

DEBATING THE BILL

NO REPRESS CRIME IN IRELAND.

Mr. Parnell made an Apologetic Speech to Parliament—He Defends Boycotting—Notes from Ireland—Motions of Divert.

Mr. Parnell's speech was very moderate and almost apologetic. He said that he was not a rebel, but a patriot, and that he was only fighting for the rights of his countrymen.

BOSTON'S BUNKO STERRER.

How Charles Francis Adams was Enticed Into His Box and Made a Victim.

Boston, May 25.—James Fitzgerald, who has been in trial the past two days in the superior court on the charge of obtaining money from Charles Francis Adams at the "bunco" game, was found guilty of the offense.

The defendant's counsel filed exceptions to the verdict, and the case now rests on the appeal. The most interesting portion of the trial was the recital of Fitzgerald's story of confession.
