

A striking naval scene from the deck of the U. S. S. Pennsylvania. The dreadnaught, making her way north with the battle fleet, is preparing to release one of her planes from the catapult. At right: The U. S. S. Colorado comes to grief. Eight tugs are pushing the giant sea fighter into the Brooklyn Navy Yard for inspection after her recent grounding in New York Harbor.

© Wide World Photos and P. & A. Photos.

Casual greetings to a fellow glider. A scene at the Brandenburg Glider Club, in Germany, which has recently been formed by enthusiasts of the motorless flying sport.

© Underwood & Underwood.

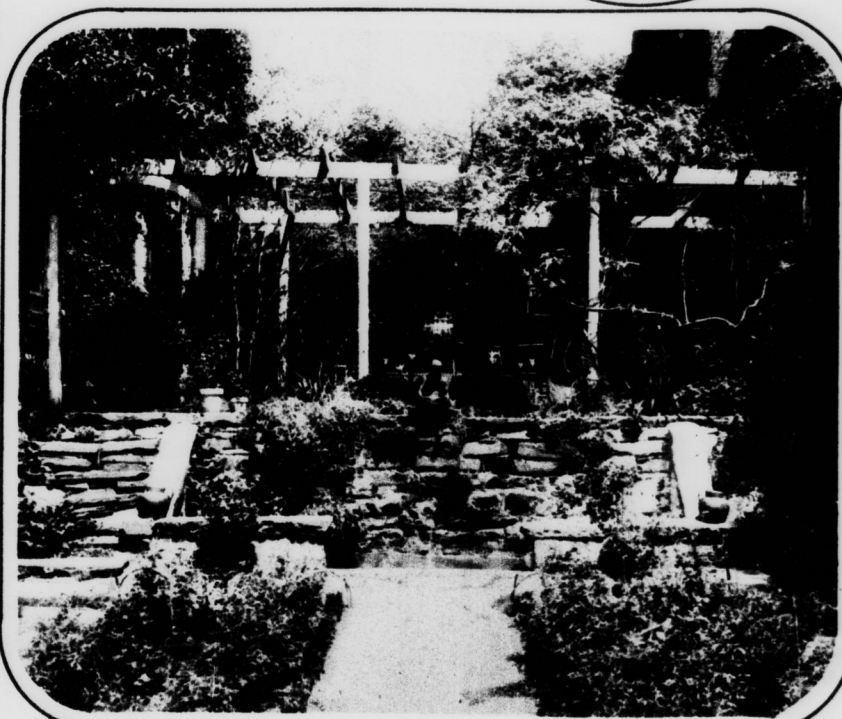

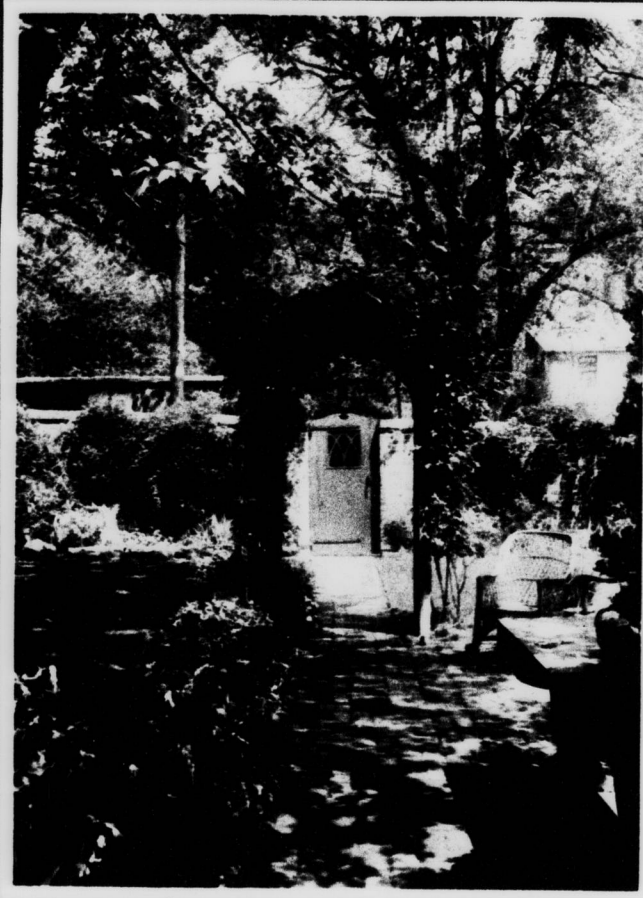

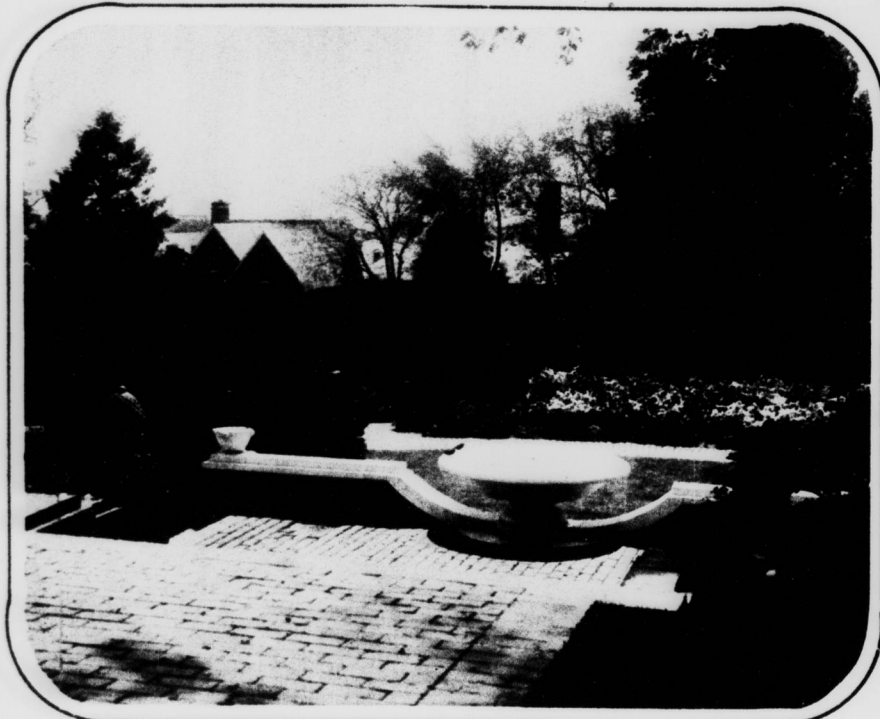

Miss Rosalie Clapp, sharpshooting co-ed of the University of Chicago, who recently led her rifle teammates in a match against a picked team of National Guardsmen.

