FOURTH DAY

S-S-S-S-S-S-S-S-S-S

To say we are gratified and encouraged by the appreciation and almost universal response of our customers, and the public generally, in acknowledgment of our endeavors to give them the best intrinsic values possibly obtainable, is but a mild expression of our feelings.

Under the most unfavorable circumstances and most unseasonable weather we have kept the wheels of trade constantly turning. But how?

By creating a demand, which is only done in such instances by lowering the prices. Not that they were too high, for they were NEVER LOWER, but because the supply exceeds the demand.

We cannot afford to be idle, hence the sweeping reductions to move this surplus stock, which must be distributed, and propose to give our customers any benefits which may be derived from these reductions.

Having decided to use the knife, we propose to use it freely and cut deep the first time to effect the early disposal of this surplus stock and accomplish our purpose.

Again we say, whatever you buy of us, at whatever price, when you feel you would rather have the money return to us the goods. Can we do more? The lots previously advertised are already perceptibly diminished.

Surplus Stock of Brocade Velvets.--We have a surplus stock of Brocade Velvets which must be sold at whatever sacrifice. We do not believe in half-way reductions. When we make up our minds to sell a piece of goods we put a price on it which places the sale of it beyond a doubt.

These Must Be Sold-- Surplus Stock of 18-inch Corded Brocade Velvets, in navy blue, sapphire and dark red. Former price $2.00. Surplus price $1.00.

Surplus Stock of Quilts.-- While there is quite a demand for Quilts and Bedspreads, it is not as great as it should be at this season of the year. We are going to create a demand by dropping the price on two good brands, of which we have too many, and think you will appreciate buying them at the surplus stock prices.

These will be displayed on a center counter in front of our Linen Dept. (near the door) To-morrow Morning.

ONE SURPLUS LOT OF QUILTS. Former price $1.50. Surplus price .95c.

ONE SURPLUS STOCK OF BEDSPREADS. Former price $1.50. Surplus price .95c.

ONE SURPLUS STOCK OF PARASOLS AND UMBRELLAS. Former price $1.50. Surplus price .95c.

ONE SURPLUS STOCK OF GLOVES. Former price $1.50. Surplus price .95c.

ONE SURPLUS STOCK OF CORSETS. Former price $1.50. Surplus price .95c.

ONE SURPLUS STOCK OF HATS. Former price $1.50. Surplus price .95c.

ONE SURPLUS STOCK OF BONNETS. Former price $1.50. Surplus price .95c.

ONE SURPLUS STOCK OF SHIRTS. Former price $1.50. Surplus price .95c.

ONE SURPLUS STOCK OF TIES. Former price $1.50. Surplus price .95c.

GOVERNMENT GOSSIP.

OFFICIAL AND UNOFFICIAL IN AND ABOUT THE DEPARTMENTS.

A New Division Chief in the Land Office--The Wyoming Governorship--Consul Mackey's Case--The District Marshals--Callers at the White House--More New Postmasters.

The President made the following appointments today: EDWARD CAMPBELL, Jr., to be marshal of the southern district of Iowa.

EDWARD CAMPBELL, Jr., to be marshal of the southern district of Iowa. ROBERT M. CAMPBELL, to be marshal of the land office at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Postmasters--J. J. Hartenbower, Sheldon, Iowa; R. H. Platt, Napa City, Cal.; J. S. Laughlin, Sidney, Ohio; C. W. Webb, Anderson, South Carolina; J. H. Donkersley, Laramie City, Wyoming; D. G. Craig, Fort Atkinson, Wis.; W. E. J. G. Valle, Celina, Ohio.

The postmaster at Celina, Ohio, was suspended for the Civil Service, but his private business and had otherwise violated the postal laws and regulations.

Mr. Gehring, the Fort Atkinson postmaster, was suspended for active and offensive participation in the election, being the office annoying and unpleasant to a great number of his patrons.

