

Hair On Face DeMiracle

Ordinary hair growth on face, neck and arms soon become coarse and brittle when merely removed from the surface of the skin. The only common-sense way to remove objectionable hair is to attack it under the skin. DeMiracle, the official sanitary liquid, does this by absorption.

Only genuine DeMiracle has a money-back guarantee in each package. At toilet counters in 50c, $1 and $2 sizes, or by mail from us in plain wrapper on receipt of price.

FREE book with testimonials of highest authorities, explaining why and how DeMiracle de-viceless on removal. DeMiracle, Park Ave. and 128th St., New York.

AMERICAN PEN WOMEN HAVE EVENING "AT HOME"

The League of American Penwomen entertained last evening at a reception and housewarming in its new club house, 1722 H street. Over 500 guests were present among them many women of letters from out of town and representatives of the literary and artistic circles of Washington.

The drawing rooms on the first floor were beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns and the brilliant posters done for the League by the Camouflage section of the Forty-seventh Engineers. Refreshments were served in the large dining room. An exhibit of autographed books, photographs, original manuscripts, songs and drawings were shown in the library. In the collection were autographed photographs of President and Mrs. Wilson, Vice President Marshall, Prime Minister Lloyd George of England, Field Marshall Poeh and books from the leading authors of the country. The two upper floors are furnished as guest rooms for members of the Lieut. Philippe Barber, military attache of the Belgian legation, entertained a party of twelve at dinner last night at the opening of the roof garden of the Army and Navy Club, taking his guests to the Wardman Park Hotel for dancing.

The party was given in honor of Capt. Charles Drew, Aviation Corps, U. S. A., who has lately been discharged at Walter Reed Hospital, and left last night for an aviation camp in Michigan. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Addison, Miss Sadie Buck, Don Manuel Zavala, of the Nicaraguan legation; Don Adolfo Cardenas, of the Nicaraguan legation; Captain Seams, U. S. A., and Lieut. James U. S. N. Lieutenant Barber will go back to Belgium for a brief visit in November and, on his return, will be accompanied by Mme. Barber, who is spending the summer at home.

Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Richard G. Marshall were hosts at dinner at the Army and Navy Club, Club roof, entertaining in honor of Brig. Gen. Charles E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., who has just returned from France, and Mrs. Kilbourne. Their other guests were mostly members of the Construction Division of the Coast Artillery, of which General Marshall is the head, and a number of decorated James Totten, Col. and Mrs. Clifford Lee Corbin, Mrs. Stanley Dunbar, wife of Colonel Dunbar, U. S. A., now in France; Mrs. Henry C. Corbin, Col. Joseph Willcutt, U. S. A.

General Kilbourne has seen service both in this war and in the Philippines and has received a number of decorations, including the Croix de Guerre, the Distinguished Service Medal and the medal of honor for service in the Philippines.

Weds Toledo Man.
A quiet wedding was solemnized at noon today when Miss Helen Meyer, daughter of Mrs. Constance Meyer, of Washington, became the bride of Sherwood Mortley Pinkerton, Jr., of Toledo, Ohio.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Clark, in the presence of the immediate families of the bride and bridegroom. The Rev. John E. Palmer officiated. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Pinkerton will be at home at 2455 Collingwood avenue, Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodbury Blair will go to their summer home at Newport about July 1. Their niece, Miss Edith Wallace, will spend the summer with them.

Mrs. John Harrison Knapp and her two small children, John Marshall Knapp and Miss Elizabeth Knapp, have left town for Jamestown, R. I., where they have taken a cottage for the summer. In order to be near Plymouth Knapp, U. S. N., who is on duty with the fleet.

Miss Valerie Padelford entertained informally at dinner at the Cafe St. Marks last evening. She had seven guests.

Rear Admiral Henry A. Wiley, U. S. N., has been detailed as a member of the commission on naval terms now sitting in Paris. He has been in command of the fourth division of the fleet.

