Order of Good Samaritans.

A meeting of representatives from the national grand council and the national grand lodge of the Independent Order of Good Samarltans was held restorday at the Cadets' Armory on O street. D. P. Scaton, past national grand chief of the grand council, was elected chair man; Rev. Daniel Jones, grand sire of the grand lodge, vice president; James Burgess, secretary, and Cornella S. Snyder, assistant secretary. Articles of agreement, which had been proviously adopted by the two grand bodies, were referred to the business committe. The articles contain propositions looking toward an organic union.

A meeting of the delegates was held this morning and this afternoon a street parade was given.

Moral Laws Not Legal Laws. John H. Sis was some days ago arrested on a charge of selling liquor to minors and the case continued. It was subsequently found that Sis had no liteerse and consequently could not be prosecuted under the minor act. He vas, however, charged with selling liquor without a license. Two boys who became intoxicated in the place testified that they had never purchased any liquor there, but had been treated. This was all the evidence, but District Attorney Dumont argued that the defendant ought to be convicted on moral grounds. His Honor said he had nothing to do with the moral ground, and on the legal grounds he would have to dismiss Mr. Sis.

Happily Mated. Miss Mary E. Kelfher and Mr. Matthaw E. Donebue of Georgetown were to ltd in marriage hat evening at the Holy Trinity Catholic Church by Rev. Father Rockford, assisted by Rev. Father Kelly. The church was filled with the friends and relatives of the John couple. The Misses Donobus, Joyce, Crowley, Moran and Sullivan assisted the bride, and Mesus John Keiber, James Keiber, Miller and Crewley acted as ushers. At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was held at the future residence of the bride and groom, Thirty-fourth and P streets, where the happy couple were the re-ciplents of many congratulations. Architect Multett's Fuseral, Ray, Dr. Harding, paster of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, will conduct the funeral services of the late A. B. Mullett at I o'clock to morrow afternoon, at the family residence, 2501 Pennsylvania avenue. There will 2501 Pennsylvania avenue. There will also be services by the Knights Temp-lar and Blue Lodge of Masons. The remains will be taken via Baltimore and Ohio Rallroad, secompanied by one member from each of the four Masonic bodies to which deceased belonged, to Cincinnatti for float interment to Spring Greve Cemetery.

Gone to Join Her Stater. Officer Lutherton last night found Fanule Menroe wandering around in a suspicious manner in the northeastern part of the city. She told the officer that she was on her way to the work-house to see her afster, but the officer did not take much stock in her story and placed her under arrest. In court to day she declined to answer the Judge's questions or say anything to regard to ber actions last night. Judge Miller sent her to the workhouse. Demise of Mr. Frost.

Mr. Horace J. Frost died suddenly yesterday afternoon at his residence, 1762 N alrest porthwest. Mr. Frost was a native of Michigan, but has resided in this city for nearly thirty live years. He was married to Miss Mildred Wather, sister of Mr. David Wather of Lewis Johnson & Co. Mr. Frost was wall known in church and business sittles, and bis sudden death will be s'eplored by many friends.

WHY: Because he has accomplished more it thirty days than Congress ever did.

WHAT HAS HE DONE

J. B. BROWN.

He has proved to the business men of the District of Columbia that pro-tection for revenue only is what they need.

HOW CAN THEY GET PROTECTION? By joining the

Protective Union, WHERE DO THEY GET THE REVENUE:

From debts due them. The object of the MERCHANTS' MUTUAL PROTECTIVE UNION is to protect its members against that class persons who do not pay their Just ebts in the following manner; 1st. By endeavoring to obtain for its numbers debts over due.

2d. By furnishing its members with the names of this class in order that credit may be refused. TO ACCOMPLISH THESE EXPS:

1st. The manager has an efficient and reliable corps of collectors who will use every available means to obtain moneys ue the members.

2d. To obtain from merchants in GENTRAL names of persons who have failed to meet their just obligations and PURLISH list of names thus obtained and distribute to the members monthly.

This Association is entirely local and embraces all branches of business of the District of Columbia.