J. H. Donkersley, not J. P. Keller, as stated yesterday, assumes postmaster at Laramie City, Wyoming.

Naval Cadet J. W. Wedderburn of this city, appointed from Illinois in September, 1884, has resigned from the Naval Academy. His brother was a naval cadet and was killed by a fall in the gymnasium at the academy a couple of years ago.

The President's callers today included the Attorney-General, Senators Voorhees, Van Wyck and McPherson, Representatives Lawler, McAdoo, Baylour, Dibble and Henley, Joaquin Miller, Dr. Arberry, General Rosecrans, Captain Ramsay, Judge Bartley, Captain Richard L. Hoyle and C. C. Moreno.

The Wyoming Governorship. Major W. P. Robinson, chief clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives, arrived this morning from New York and will press his claims for the Governorship of Wyoming. He has been in the legislatures of Iowa, Missouri and Wyoming, and is backed by influential Democrats of New York city and State. Mr. Robinson is about 40 years of age and quite popular in the West.

An Alleged Government Scandal. An Ottawa special says that J. G. Baker & Co., of which firm Conrad of Montana is the leading spirit, have drawn over $200,000 during the past year for supplies furnished the Government in the Northwest. It is intimated that an examination of the public accounts has revealed irregularities which involve the departments in the Interior, Indian and Police Departments in connection with the contracts.

The Clark Investigation. In the Clark investigation to-day William W. Robinson, chief clerk of the Treasury, testified that since the investigation began a force of scrappers and rubbers have been engaged on the work, and that they were active in the morning. He was followed by Thomas McNickle, who stated in detail, by courses, where bad workmanship appears. He was still on the stand when this report closed.

Reconciled to the Situation. Said a one-armed ex-soldier at the Postoffice Department to-day: "I don't see why the boys are kicking over their dishes. The government has got to pay and we might as well go with a good grace. I have been in office 11 years, and while I like my position and in a love with Washington, I don't see why I should be kicked out to-morrow. Luckily I have saved some money, and Virginia is a good State to live in."

Bank-Note Paper. The Treasury committee on distinctive paper is understood to have come to a unanimous conclusion that the silk fiber used in the paper is detrimental to its appearance and its strength, and has no corresponding advantage. The contract may be given to the lowest of the two bidders and the present paper continued in use until the new paper is made. The report to Congress such changes as he may deem expedient. The present committee will probably be authorized later on to review the entire subject and to recommend needed improvements.

In Search of an Octopus. The Fish Commission's octopus has arrived in Baltimore yesterday from this city. He is being kept in a tank and is being fed with small fish. He is a large animal, and is being kept in a tank in the Chesapeake in search of the fish, which are generally regarded as among the most voracious of the fish world. The attention of the vessel will then be directed to the Grand Banks, where an effort will be made to capture a complete specimen of the mammoth octopus. It is said that there is not a complete octopus in any natural collection.

The District Marshals. At the White House it is stated that the President has been able to give comparatively little attention to the local Marshals, and it is still uncertain when it will be determined. Mr. Hay believes that the President has formed any preference in the matter. Mr. E. B. Hay was asked this morning what information he had obtained on the subject. He expressed the opinion that a conclusion may be reached during the present week. He has received no intimation of the result, and believes that the President has no objection to the subject, except that the conflicting claims of aspirants embarrass him very much in his efforts to ascertain the choice of the community. Mr. Hay believes his own papers to be the strongest on file, and that his chances are at least as good as those of any other applicant.

Consul Mackey's Case. The State Department has received a report of the arrest and imprisonment of Consul Mackey at Rio Grande, Brazil. Mackey, who is a son of Judge T. J. Mackey and a graduate of Georgetown University, was the subject of unjust and scurrilous attacks in a newspaper published in Rio Grande de Sul by one Amorim. Recently the paper contained an attack upon Consul Mackey's mother, an estimate of her living in this city. When Mackey and Amorim met at the theatre an altercation occurred, and both men drew weapons. Amorim was shot twice, and Mackey surrendered himself to the police. Amorim organized a mob to seize Mackey and overawed the police.