Miss Emily Stewart entertained at luncheon yesterday at the Lotus Lantern Tea House in compliment to her sister, Miss Linda Stewart, whose marriage to Roland C. Rehm, of Chicago, will take place tomorrow.

Mrs. James McDonald will be hostess at a dinner party tonight.

Maj. Gen. and Mrs. William Crozier are in New York, and are staying at the St. Regis Hotel.

Mrs. Robert S. McCormick has gone to New York for a visit, and is staying at the Plaza Hotel.

Senator Hale Entertains.
Senator Frederick Hale entertained a small company at the Cafe St. Marks last evening.

Mrs. Catt to Speak.
Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt arrived in town last evening for the celebration which the National American Woman Suffrage Association is having this evening at its Washington headquarters. Mrs. Catt will receive at the elegant Park Hotel, the National American Woman Suffrage Association, the Congressional Committee, Mrs. Helen Gardner, vice president of the national association and vice chairman of the Congressional Committee, Mrs. James C. Cantrill, director of the national association. The receiving hour is from 8 until 9 o'clock, and at 9 o'clock Mrs. Catt will speak.

work in Belgium during the war.

Assisting at the reception will be the other members of the Congressional Committee: Miss Marjorie Shuler, Miss Mabel Willard, Miss Caroline Kelly, and Mrs. Edward Keating. The wives of the members of the Woman Suffrage Committees in the Senate and House of this year and last have been invited to assist. They are Mrs. James Watson, Mrs. Wesley Jones, Mrs. Hilram Johnson, Mrs. Robert Owen, Mrs. A. A. Jones, Mrs. Joseph E. Ransdell, Mrs. John F. Shafroth, Mrs. James R. Mann, Mrs. Frank W. Mandell, Mrs. John E. Baker, Mrs. John Nolan, Mrs. Sherman Burroughs, Mrs. Edward Little, Mrs. Thomas Blanton, Mrs. Richard Elliott, Mrs. George Edmonds, Mrs. A. P. Nelson, and Mrs. John McCrate. The guests are limited to the members of Congress who voted for the suffrage amendment and their wives.

The association is giving a second reception tomorrow evening, at which the guests will be members of local suffrage organizations and visiting suffragists.

A recital and garden fête will be given tonight at the Arts Club of Washington to raise a fund for the purchase of a picture from the F. Hopkinson Smith collection now on exhibition there. Miss Clara Alexander, impersonator of plantation types, will be the particular star of the entertainment, and the program will also include music and rhythmic dancing by pupils from the Bentley school.

A marriage of interest which will take place this evening is that of Miss Mary Margaret Bryan, daughter of the late John H. Mulholland, and Mrs. Martha Bearden Mulholland, to Lieut. James Longstreet Whelchel, U. S. A. The ceremony will be performed at 7 o'clock at the apartment of the bride's mother at the Oakland, by the Rev. Herbert Scott Smith, rector of St. Margaret's Church, in the presence of the families and a few intimate friends. The bride will be attended by Miss Jane McIlhenny, maid of honor, and the Misses Elizabeth Whelchel, Adelaide Pierce, Bryant Bryan, Margaret Braithwaite, Marion Johnson and Mary Louise Casheber, of Somerset, Pa. The best man will be Ensign John E. Whelchel, Jr., U. S. A., brother of the bridegroom. The wedding was to have taken place in September, but because of the bridegroom's sudden orders to foreign duty it was hurried forward. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Whelchel and a grandson of the late General James Longstreet, of Georgia. He is a graduate of Western High School and a graduate from West Point class of 1919.

Girl Scouts' Carnival.
A carnival will be given by the Girl Scouts of the District of Columbia on Friday and Saturday evenings, June 13 and 14, at 5 o'clock, at the Mt. Pleasant playground, Fourteenth street and Park Road. Home-made cakes and ice cream will be sold there will be tables of garden produce raised by the Girl Scouts in their own gardens, and an old-fashioned country store will contribute to the entertainment of the visitors. Music and fortune telling will also be features of the program. There will be no entrance fee.
