SHAVING CREAM BEST FOR ANY MAN'S FACE

Sanitary, Antiseptic, Highly Medicated—Keeps Skin in Perfect Shape.

PREVENTS IRRITATION, INFECTION, SKIN TROUBLE

HERE'S THE IDEAL WAY Dr. Bunting solved it all. He first perfected a non-drying skin cream that was highly medicated—cures up skin troubles in a jiffy—antiseptic, etc.—then he labored out the famous Shaving Cream that is non-drying, non-smarting and doesn't have to be rubbed in. It's the toughest beard in just a couple seconds. Economical, too. A 50c tube lasts months.

Editorial

How would you like to wake up in the middle of the night with a terrible pain in your "tummy" that could not be helped with home remedies; then find when the doctor was called that doctors were "ON A STRIKE" and you could receive no attention until it was ended?

Or, what if one of the children went into convulsions, and when you rushed out for the family physician found him "ON A STRIKE" and deaf to your pleadings for service?

Not necessarily imaginary conditions. Not probable, but possible. Let's all of us do a little more serious thinking on the subject of throwing down our tools every time something happens that does not quite please us.