OUR PRESS GALLERY.

MEN OF NOTE AMONG THE WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENTS.

The Classic Features, Accompanied by Biographical Sketches, of Mr. Crawford of the New York "Times" and Mr. Dunnell of the "World."

Mr. T. C. Crawford, who represents the New York World in this city, is an agreeable and accomplished gentleman, and 30 years of age. He is a native of Michigan and his first newspaper work was on the Milwaukee News in 1860 as city editor. He shortly afterwards became connected with the Chicago Times as correspondent, and later on went to St. Louis, remaining there a course of years in the editorial staff of the Journal. He then came to this city.

Mr. D. W. Dunnell, who represents the New York Times in this city, is an agreeable and accomplished gentleman, and 30 years of age. He is a native of Michigan and his first newspaper work was on the Milwaukee News in 1860 as city editor. He shortly afterwards became connected with the Chicago Times as correspondent, and later on went to St. Louis, remaining there a course of years in the editorial staff of the Journal. He then came to this city.

Retinquishing Their Positions. General Black, Commissioner of Pensions, was considerably surprised yesterday when Mr. Snyder, a member of a New York firm, called on him and offered a pension of $72 a month, came in, and after expressing his gratitude for what the Government had done for him, said that he wished to give up his position as he had fully recovered. A Kentuckian named Stevenson has also sent his pension certificate to the Pension Office, with the request that it be canceled. He believed that he had recovered.

Minor and Personal. The President and Colonel Lamont drove to Mount Pleasant yesterday. The President will probably go to New York on Friday to spend Decoration day. A saving of $150,000 has been effected in letting Indian contracts in New York this year. Postmaster-General Vilas today appointed twenty-six postmasters of the fourth class.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue will receive bids for internal revenue stamps until June 25. Mr. Abbott, a brother of Governor Abbott of New Jersey, has been appointed chief clerk of the State Auditor's office.

The Emperor of Japan has despatched the American professor at the Tokio University with the Order of the Rising Sun. Wooden, the frightened Treasury watchman, will be assigned to duty until he has been furnished with the building and has overcome his fears.

A delegation of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Congressional Barbour's district is in the city to secure a Department place for Mr. F. W. Bailey of Virginia.

The Attorney-General has decided Mr. James M. Morgan, appointed consul-general to Manila, to be the one to receive the same view in the case of General Lawton.

The committee engaged in counting the securities at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing will report to-day. The employees will report for work to-morrow.

Antonio Biondi, a messenger in the Navy Department, who had been in the navy library, died at his home in this city last night.

About $3,000,000 was paid out of the U. S. treasury yesterday for pensions, making the total amount paid out on that account during the present month about $10,000,000.

The failure of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing to deliver stamps for printing postage stamps will result in a further reduction of the force of that bureau on June 30.

Mr. Hassler, the appointment clerk of the Interior, returned to-day from New York, where he has been assisting the Commissioner of Indian Affairs in making contracts for supplies.

Ex-Senator Buckalew of Pennsylvania is believed to have been arrested in Philadelphia, ex-Mayor Daniel M. Fox of Philadelphia for director of the mint and Samuel Joseph of that city for United States marshal.

The position of steward of the White House will not be filled for some weeks. Miss Katherine Keenan, who came from Albany soon after March 4, and has since acted as cook, will remain in her present position.

Professor Wiley has received a specimen of the insect that has been ravaging the Pacific Coast wheat fields, and has pronounced it the genuine Hessian fly, which was not supposed to exist west of the Rocky Mountains.

Mr. Robert Howard of Little Rock, Ark., in the city and will shortly receive an appointment in the Department of Justice. Mr. Howard is a former law partner and an intimate friend of Attorney-General Mackey.

The following Washington business men were among the bidders on stationery for the Treasury Department, the bids being opened yesterday: E. A. Schmidt, William Gallinger, S. C. Chapman, E. K. Helphentine, J. D. Free, Easton & Rupp, C. W. Thorn & Co. and C. C. Pursell.

