Our California Classic suit with the new "belted look"

You'll wear this stunning suit with ever-increasing affection around the clock and around the calendar. It was tailored for us in California from a superb worsted flannel that is both friendly and flattering. Deft style touches include the long torso line now so fashionable, a double row of pockets and a detachable satin tie. In cambridge gray and spice brown. Sizes 10 to 16.

$110

Other Fall Suits $69.95 to $159.50

Husband and Wife Charged in Lottery

A man and his wife were charged yesterday with operating a lottery after Washington police said they cracked a small numbers operation totaling up to $150 a day in receipts.

Gambling Squad detectives arrested James C. Belton, 53, colored, of the first block of Randolph place N.E. They are due to appear before United States Commissioner Cyril S. Lawrence today.

Det. Sergt. Samuel W. Stickley said that the gambling squad has been working on the case since last May.
