

Dream spots for the canoeist—on mountain lake and shaded stream. At right, on the Potomac above Washington. At left, on Vermillion Lakes, in the Canadian Rockies.
© Roberts Photos.

Enjoying the gyrations of the air "tutor." The Army Air Corps has adopted the new device for the first test of would-be flyers.
© Wide World Photos

A variety of form over the hurdles. Yale and Pennsylvania athletes competing in the 220-yard low hurdles at New Haven.
© Associated Press Photo.

These gobs don't need hands for pie consumption. The pie-eating contest, pictured above, on the cruiser Cincinnati, was one of the big celebrations of the fleet's return to New York from Winter maneuvers.
© P. & A. Photos.

Meet the chief of the Wellesley College Fire Department. She is Miss Edith Heidingsfeld of Cincinnati, Ohio.
© Associated Press Photo.

Mrs. Calvin Coolidge as an informal hostess on the steps of her Northampton, Mass., home. She entertained this group of foreign students who attended the recent Y. W. C. A. conference there.
© Wide World Photo.