Rescue Squad Driver Wins 'Fireman' Citation

Pvt. Alden C. Kevauver, driver of the Washington's Rescue Squad, was honored yesterday as "Fireman of the Year" by the Washington Junior Chamber of Commerce.

A citation presented to Pvt. Kevauver, who lives at 1418 Stateside drive, Silver Spring, Md., declared:

"For his interest in the reputation and welfare of his company, for his alertness to unusual circumstances, for his teamwork and outstanding performance of duty without thought of self, for his participation in community activities, and for his efforts on behalf of his fellow firemen, the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Washington, D. C., is proud to recognize the outstanding Fireman of the Year 1955, Pvt. Alden C. Kevauver."

The citation was presented at a luncheon yesterday in the Burlington Hotel.

Certificates of merit were presented to Pvt. Charles L. Byram, aide to Battalion Chief Alfred M. Grunwell; Pvt. Charles G. Millar of Engine Company No. 20; Pvt. William L. Millikin, aide to the 4th Battalion, and Pvt. John D. Smith of Truck Company No. 16.

U. S. Gives Cambodia 10,000 Tons of Rice

PARIS, Oct. 14 (AP)—The United States economic aid mission in Cambodia will soon give that Indo-Chinese country 10,000 tons of rice to help it through a severe shortage, the French News Agency reported today from Phnom Penh.

The report added that Cambodian Vice Premier Sam Sary said rationing might be necessary despite American aid.

Scoters for Hire Fad Starts in Britain

One popular way to have an unusual vacation in Britain now is to rent a scooter. A motorcycle firm in Birmingham has started the fad.

The scooter does 120 miles to a gallon, cruises at 40 miles per hour and even carries a spare wheel. The cost is $2.50 a day or $14 a week, with a returnable $14 deposit. Renting is restricted to persons between 21 and 60, with a year's driving experience.
