The Graveyards

Are filled with people because they imagined they were bound to eat at particular periods and in regular quantities. So fashion numbers her votaries among the dead, who disregard the promptings of nature in the matter of dress.

Gentlemen, this warm weather demands the use of cool clothing. You need not reduce your attire to the scanty array of our agricultural friends—a calico shirt and cottonade trousers and a broad-brim wheat straw hat—but thin clothing, adapted to the requirements of your personal thermometer, are imperatively required both for health and comfort.

Gentlemen, our house can supply you in that direction better, more expeditiously, and more cheaply than any other, because "we've got them on the list," and we have so many, no matter what you buy, "they'll not be missed" by those who come after you.

Gentlemen, we are after your patronage, and esteem ourselves worthy of it because of our immense preparations and the moderation of our prices.

Gentlemen, we have everything to add to your comfort, convenience, and health in the way of thin outer or under clothing and head coverings.

Gentlemen, our doors,

Nos. 300, 302, 304, 306, and 308
Seventh Street,

Are always open to you or else the latchstring hangs out.

Gentlemen, are you ready? We are!

Fast Time to Cleveland.
Under the schedule of Pennsylvania railroad, in effect June 13, the time between Washington, Baltimore, and Cleveland has been greatly quickened. The Chicago express, leaving Washington 7:10 p. m., Baltimore 8:15 p. m., arrives in Cleveland at 11:30 a. m. next morning. Passengers from Washington and Baltimore may take at Harrisburg the through buffet sleeper to Cleveland, or take the Chicago sleeper on Chicago express at Washington or Baltimore, ride through to Pittsburg, and change to the Cleveland car at that point. This arrangement affords the quickest time and most satisfactory means of reaching Cleveland ever enjoyed by the citizens of these cities. A business man may leave after the close of business hours and reach Cleveland at an early hour the next morning.

ALL persons indebted to the late R. H. Taylor will confer a favor by calling at the office, 933 Pennsylvania avenue, where they will find their itemized accounts ready, and I earnestly request an early settlement of same. Wm. H. McKnew, administrator.

OF

GENTLEMEN'S

BALBRIGGAN—It will be noticed the 33c Balbriggan Underwear offered by stores that deal in trash is merely turned in and sewed at the neck, and will tear easily. The 39c Underwear of the Palais Royal has the French ribbed neck, which is positively untearable. These are the goods sold by our would-be competitors for 50c. Colored Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers also for 39c each. You save 25c on every suit you buy at the Palais Royal. The 85c Superfine Colored Balbriggan Underwear is identical with the $1.25 goods of several competitors we could name.

GAUZE—All sizes, and something that will wear tolerably well, are offered you for 25c. For 48c, superbly finished Shirt and Drawers, made of finest India Gauze. If you patronize the fine, exclusive gents' furnishing stores you will pay 75c for this quality.

JEAN DRAWERS that are cut on the same principle as trousers wear well, but as they are costly to make up, they are seldom offered under 75c. The Palais Royal's 48c Jean Drawers will bear comparison with any offered in Washington for 75c. We have all lengths of leg, and with buttons or tapes at the ankle. Special cut drawers for short men, also for 48c a pair.

SHIRTS—Plaited front shirts are much worn for summer. We have decided to offer the famous "Palais Royal" Dress Shirts, with plaited fronts, for 89c. This is the same price as the plain fronts, notwithstanding we pay our hands 15 cents extra for plaited bosom shirts.

LADIES'

SILK—Ribbed Swiss Silk Bodices, low neck, no sleeves; colors, 3 shades of cream, straw, salmon, pink, flesh, lavender, rose, cardinal, light blue, and white, $2.48 each.

NB—It will be noticed that these vests are finished in a style superior to those offered by our competitors at a higher price. The silk will be found to be heavier and at the same time more elastic than the so-called all-silk goods being offered around town. The Palais Royal controls the market here for this celebrated and undoubtedly most perfect fitting underwear yet introduced. A comparison with the imitations on the market will convince you of this.

CREPE—A new material for summer wear. Being nearly all wool, and yet very light in weight, these Crepe Vests will be appreciated by delicate ladies. They come in white and colors, from $1.08 to $1.33, price according to size and style of neck and sleeves.

LISLE—French Lisle Thread Underwear, when made of pure linen and finished after the style of the best silk goods, is virtually as good as silk. The Palais Royal goods come in square necks, and are full regular made. From $1.78 to $2.19.

GAUZE—The improved shape of Gauze Vests, as introduced by the Palais Royal this season, has met with universal approbation. Being Jersey fitting, the appearance and comfort are both studied. Being bound with silk, durability is assured; and purchasing direct from the manufacturers enables the Palais Royal to offer the best materials and yet quote low prices. All styles of neck and sleeves. Prices, 24c, 39c, and 44c. Children's sizes much cheaper, but same quality as given in ladies' goods.

Manhood Restored
HENRY REED.—A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, &c., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self-cure, which he will send FREE, to his fellow-sufferers. Address, J. H. REED, 43 Chatham St., New York City.

THE TIME HAS COME

When the gentleman of leisure hies him to the seashore or the mountains, or perhaps his fancy leads him to spend his vacation in travel by sea or land, or both.

Before taking his flight whichever way his inclination points, we would ask him to take a peep in our show windows, or, better still, visit our establishment, and the problem what to wear while away) solves itself. You will see or be shown with politeness and attention an endless variety of semi-tropical clothing to suite the taste of the most fastidious and the plain.

Seersucker Suits, the material of which was woven in the native huts of far-off Hindostan; imitations of the same made in this country and in England considerably less in price, but strong, durable, and thoroughly shrunk, and so near like the original that it takes a practiced eye to tell "which is which." We have all shades of both.

Fongee coats and vests, light and gauzy as the spider's web, made by the industrious natives of "the flowery kingdom;" Cuban crimpe from the "ever faithful isle;" South American checks, from Chili, Peru, and the Brazils. Light-weight Serge suits, in every shade, from the orthodox black to the more pronounced drab and slate colors, and these at prices within the reach of all.

Drap d'Etes, nun's cloth, zephyr-weight cassimeres and cheviotteens without end, in suits and otherwise, and at prices that will surprise the buyer who knows their actual value.

The duster, that indispensable garment to the traveler, has received from us its full share of attention. We have them in all colors and qualities. We can fit a child 6 years of age and a man measuring 52 inches chest measure with equal facility.

To the stay-at-homes, by which we mean those who prefer the solid comforts of home combined with the beauties of Washington to the shores of "the deep-sounding sea," or the rugged grandeur of the lofty hill tops, we would say, visit our establishment and we will aid you in making life in Washington during the heated term as cool and enjoyable as if you were in a modern Arcadia.
