than either party wished it to be. Mr. Rice's plurality will not be over 5,000, and may be less than 2,000. His popularity in Boston, where he has wiped out the 6,000 Democratic majority Gaston had last year, is what has saved him. In the rest of the State the Republican vote of last year has fallen off.

THE OTHER CANDIDATES.

[illegible] the Prohibitionist candidate, appears to have about 3,000 votes in the State, [illegible] scattering, vote for Charles Francis [illegible] reach 1,500. All these votes are [illegible] and should not be estimated [illegible] the result in anything like the [illegible] great portion. Mr. Phillips's 700 in Boston [illegible] Democratic vote will amount to [illegible] to 1,000. The whole vote is not [illegible] 175,000. [illegible] that [illegible] been hard [illegible] interest [illegible] year, and that Mr. Rice [illegible] has been a failure so [illegible] from his political indifference is concerned.

The Republicans have

GAINED SOME MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE,

and, as usual, will have a large majority in either branch.

Mr. Crapo, the Republican candidate for Congress in the First District, to fill the vacancy occasioned by Mr. Buffinton's death, is elected by a majority of 4,000. Mr. Buffinton's majority last year was 5,429.

The Republicans have recovered possession of all departments of the State Government, at which, of course, they rejoice, but their victory is not one that will make them bold or even very confident for the future. It is evident that the party can keep possession only by putting forward the best men for office. Mr. Gaston's defeat is due rather to the fact that as Governor he showed no aptitude for reform, than to any specially strong points in the character or career of Mr. Rice.

[To The Associated Press.]

REPUBLICAN GAINS.

BOSTON, Nov. 2.—Rice's friends claim large gains in Boston.

Rice has carried New Bedford by 74 plurality. Gaston's majority there last year was 76.

Crapo, Republican, for Congress, in the First District, has a large majority in the towns heard from.

BOSTON, Nov. 2.—Returns from seventy towns outside of Boston, which last year gave Gaston 15,188, against Talbot 15,887, return a vote for Gaston of 12,939; Rice, 14,904.

Crapo's (Republican) election in the First District for Congress is assured.

Fourteen wards of this city give Rice 6,749; Gaston, 5,356.

The Traveller's estimate of 69 towns and wards, including Boston, places the vote for Rice 20,063; Gaston, 17,658; Baker, 2,423; Adams, 460; scattering, 100; against last year's figures, viz.: Gaston, 21,472; Talbot, 20,011; a Republican gain of over 4,000.

BOSTON, Nov. 2—9 p. m.—One hundred and fourteen towns outside of Boston return Rice 28,317 votes, and Gaston 25,003; Baker, 3,437; Adams, 700; Phillips, 134.

A heavy falling off in the vote is noticeable. The gain of Rice in Boston is considerable. Returns from all the wards except Ward 12 give Rice 12,090; Gaston, 12,352. Friends of Rice already claim his election.

BOSTON, Nov. 2—9:20 p. m.—One hundred and ninety-one towns heard from. Rice has 46,598; Gaston (Dem.), 43,136; Baker (Prohibitionist), 5,180; Phillips, 193; Adams, 1,130.

The total vote of Boston this year for Rice is 13,100, and 13,136 for Gaston. The vote last year for Gaston was 15,988; Talbott, 9,697.

Rice has gained 6,255 in Boston alone. The present indications point to Rice's election.

BOSTON, Nov. 2—10 p. m.—Two hundred and forty-seven towns give Rice (Rep.) 75,141; Gaston, 69,776; Baker, 7,320.

A special from New Bedford places Crapo's (Rep.) majority for Congress at 4,000.

Rice carries Boston by 78 votes.

REPUBLICAN MAJORITIES.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The election of Rice is now generally conceded. The estimate of the Journal places his plurality from 5,000 to 7,000, and these figures may be increased or lessened by the complete returns. The vote for Baker, Prohibition candidate, will be between 7,000 and 8,000. Adams will reach 1,500, and may go beyond this estimate. The entire Republican State ticket is probably elected.

NEARLY COMPLETE RETURNS.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 3—1 a. m.—Complete returns from 322 towns in this State, all but eighteen, give Rice 82,184; Gaston, 77,349; Baker, 8,901; scattering, 311. Rice's plurality, 4,835. These figures will be but slightly varied.