D. Walker Wear, the new superintendent of Yellowstone Park, is a member of the New York Evening Post, and achieved some distinction at the last session of his legislature as chairman of the Senate Committee on Insurance. His present position is that of a traveling agent for the Panama Railway Company.

The Panama Railway Company are fighting for the compensation allowed by the Government for the transportation of mails at sea to the Isthmus of Panama. The steamship company wants $25,000, while the railway company would be satisfied with about one-sixth of that amount.

THE MURDEROUS APACHES.

Many Settlers slain and the Troops in Hot Pursuit.

Deming, N. M., May 27.--News from Silver City is to the effect that twenty-four men massacred by Chief Geromino and his band have been buried in a radius of twenty-four miles and a number of others are missing. Several casualties are reported above the Alamo. A camp sixteen miles above the Springs was also attacked and a man named Baxter of Pine Alto killed. The citizens along the Gila River being warned in time, made preparations to fight, but the troops making a forced march from Pecosanton succeeded in intercepting the Indians and drove them back to the range. Though in an inferior condition, having marched a hundred miles in two days and nights without making camp, they charged up the hill, putting the Indians to flight, capturing two horses, a quantity of ammunition and several ponies.

Fire in New York. New York, May 27.--The vast furniture factory of Herman & Bos, at Mungin and Tompkins streets, was discovered to be on fire about 3:30 o'clock this morning. The fire was intense, and nearly a hundred families were driven from their homes. The flames spread so rapidly that the firemen gave up trying to save the factory and directed their efforts to the surrounding property. Over 300 men were thrown out of work.

In addition to the destruction of the factory, numerous houses fronting on Mungin street were damaged by water to the extent of about $15,000. The cause of the fire is a mystery. The flames were watched on the roof after 7 o'clock. The loss will be about $300,000.

Charges Against an Ex-Cashier. New York, May 27.--Mr. Runyon of Martin & Runyon, bankers, says that they will be taken to arrest James Nelson Day, whose services as cashier were relinquished last February when he was found to be $50,000 short. The firm did not prosecute him then out of consideration for his family, and also because Mr. Day said that when he had been lost in speculation and that nothing could be recovered. Mr. Runyon says that he has learned that Mr. Day disposed of the money differently. Mr. Day professed much surprise at Mr. Runyon's statements.

Why Russia Delays. London, May 27.--It is reported in Berlin that a settlement of the Afghan difficulty is still delayed by Russia's demand for Zulfikar, a claim which has the approval of Germany. It is also stated that if it shall be necessary to choose an arbitrator, Russia will insist on having the King of Denmark, while England prefers the Emperor of Germany. The National Zeitung says that Lord Rosebery will in Berlin expressed his conviction that an early settlement would be arranged unless Russia oversteps her original proposals.

Miss Cleveland to Dr. Crosby. New York, May 27.--The Sun publishes a long commentary by Miss Elizabeth Cleveland, sister of the President, upon Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby's article in the Evangelist of March 17, in which he remarks that it is as natural for woman to cry out against anything short of total abstinence as it is for her to wish that there were no knives in the world because her child has cut his finger off. Miss Cleveland rebuts at the implied want of reason and logic in woman.

Thought He Was Going to Bed. New York, May 27.--A young man named Joseph M. Dougherty was arrested on the Brooklyn bridge this morning while apparently making ready for a jump into the river. He told the officers that he had been in a state of mind for some days and thought he was at home taking off his clothes to go to bed. Judge Walsh sent him to jail for ten days.

A Desperate Lover. WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 27.--Allan Bruner, a young farmer, yesterday shot at his wife, Mrs. Mary Cook, in a fit of jealousy. The bullet missed her, whereupon he beat her over the head with the pistol and then fell toward the river, and it is believed drowned himself.

A Just Decision. LAREDO, TEX., May 27.--The Supreme Court of Mexico has refused a decision of the District Court of New Laredo, Mex., which held that the confiscation of real estate from Mr. Thomas Walsh, an American citizen, who was acting as a foreigner, held property in Mexico, was illegal.

