

4 Face Contempt Action In Kefauver Vice Probe

NEW YORK, May 27 (AP).—Senator Kefauver, Democrat, of Tennessee says he'll ask contempt citations against four alleged dealers in pornographic material who refused to answer subcommittee questions.

Senator Kefauver, chairman of the subcommittee probing juvenile delinquency, said during the hearing yesterday:

"Personally, I don't see why they should have refused to answer since some of them appear to be kingpins in this business in this country."

The four distributors who appeared at the second day of hearings and invoked the Fifth Amendment were:

Al Stone, alias Abraham Rubin, of Brooklyn; Edward Mishkin of Yonkers, N. Y., and Eugene Muletta and Abe Rotto, both of New York City.

Asks Contempt Citation

Senator Kefauver said he will recommend to the full subcommittee that all four be cited for contempt, adding: "My personal recommendations will be that the pleas were not justified."

Stone, named by several witnesses as a major dealer in pornography, refused to answer a number of questions—claiming the rights of the fifth amendment against self-incrimination.

Stone kept his left hand to his face when he raised his right to be sworn as a witness. He hid his face from photographers with both hands.

Stone refused to admit he was the man arrested in Detroit and other cities for possession of obscene films. Detroit police have produced evidence of his arrest record there. Other evidence showed police records on Stone in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Darien, Conn., Buffalo, Albany, and Providence, R. I. Chicago officers also have testified concerning Stone's alleged dealings in lurid books, films and records.

Admits Pornography Deals
Among witnesses who testified during yesterday's hearing were George Fodor of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Arthur H. Sobel of New York.

Fodor admitted he dealt in pornographic material in Washington, D. C., for a six-month period three years ago.

The witness said he got his supplies of photos and indecent comic books from an "Ike Dorfman" in Baltimore, and from an unidentified source in Jacksonville, Fla.

Senator Kefauver said he would await the end of the hearings before conferring with his full committee on formal recommendations for legislation.

The hearings resume here next Tuesday.