The Republicans elect all the Councillors and thirty-one Senators. The Democrats elect eight Senators, one district doubtful. The Republicans gain heavily in Representatives, but the figures are not yet footed.

Crapo, Republican, is elected to Congress from the First District by over 4,600 majority.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3—3 a. m.—Forty-seven counties foot up 20,751 majority for Hartranft.

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 3.—Rawle gains in this city 659 over the vote of 1874.

ILLINOIS.

KANE COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

AURORA, Ill., Nov. 2.—The election passed off to-day without any manifestation of interest, since there was no opposition to the regular Republican ticket. Only 651 votes were cast, of which T. F. Tolman received 648 for County Treasurer.

ELGIN, Ill., Nov. 2.—The election in Kane County to-day is all one way. Thomas F. Tolman for Treasurer, and William H. Perse for Surveyor, the regular Republican nominees, run without opposition.

GRUNDY COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

MORRIS, Ill., Nov. 2.—The election for Treasurer in this county was well attended. The so-called Reform-Independents put up a straight Democrat, and the Republicans had a regular Republican ticket. The returns are not all in, but the result will be very close, so that complete returns will be required to decide. Morris gave a majority of 196 Democratic, but the county towns gave large Republican majorities.

SANGAMON COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 2.—The election to-day proceeded very quietly in this city and county. So far as heard from, a light vote is polled, and it is probable that the Democratic candidates for County Treasurer and Surveyor are elected.

KNOX COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

GALESBURG, Ill., Nov. 2.—But little interest was taken in the election in this city to-day. Nine townships, together with the vote of Galesburg, give the Republican ticket a majority of 519 votes. It is estimated that the remaining townships to be heard from will increase this majority to 700.

MARSHALL AND LA SALLE COUNTIES.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

WENONA, Ill., Nov. 2.—At the election to-day one-quarter of a vote was polled. There was no opposition in Marshall County to the Republican ticket. Evans Township—H. J. Depue, County Treasurer, 119; Boss Hesing, 1; G. F. Weichtman, Surveyor, 116. Osage Township, LaSalle County—Morrell, 17; Raymond, 17. Groveland—Morrell, 72; Raymond, 26, for County Treasurer.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

HENRY, Ill., Nov. 2.—No opposition ticket was in the field here to-day. The election passed off very quietly.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

OTTAWA, Ill., Nov. 2.—Raymond, Democrat, is elected County Treasurer by about 1,000. Ottawa gives him 538 majority. Gray, Democrat, for Surveyor, is probably elected by a close vote.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

MENDOTA, Ill., Nov. 2.—In the election to-day for County Treasurer, Gen. Morrell had a majority of 85 votes; Samuel W. Raymond, 164. There was but little interest manifested, and all passed off quietly.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

LA SALLE, Ill., Nov. 2.—The election held in this city resulted as follows: Whole number of votes cast, 620. Samuel W. Raymond, Democratic candidate for County Treasurer, received 376 votes; John Morrill, Republican candidate for the same office, 246 votes. John Gray, for County Surveyor, has 276 majority.

KANKAKEE COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

KANKAKEE, Ill., Nov. 2.—Swigert, Republican candidate for County Treasurer, gets a majority of 1,000 over Dixon, Independent, against 20 two years ago. Crosswell, Independent candidate for Surveyor, gets about 250 over Titcomb, Republican.

DE KALB COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

WATERMAN, Ill., Nov. 2.—In the three towns of Clinton, Squaw Grove, and Shabbona of this (DeKalb) County, S. T. Armstrong received 593 votes for County Surveyor, and Robert H. Roberts 193 and Robert Hampton 118 for County Treasurer. The contest was lively.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

SANDWICH, Ill., Nov. 2.—The election passed off very quietly, and a small vote was polled. For Treasurer of DeKalb County, R. H. Roberts, Republican nominee, received 176 votes; Robert Hampton, Independent, 112. For County Surveyor, S. T. Armstrong, 281. No opposition.

ADAMS COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

QUINCY, Ill., Nov. 2.—No interest whatever was taken in the county election in this city today, about one-sixth of the vote being polled. It is probable that the Democratic candidates are elected. Much interest is manifested here to learn the result of the election in Chicago.

ALEXANDER COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

CAIRO, Ill., Nov. 2.—Reave is probably elected County Treasurer over Redman Hely, and Harrel Sammons County Commissioner over Marchildon. Thrup is elected County Surveyor. All quiet, but all anxious to hear from Chicago.

