THE DAILY CRITIC

CITY SPECIALS.

Baby Carriages and Refrigerators.

Having had a great run on those $35 parlor suits of seven pieces, we turn our attention to baby carriages and refrigerators. Many will want them, and no family should be a minute be without them. The stock we display embraces the newer styles, the best makes and the lowest prices. The benefits of our credit system are always at the disposal of our customers. Therefore, you have what money you have and buy what you want. That is the rule at Budden's Furniture, Carpet and Stove Stores, at 929 and 931 7th street northwest.

Houghton & Co.'s Unprecedented Inducements.

The cheapest yet. Just read their bargains in furniture: 1 oak bureau, 1 bedstead, 1 washstand, 1 pair of feather pillows, 1 extra large oak table, 3 fine cane chairs, 1 wire mattress—all these serviceable and desirable articles, worth every day, for the small sum of $25.00. Again they offer 6 chairs and a six-foot extension table for the surprising and unprecedented price of $10.00. And again, can you spare the small sum of $30? If so, see our 5-piece oak dining room suite. It is a daisy, and the price is almost original.

Ordained for Missionary Work.

Rev. W. A. Carrington, at a meeting of the Washington Presbytery last night at the North Presbyterian Church, was ordained for missionary work by the ceremony of the laying on of hands. He will probably be sent to Brazil. The charge to Mr. Carrington was delivered by Rev. T. S. Wynkoop, and a sermon was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Miller. John E. Stuchell was received under the care of the Presbytery for preparation for the ministry. The ministers present were Revs. William S. Miller, Mr. McIlvane, J. T. Kelly, T. S. Wynkoop, C. B. Ramsdell, Thomas Fullerton and N. Cobb; Elders Keyser, Doctor Hughes and T. B. Linton.

Michigan Veterans.

The ex soldiers of the First Regiment of Michigan Infantry, both of the three months' and three years' service, will hold their annual reunion at Saginaw, Mich., next week, in which Colonel Charles P. Lincoln, Deputy Commissioner of Pensions, will take a prominent part, and has been invited to deliver the oration. General Ira C. Abbott of the Pension Office is president of the Association of Michigan Veterans. Colonel Lincoln will also deliver the oration at the State Encampment of the Sons of Veterans at Lansing, Mich. Colonel Lincoln is an able orator and very popular with the soldier element.

Parlor Cars to Deer Park and Oakland.

Commencing Saturday, June 21st, the B. & O. R. R. will attach a Pullman Buffet Parlor Car to the Chicago Vestibuled Limited Express leaving Camden Station 10:30 a. m., Washington, 11:30 a. m.; arriving at Deer Park 5:35 p. m., Mountain Lake Park, 5:40 p. m.; Oakland, 5:45 p. m. Returning the car will be placed on the Chicago Vestibuled Limited Express leaving Grafton 8:00 a. m. and Deer Park at 10:30 a. m., arriving in Washington 4:10 p. m., Baltimore, 5:20 p. m.

Shaw-Bassett.

The nuptials of Miss Helen Corinne Thurber, daughter of Mr. George T. Bassett, and Mr. George Francis Shaw were solemnized last evening at the Metropolitan Presbyterian Church on Capitol Hill, the Rev. Dr. Chester officiating. A large audience witnessed the ceremony. Mr. Edward Miles was the groom's best man. A reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, on East Capitol street, after which the happy couple left upon a Northern bridal tour. The presents were numerous and handsome.

Looking for a New Contract.

President Andrews of the New York Steam Heating Company and Attorney Wood of the United Electric Light Company, New York, were at the Treasury Department yesterday to see about having the contract renewed for heating and lighting the U. S. Court-House and Postoffice. No action was taken by the Department, and the contract will not be settled for several days.

The Great Bankrupt Sale of Clothing which is going on at 311 Seventh street northwest still continues. Fine Men's, Boys', and Children's Clothing selling at Half Price. The accounts of the firm must be settled at once. Call and see and compare prices. 311 Seventh street northwest. See advertisement on fourth page.

Theft of Valuable Property.

Inspector Swindler was notified yesterday that $950 worth of property had been stolen from Mrs. Gordon McKey of No. 1785 Massachusetts avenue. The property was stolen while she was away from home, and there are suspicions, but the theft has not as yet been traced to any one. There was $2,000 worth of diamonds and jewelery in another drawer that might just as well have been taken, but it is thought that the thief was frightened away before he finished his work.

Police Officers in Trouble.

It took all day Wednesday for the trial board to investigate a certain difficulty that had occurred between Officers Black and Curtis, and also to find out whether Officers Peach and Mason had conducted themselves unbecomingly. The latter threw cuspidors at one another and demolished chairs in a public place, so it is alleged. There is a prospect of dismissal for the two last mentioned officers.

Tucker's Case.

H. H. Tucker, alias W. S. Scott, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses and sentenced to one year and one day by Judge Bingham on Wednesday, had his sentence set aside yesterday in order to give time for the investigation of certain alleged facts that have been brought to the attention of the Court.

Quick Trains to Luray.

The B. & O. Cincinnati Vestibule Limited Express, leaving Camden Station at 6:30 p. m. and Washington at 7:30 p. m., makes direct connection at Shenandoah Junction with the Luray Express, arriving at Luray at 7:45 p. m., daily, except Sunday. Round trip tickets, including admission to the Caverns, on sale at all B. & O. offices.

The Accident to Miss Landrigan.

Miss Agnes Landrigan, an employe of the Government Printing Office, who met with an accident in one of the cars of the Eckington and Soldiers' Home road about five weeks ago, is still confined to her bed. The doctor says it may be several weeks before she will be able to walk.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.

A Large Class Graduated—Complete List of Pupils.

Lincoln Music Hall was beautifully decorated last night with flags and streamers, on the occasion of the graduating exercises of the Washington High School pupils, after a three years' course. On the stage was a row of palms, surmounted by a floral scroll, bearing the motto: "Age Quod Agis." The hall was crowded to overflowing.

The young lady graduates, wearing white dresses, and the youths, who had donned Prince Albert suits, marched on the stage at about 8:30 o'clock. Others on the stage were Commissioners Douglass, Hine and Robert, Revs. R. R. Shippen, T. S. Hamlin and A. D. Mayo, Professor H. C. Spencer, Postmaster Ross, president of the school board, and Superintendent Powell. The Marine Band furnished the music.

Commissioner Douglass, in his introductory remarks, said that the schoolhouse has always been close to the hearts of the community. The year just closed had been one of remarkable success. The attendance for the past school year was 37,500, of which 24,000 were white and 13,000 colored. Next year he thought the attendance at all the schools would be 39,000—white, 24,900; colored, 14,100.

The class valedictory was delivered by Mr. C. S. Albert. Remarks were made by President Ross of the board of trustees and Hon. W. C. P. Breckinridge, and Rev. Dr. Tennis S. Hamlin distributed the diplomas as follows:

AFTER PROSECUTOR ARMES.

Colored Citizens Resent Alleged Ill-treatment of Their Race.

The colored citizens of Washington are much aroused over the manner in which Hutchinson has been treated. Hutchinson has a police record against him that no man need be proud of, but at the same time he seems to have a big pull with the colored populace. They sometime ago held two indignation meetings over him and discussed the manner in which he had been treated, and last night there was another enthusiastic gathering at the Second Baptist Church.

The latest demand is to have District Attorney Armes removed for entering a nolle pros. in the Dean case. It has been known for weeks that Dean never hit Hutchinson, but that another officer did, and, if all accounts be true, he was justified in so doing.