A Vicious Story. TORONTO, May 27.--Today's Canadian press are unanimous in expressing the opinion that the story that Alward, the Hon. Rev. John A. Macdonald's light at Batavia, is thoroughly fictitious.

General Grant Sleepless. NEW YORK, May 27.--"I think father did not sleep more than three or four hours last night," said Colonel Fred Grant this morning.

TENEMENT TERRORS.

A JERSEY CITY MAN-TRAP FALLS OF ITS OWN WEIGHT.

Several Persons Fatally Crushed in the Ruins and a Number of Others Wounded--The Building Suddenly Sinks in the Centre and Shuts itself Up Like a Telescope.

Jersey City, N. J., May 27.--A terrible disaster, causing the loss of four lives and the more or less serious wounding of an as yet unknown number of persons, occurred about 8:30 o'clock this morning. The four families in Patrick Anderson's fourth story tenement house, situated on the west side of Colgate street, between First and Second streets, were about their usual avocations at that hour when they were started as if by a roar of cannon, were startled and followed the creaking of timbers, and the building began to tremble. In another instant, and before the now thoroughly terrified occupants had time to get away, the building had collapsed. It sank down in the centre like a telescope, and a cloud of dust, composed of the bricks, mortar and women and the cries of children alarmed the neighborhood and the vicinity was soon swarming with humanity. Strong hands were seen toiling down and engaged in the work of digging away the timbers, rescuing the living and taking out the dead. The screams of the wounded, who were piled down and crushed between the timbers were agonizing. Immediately after the disaster occurred, an alarm was given on the fire-bell, and the fire department was called. They took out the dead, the dying and those who had by a miracle escaped injury. It has been ascertained at this writing that four persons were killed, three children of Mr. Anderson, the owner of the building, and a young man named Hayes, 17 years old. Mrs. Anderson, who lives on the second floor, and went to a neighboring grocery to get something for breakfast. When she returned her house was wrecked and her three children, composed of one boy and two girls, were killed. Her husband, who is the baker at the Snake Hill prison, was absent at the time. The number of wounded and the nature and extent of the injuries have not as yet been ascertained.

The collapsed building was owned by Patrick Anderson, who, with his wife and three children, occupied the first floor. The killed are as follows: Annie, Ella and Barney Anderson, aged respectively 8 months, 8 years and 10 years.

The other victim was Michael Webb, a lad of 17 years, residing on the second floor. He was crushed in a frightful manner, nearly every bone in his body having been broken.

The injured, as far as can be learned, are: John Coyne, aged 48 years, badly hurt about the head and face; Patrick Coyne, aged 9 years, severely injured; Mary Coyne, aged 12, forehead badly cut; Bridget Coyne, aged 33, badly bruised about the body; Hugh McKinley, aged 35, head and face badly cut; Mrs. McGarry, aged 29, slightly injured about the body; Lizzie Husey, aged 35, back badly hurt; Maggie Anderson, aged 12, head and arms badly injured.

The accident is attributed to the rotting away of the piles upon which the house stands. All the injured were cared for in the various hospitals of the city. A better type of man-trap than the rickety frame rookery that gave way this morning could not be found in any locality in Jersey City. The fact that it was a calm, clear morning proved the rotten condition of the structure.

The firemen warn and hasten the authorities to take steps by which any recurrence of such terrible accidents may be prevented. Mrs. Webb, whose 15-year-old son Michael lost his life by being crushed to death, says that she was struck by the loss of her boy. She goes around like one bereft, calling her boy's name and calling on God to take her out of the world. She says that the first warning she had of the building was about to fall came to her in the noise of the creaking of one of the floor beams.

Anticipated Trouble for Italy. LONDON, May 27.--King John of Abyssinia is rapidly collecting a large force of warriors to prevent the Italian contingent, now occupying the Red Sea and other parts in Egypt, from advancing on Senegal. The news has caused much excitement here, and it is believed that the fact is expressed that unless the Italian troops are at once withdrawn a conflict will occur.