IROQUOIS COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

WATOKA, Ill., Nov. 2.—The election here today for county officers was very quiet. The Republicans elected James L. Burkhalter for Treasurer, and Henry J. Vaughn for Surveyor.

BUREAU COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

PRINCETON, Ill., Nov. 2.—The election here today passed off quietly. The vote in this place stands: Washburn, Republican candidate for Treasurer, 248; Edwards, Reform nominee, 223. Bureau County will give at least 800 Republican majority.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

NEPONSET, Ill., Nov. 2.—The Republican ticket is elected here by a majority of 24. The Republican majority in the county will not be far from 800.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

LAMOILLE, Ill., Nov. 2.—Samuel Edwards, Reform candidate for Treasurer, was defeated in his own town, Washburn, the Republican candidate, receiving 99 majority.

LIVINGSTON COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DWIGHT, Ill., Nov. 2.—Still, Democrat, received 49 votes; Dolde, Republican, 80 votes.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

PONTIAC, Ill., Nov. 2.—Election returns are coming in slowly. The indications are that the Anti-Monopolists have elected their ticket by a small majority. The weather was pleasant, and betting on the result lively. Considerable money will change hands.

TAZEWELL COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

PEKIN, Ill., Nov. 2.—The election passed off quietly, polling a moderate vote. The result in the city is as follows: For County Treasurer—Cooper, Democrat, 678; Beesley, Republican, 148. For Surveyor—King, Democrat, 699; Hayward, Republican, 151. Cooper's majority in the county will not fall below 500. This result is due to Cooper's personal popularity.

VERMILLION COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DANVILLE, Ill., Nov. 2.—The election passed off very quietly. No one hardly, excepting the candidates, seemed to take any interest in it. A small vote was polled.

HENRY COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

GALVA, Ill., Nov. 2.—The Republicans made jority is 84 in this city. The election passed off quietly.

M'LEAN COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 2.—Much excitement prevailed here to-day, occasioned by the county election. A tolerably large vote was polled. Money was used freely by the Independents, especially by Lewis, candidate for Treasurer, and his friends. Returns from twenty voting precincts, including Bloomington, Normal, and the larger towns, show a remarkable triumph for the Republican ticket, which is unquestionably elected throughout. The majorities are as follows: Treasurer, Stroud, of Bloomington, over Lewis, of Hudson, 754; for Superintendent of Schools, Smith, of Normal, over Merriman, of Bloomington, 442; for Surveyor, Ela, of Bloomington, over Merchant, of Bloomington, 623. The result is most crushing to the hopes of the mongrel party in McLean County, who, two years ago, fell behind only 100 voters in their contest for Treasurer.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

LEXINGTON, Ill., Nov. 2.—Lexington gives Stroud, Republican, 138 majority for Treasurer, over Lewis, Independent; Smith, Republican, 135 majority for Superintendent, over Merriman; Ela, Republican, 111 majority for Surveyor, over Merchant.

FULTON COUNTY.

CANTON, Ill., Nov. 2.—In Fulton County the election was quiet and the vote light. The indications are that the Democratic candidates are elected by 200. Clinton Emory, Republican, for Treasurer, 318; Walker, Democrat, 301; David, Republican, for Surveyor, 313; Killen, Democrat, 307; Demgaen, 100; Putnam, Republican, 24 majority; Republican gain, 57.

CHAMPAIGN COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 2.—Twelve towns out of twenty-seven in this county, casting two-thirds of the vote, have been heard from, and give T. A. Lewis, the Republican candidate for County Treasurer, 517 majority, and F. U. W. Price, for Surveyor, 238, both being elected. This settles the Independent party in this County, the vote showing a Republican gain of over 600.

PEORIA COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 2.—The city and county election passed off quietly, and Robinson, Republican, is elected Mayor by about 300 majority. At the last election the city went 448 Democratic. Isaac Taylor, Republican, is elected County Treasurer by 1,000 majority.

MACOUPIN COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

CARLINVILLE, Ill., Nov. 2.—Carlinville Township gives Wills, Democrat, 173 majority, and Muhleman, Republican, Surveyor, 85 majority. The reports received from the county indicate a Republican victory.

MORGAN COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Nov. 2.—Returns from all the precincts of Morgan County are not in yet. The vote was light. Wright, for Assessor, and Devore, for Commissioner, both Democrats, are elected, and Rowe, Republican, for Surveyor.

