Emerald Isle Peg and "Red Robe" Color Current Dramatic Calendar

"Peg O' My Heart" Returns to Belasco With Florence Martin in Title Role of Irish Girl, While Edward Rose's Adaptation of Weyman's "Under the Red Robe" Holds Sway in Local Stock.

Oliver Hannon's production of J. Hartley Manners' "Peg O' My Heart," which is to play a return engagement at the Belasco this week, seems to have been overdrawn in the way of notices. Last season, there were hopes of honors and mention in the Pull of the Day, "Under the Red Robe" is adaptation of Stanley Wemyss's romance of the days of Michel, which has been brought to the stage in a musical version called "The Irish Girl." The Belasco is to present this piece, while Jack Conway, in the leading role of "The Liberty Girl," will appear at the Gaiety.

BELASCO.

"Peg O' My Heart" is the second of two new fall attractions for the Belasco. The second, "Under the Red Robe," will be given at 3:15 in the afternoon, at the Grand Opera House.

POLIT.

"Under the Red Robe," Edward Rose's screen presentation of Wemyss's romance, is destined to take a prominent place in local attractions. It is the story of a woman who is betrayed by the man she loves and who is later found in an English prison. Miss Maud Adams, who played the role in the original production, will be in the Belasco version. Miss Adams, who has already made a reputation in the acting world, is now one of the most popular actresses in America.

GAVETY.

The National Theater will present "Rotten Tomatoes," a new play by the late Mr. J. B. O'Brien. The play tells the story of a man who is forced to make a living as a newspaperman in the city. Miss Maud Adams, who will be in the Belasco production of "Under the Red Robe," will also appear in "Rotten Tomatoes."