A Fight Before Hugo's Funeral. PARIS, May 27.--President Grevy's daughter is rapidly collecting a large force of warriors to prevent the Italian contingent, now occupying the Red Sea and other parts in Egypt, from advancing on Senegal. The news has caused much excitement here, and it is believed that the fact is expressed that unless the Italian troops are at once withdrawn a conflict will occur.

Another Disastrous Fire. NEW YORK, May 27.--Another disastrous and probably fatal fire took place at 9:30 o'clock this morning at No. 259 East 107th street. Mrs. Catherine McGarry, who lives on the second floor, was killed by the fire. Her husband, who is the baker at the Snake Hill prison, was absent at the time. The number of wounded and the nature and extent of the injuries have not as yet been ascertained.

The Murderous Redskins. DEMING, N. M., May 27.--Twenty Indians have passed near here heading for Mexico, with cavalry and infantry in pursuit. They are running from Eagle to Gratton Mining Camp in the Black Range has not been heard from, and it is supposed that it has been taken by the Indians.

The Cuban Filibuster. HAVANA, May 27.--Llanuro Sanchez, who leads the filibuster party which landed on Cuban soil May 19, is, as is supposed, who is now reputation as a daring participant in former insurrections. He had a small army of filibusters, and it is thought will be soon overpowered.

Plenty of Whales. PROVINCETOWN, Mass., May 27.--The appearance of schooner Annetta at Provincetown, in latitude 33 22, longitude 70 20, with 50 barrels of sperm oil and 100 barrels sperm whale, indicates that there are plenty of whales on the open sea grounds.

A St. Louis Merchant in Trouble. ST. LOUIS, May 27.--John Ross, a member of the Exchange, has been charged with furnishing Chicago gamblers with a bucket-shop, in December, 1884. A writ of habeas corpus was granted, and Ross is to answer the charge.

Foundmaker Surrenders Unconditionally. WISCONSIN, May 27.--A dispatch just received says Foundmaker and his party of his country, after a long and hard fight, surrendered unconditionally to the United States army at Battleford, yesterday, and surrendered unconditionally to the United States army.

A Congressman Disappears. NEW YORK, May 27.--Rev. Oscar F. Brown, rector of the Reform Episcopal Church, at New York, who was missing since Thursday last, has been found.

Six Fingers Suppressed. WARSAW, May 27.--Six newspapers have been suppressed by the authorities.

THEODORE C. CRAWFORD.

city as the representative of several afternoon papers, among them the Evening World, his correspondence for which was widely quoted. When Mr. Walker came here for the Chicago Times, Mr. Crawford was his assistant and was at the head of the Washington bureau for seven years. After leaving the Times he was connected with the Chicago News and has written more or less for nearly every prominent newspaper in the country. He is now devoting himself exclusively to the New York World and doing excellent service. He is a studious and close observer of men and measures, and is also an accomplished painter as well as a journalist. As an artist he is endowed with a vivid and romantic imagination, and his contributions to the journals of the country are often brilliant with the glow of artistic license, bright and sparkling and his pictures are always rendered with absorbing attention. In his attire Mr. Crawford is the most aesthetically dressed man in the journalistic corps at this city. He is a thoroughly journalist, and his views are often brilliant with the glow of artistic license, bright and sparkling and his pictures are always rendered with absorbing attention.

D. W. DUNNELL.

Mr. E. G. Dunnell, the city correspondent of the New York Times, is 40 years of age, and a native of the city of New York. His advent in the field of journalism was in 1872, when he took a position on the city staff of the New York Evening Post, and was for a year the Albany correspondent of that paper. In 1876 he became connected with the city department of the Times, and remained there until 1878, when he was made its Washington correspondent. Mr. Dunnell was really the "moving man" of the Times, and was sent into the field wherever his services were needed. In 1878 he went through the yellow fever districts of the South with his pen in his hand, and was sent into the field wherever his services were needed. He is a thoroughly journalist, and