MADISON COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

ALTON, Ill., Nov. 2.—Returns from ten precincts in this county indicate the election of Hebayte, Democrat, for County Treasurer; John Bardill, Republican, for County Commissioner; Walton Rutledge, Republican, for County Surveyor; and the adoption of township organization.

M'DONOUGH COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

MACOMB, Ill., Nov. 2.—Old McDonough 300 Republican. You may count on us in the great contest of 1876.

LOGAN COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

LINCOLN, Ill., Nov. 2.—Our candidates in this county were Joseph Ream, Treasurer, and Thomas Gardner, Surveyor, on the Republican, and Carmon W. Clark, Treasurer, and T. H. Matfield, Surveyor, on the Democratic ticket. The vote runs as follows in each township: East Lincoln gives Ream a majority of 288 out of 442 votes. Gardner's majority is 282. West Lincoln—Ream's majority 102 out of 218; majority for Gardner 132.

Orvil—Ream's majority 101; Gardner, 103. This includes all official returns up to 12 o'clock. Ream's majority will probably reach 1,000. Considerable interest is felt here in regard to Chicago's vote on Treasurer. Huck appears a favorite.

JACKSON COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

CARBONDALE, Ill., Nov. 2.—Jackson County gives a Republican majority again. The ticket elected is as follows: Robert Beasley, over M. F. Swartzcope, for Commissioner; William Bradley, over Samuel Michaelis and Joseph Green, for Treasurer. Ed Newsome, over J. Werner, for Surveyor.

PERRY COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DU QUOIN, Ill., Nov. 2.—Perry County has gone Republican. The following ticket was elected: J. W. Pyatt for County Commissioner over Charles Guemally by about 100 majority; John Patterson for Treasurer by the entire vote.

WISCONSIN.

MADISON.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 2.—Had the voters been left to their honest convictions here there would have been a majority for Ludington; but, by a vigorous use of the Reform party lash, Taylor carried the city by 155 majority, against 124 two years, when Washburn run largely ahead. The vote is as follows: Ludington, 859; Taylor, 1,014; Eaton, 833; Parker, 1,049; Warner, 825; Doyle, 1,040; Bantz, 825; Kuehn, 1,059; Bennett, 822; Sloan, 1,060; Graham, 781; Searing, 1,107. For the Assembly—Spooner, Republican, 769; Charleton, Reform, 833. Spooner is defeated by 23.

Returns from fifty towns and cities up to 8:30 p. m., outside of Milwaukee, show a net Republican gain of 2,000.

Chairman Keys claims the State for Ludington by a fair majority.

MILWAUKEE.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 2.—Returns from thirty-five towns and precincts give Taylor, Democratic-Reform candidate for Governor, 386 majority, a Republican gain of 4,765.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 2—10 p. m.—The total vote for Governor in this city is: Ludington, 5,089; Taylor, 5,816. Taylor's majority, 727. Republican gain, 5,626. In the city and sixty towns Ludington's majority is 583, and the Republican gain is 9,362. Ludington and the balance of the Republican State ticket are undoubtedly elected.

Returns from the City of Milwaukee and eighty-five towns give Taylor, Democratic-Reform candidate for Governor, 72 majority. Republican gain, 10,017.

KENOSHA COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

KENOSHA, Wis., Nov. 2.—The election throughout the city passed off quietly to-day. The Democratic Reformers feel quite happy over their success in carrying the city, excepting Dr. Farr, Republican, for State Senator, who has a majority over Hollister, Democratic, of 387. Taylor's majority in the city is 24 over Ludington. No returns have been made from any of the towns in the county, and it is rather doubtful which way the county goes.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

KENOSHA, Wis., Nov. 2.—Returns from all the wards of this city give Taylor, Reform candidate for Governor, 24 majority. Farr, Republican candidate for the State Senate, has 387 majority; Robinson, Reform candidate for the Assembly, has 195 majority in this city.

LUDINGTON'S ELECTION CONCEDED.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 2.—About 100 towns and cities outside of Milwaukee, up to 10 p. m., show a net Republican gain of 3,700. Counting Milwaukee County at 1,000 majority, the net Republican gain so far is over 10,000. The Democrats concede Ludington's election by 5,000 or 6,000. Cottage Grove, Taylor's home, gives 89 Republican, a gain of 92.