© Wide World Photos.

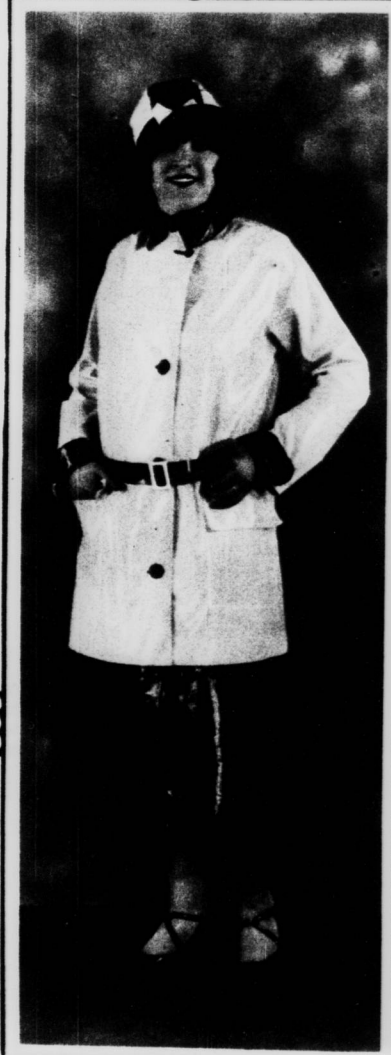

Lupita Velez, 17-year-old seniorita from Mexico City, who has been chosen to play opposite Douglas Fairbanks in his new film "The Gaucho," talks over her new role with the screen star.

© Wide World Photos.

Old gardens of Georgetown which will contribute to the flower show to be held at Montrose Park May 20 and 21 under the auspices of the Georgetown Garden Club. Left: The garden at Evermay, residence of Mrs. F. L. Belin, 1623 Twenty-eighth street northwest. Center: The garden of Mrs. John Ihlder's residence, 2811 P street northwest. Right: The garden at the residence of Mrs. Elliot H. Goodwin, 3038 N street northwest.

© Washington Star Photo.

A new wet-weather creation which has been styled the "black bottom" raincoat.

© Wide World Photos.