The luncheon given by the Pilgrims at the "Savoy" to Mark Twain on June 25 was a great success. Mr. Birrell, who presided, made a delightful speech to the guest that touch of pathos which distinguishes him from the merely funny man. This picture is the work of Mr. Ernest Frater.

THE ABOVE IS THE REPRODUCTION OF A PAGE FROM THE SPHERE (LONDON) ILLUSTRATING THE PILGRIMS ENTERTAINING MARK TWAIN AT THE SAVOY.

HE comforts and luxury of the Savoy Hotel, its cuisine and service, combined with the most moderate charges, place it absolutely in the front rank of all Hotels in Europe. The beautiful suites—with bathrooms attached—overlooking the River Thames and Embankment Gardens, away from the noise and bustle of street traffic, although in the centre of London, are greatly appreciated by all American travellers.