WINNEBAGO COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

OSHKOSH, Wis., Nov. 2.—The City of Oshkosh gives Taylor 16 majority, a Republican gain of 143 over 1873. The Republicans probably elect three out of four Assemblymen in the county. Returns from towns in the county show Republican gains over 1873. Tom Wall, Democrat, elected in the First District; L. L. Chase, Republican, in the Second; and probably E. McArthur, Republican, in the Third; and S. A. Shufeldt, Republican, in the Fourth.

FOND DU LAC COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Nov. 2.—The City of Fond du Lac gave Ludington 352 majority,—a gain of 320. Hiner, Republican, is elected Senator in the Eighteenth District, and Cavanaugh in the Twentieth District, Democratic; Scribner in the First, and Putnam in the Second Assembly Districts, both Republican.

SURRENDER OF "REFORM."

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 2.—The Reformers met at the Assembly Chamber to receive returns to-night, and the Republicans at the Park Hotel. The spirits of the former sank and the latter rose as the news came, till about 11 o'clock the Reformers gave up beaten, and adjourned their meeting, surrendered the Capitol, and Superintendent Knight invited the Republicans to change their base to the Assembly Hall, which they did, and rejoiced there over the good news, foreign and domestic. Returns received from half the vote of the State wipe out three-fourths of Taylor's majority in 1873, and the election of the whole of the Republican ticket by 3,000 to 6,000 majority, the latter for Ludington. A Republican Legislature is conceded.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET BELOW GOVERNOR IN GREAT DOUBT.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 2.—One hundred and forty towns have been heard from, and they give Ludington 420 majority, a Republican gain of 10,832. Ludington is probably elected by from 3,000 to 5,000, but the balance of the Republican ticket is in great doubt.

JEFFERSON COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

FORT ATKINSON, Wis., Nov. 2.—Ludington's majority is 69. Curtis, Republican, for Assemblyman, has 84 majority. The election was quite exciting, and the contest close, as both candidates for the Assembly from this District are residents of this place.

FROM HEADQUARTERS.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 2—12 m.—The Hon. E. W. Keyes, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee telegraphs to the Sentinel: "I have no doubt of the success of our whole ticket. The Democrats concede the election of Ludington."

MISSISSIPPI.

A CONSERVATIVE VICTORY.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 2.—Gen. J. Z. George, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee at Jackson, Miss., telegraphs the Appeal that reports from all parts of the State indicate a sweeping Democratic victory: "We have carried every doubtful county."

The Avalanche's Jackson special says the election passed off quietly. Not a single disturbance is reported anywhere. Returns from all parts of the State indicate an overwhelming Conservative victory. They have carried every doubtful county, and have a decided majority in the House and Senate.

Lamar, Singleton, Hooker, and Mooney are elected to Congress. The Republicans concede the State, and have not had their headquarters open since morning. Everybody is enthusiastic and happy.

VICKSBURG, Nov. 2.—The election passed off very quietly. No disturbance of any sort at the polls or elsewhere. Sunday quietude prevails. A majority of the Democratic nominees elected.

A QUIET ELECTION.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Nov. 2.—The election today was one of the most quiet ever held in the State, and resulted in a great victory for honesty and intelligence. Both branches of the Legislature are undoubtedly Democratic. No Radical victory is reported anywhere. The negroes abandoned party, and voted largely with the Democrats. In this county there are strong indications that the Democrats will elect almost the entire ticket. At Raymond, in Hind County, the negroes voted solidly with the whites. Fifteen counties already give a large Democratic majority. Hooker, Lamar, Singleton, and Money, Democrats, and G. Wiley Wells, Liberal Republican, are known to be elected to Congress.

THE ELECTION AT JACKSON.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2.—At Jackson, Miss., the election passed off very peaceably. No disturbance was reported at any point. The Republican Executive Committee closed their headquarters at sundown and give up the contest. Returns indicate that the Democrats carry the State by 10,000. They have a decided majority in both houses, and elect four Congressmen, perhaps the entire Congressional delegation.

HOLLY SPRINGS.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 2.—A special dispatch to the Courier-Journal from Holly Springs, Miss., says that that place has gone Democratic for the first time in years. Marshall County is Democratic by 300 majority. Wells, Democrat, for Congress, carries the county by 500 majority. Everything is quiet. The Democrats are jubilant and Republicans correspondingly dejected.

MINNESOTA.

RAMSEY COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 2.—The weather was fair, insuring a large enough vote to elect all the Republican State ticket except Treasurer. Trouble was seriously anticipated in the city, but the day passed without a disturbance. The vote here is large, but owing to liberal scratching cannot be counted before near morning. The Democratic majority on State officers in Ramsey County is estimated at 700, Scheffer, for Treasurer, being 400 or 500 ahead. Becht, Republican, is probably elected Sheriff by a small majority. The local contest was mainly on Sheriff and Register of Deeds. For the latter office Johnston, Democrat is probably elected by 300 majority.

[To the Associated Press.]

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 2.—The scattering returns received up to 9 o'clock indicate the election of the whole Republican State ticket, with the possible exception of Treasurer, by majorities ranging from 5,000 to 8,000. No returns from any of the large towns are yet in.

REPUBLICAN MAJORITY 5,000.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 2—11 p. m.—Later reports from various parts of the State do not change the previous estimates, but do not give a base for close calculations. The Republican State ticket is undoubtedly elected, with the exception of State Treasurer. This is uncertain. The reports do not claim over 5,000 majority. It is impossible to make a close estimate of the Legislature, but it will be largely Republican.

KANSAS.

LEAVENWORTH.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Nov. 2.—The election in this city and county to-day, was one of the liveliest that have taken place for a long time. The Republicans claim a majority of the candidates elected. D. R. Anthony, the Postmaster of this city, has flopped completely. He addressed the Democratic ratification meeting last night, and avowed himself in favor of the Democratic ticket. As Anthony is Secretary of the Press Association at this point, many of the Associated Press dispatches are false in every particular, and are made up to suit his fancy or that of his friends.

A LIGHT VOTE.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 2.—The vote in the State to-day was light, and returns come in slowly. The principal contest was over county officers. In many of the counties there were three tickets in the field, and it is difficult to estimate the party majority in the State, but it is, perhaps, 10,000 Republican. The Republicans elect a large majority of the Representatives. The constitutional amendments providing for biennial sessions of the Legislature are carried.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 2.—A very light vote; only 300 cast in this city. In the Fifty-sixth District, Silver, Independent Republican, is elected to the Legislature over Adams, regular Republican.

In the Fifty-seventh District, Bonebrake is elected without opposition.

In the Fifty-eighth District, Foster, regular Republican, is elected over Otis, Opposition. The Republican county ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 400 to 1,000.

The Commonwealth has specials showing the election of Dozer, Republican, to the Legislature in Elli., and Long in Ellsworth County. Wright is probably elected in Davis County. In Wamego County, Codding, Republican, has 116 votes and Saxon, Opposition, 113 votes.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Nov. 2.—The whole Republican ticket is probably elected by about 300 majority. No returns received from the State, and nothing can be given in regard to the results to-night.

MICHIGAN.

DETROIT.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 2.—The municipal election to-day absorbed a greater degree of interest than any previously known. Good order generally prevailed, and a very large vote was polled. The contest for Mayor was squarely on the Sunday liquor-question. Alexander Lewis was the regular Democratic nominee, and was also at the head of the Law-and-Order ticket, as against W. G. Thompson, nominee of the Republican Convention. The result is a decided victory for the former. At this writing Lewis' majority is estimated at considerably over 1,000.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 2—11 p. m.—Returns from thirteen of the nineteen precincts indicate Lewis' election by about 1,500 majority. The Republicans claim to have a majority in the next Council, and also claim that they have elected most of their city ticket, but no definite figures have yet been obtained.

VIRGINIA.

NOTHING DEFINITE.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 2.—Meagre returns from the State show gains for both Conservatives and Republicans, the former, however, having the largest. In some counties where the Republicans have no candidate they are supporting the Independents. It is more than probable that the general result will not materially alter the complexion of the Legislature.

Gen. Bradley T. Johnson is elected to the State Senate by 200 majority. The two other Conservatives are elected by larger majorities.

Returns from fifty-four precincts in different counties show increased majorities for the Conservatives, whose gains in many cases are large. The Republicans show only small gains and in but few instances. It is impossible to estimate the extent of the Independent move outside of this district, as the returns are too meagre.

The Conservatives carry the city of Lynchburg by a small majority, a gain of over 100 over last year, when the Republicans carried the city. Norfolk City elects all Conservatives, there being no opposition.

The Republican gains in Norfolk County will probably elect J. D. Brady, Republican, to the Senate, and Cannon, a negro, to the House.

Portsmouth elects a Conservative to the House.

NEW JERSEY.

LARGE REPUBLICAN GAINS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Scattering returns from New Jersey show decided Republican gains.

The Republicans have elected their Senators in Essex and Union Counties, where the Democrats expected to be successful, and have also elected the Senator in Salem. The Democrats have elected Senators in Monmouth, Warren, and Somerset. As it now stands, the Senate is a tie, with two counties, Camden and Gloucester, both Republican, to hear from.

A REPUBLICAN LEGISLATURE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Returns, as far as received, from New Jersey, indicate that both branches of the Legislature are Republican. Essex County sends one Republican Senator and eight Assemblymen to one Democratic Assemblyman, a Republican gain of five. The Republicans gain two Assemblymen in Hudson and two in Mercer Counties.

CAMDEN COUNTY.

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 2.—The whole Republican ticket is elected in Camden County by majorities ranging from 500 to 1,500.

OHIO.

THE WOOD COUNTY RETURNS.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 2.—The Secretary of State has sent a letter to the Attorney-General stating that in the abstract of votes returned to him, no votes were placed opposite the Township of Perrysburg, Wood County, and stating that he has been requested to defer issuing a commission to those certified to have been elected until the matter can be adjusted in the courts, and asking the Attorney-General's opinion on the subject. In answer to this letter the Attorney-General has given an opinion that the duties of the Secretary of State in respect to such abstracts is wholly ministerial. He is simply required to countersign such commissions as are issued by the Governor, but, as to whether a commission should issue or be withheld, in any case, he can have no concern, and can take no action.

MARYLAND.

PARTIAL RETURNS.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 2.—Seventeen wards give Carroll, for Governor, 15,296 majority. The majority for the balance of the State ticket is about the same. The three remaining wards will probably give a small Democratic majority. Anne Arundel County gives about 700 Democratic majority on the State and county ticket.

Wycomic County is reported 750 Democratic.

Kent County is reported 100 Democratic.

Returns from other counties are very meagre, but the indications are that the entire Democratic State ticket is elected.

OREGON.

THE RECENT ELECTION.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—A dispatch from Portland, Ore., says later election returns materially reduce the majority for Lane, Democrat, for Congress. A dispatch from Salem says that returns indicate the election of Warren, Republican, by a small majority.

CASUALTIES.

A PHYSICIAN FOUND DEAD.

Special Correspondence of The Chicago Tribune.

SYCAMORE, Ill., Oct. 31.—Dr. Eugene Garvin, son of J. W. Garvin, of this place, was found dead, this afternoon about 2 o'clock, 2 miles west of this place, near the Kishwaukee River. It appears that he was returning home about 8 o'clock from a visit to a patient, and, it is supposed, was thrown from his carriage down an embankment into the river. He had managed to reach the opposite side of the stream,—the water being only about 4 feet deep,—and crawl several yards to a patch of weeds, where he was found. He probably died from the cold, as the wounds received from the fall did not appear to have been severe enough to prove fatal. The deceased was about 27 years of age, and much respected in this community.

FATAL ACCIDENTS TO TEAMSTERS.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DAVENPORT, Ia., Nov. 2.—Yesterday Mr. William Pillion, a farmer living in this township, was coming into the city driving a lot of hogs. His son was driving a team just in front, and, for some reason, the horses got scared, turned round, and started for home. Mr. Pollion jumped to the horses' head to try to grab the lines and to try to stop the team, when the concussion knocked him down, and the wheels of the wagon passed over him, killing him almost instantly.

On Sunday evening a German laborer named Alfred Schneider was driving a load of ties along the Lone Moor road near Comanche. His team shied and threw the wagon down an embankment, Mr. Schneider falling under the load and being killed instantly.

SEVENTEEN PERSONS DROWNED.

QUEBEC, Can., Nov. 2.—During the gale and snow-storm of Sunday, an accident, by which about seventeen persons lost their lives, occurred at St. Famille, in the Isle of Orleans. The people, who were principally residents of the island, were returning from market, and were being landed from a steamer in a scow, which capsized, and all on board, with one exception, were drowned.

During the same gale, John Campbell, the chief officer of the steamer Canallian, and a laborer, were
