WIT, HUMOR AND SARCASM FROM THE CARTOONISTS AND FUNNY MEN

WOMAN'S POSITION IN NIPPO NOT ENVIOUSABLE.

A Japanese Christian Aroused Resentment by Contrasting Her Lot With That of Her American Sister.

When an American was converted to Christianity he brought his Japanese wife to Christ. Her father was furious and decided that the young wife should return to Japan. He said: "A Christian woman must dress like a Christian woman. She must be above reproach. She must be a good housewife." The wife's attempt to obey him resulted in a divorce.

The Wife's Hard Lot:

When all Japanese men have been converted to Christianity, the wife's lot will be the same as that of an American woman. But when the man is converted, his wife is left in Japan and does not have the opportunity to improve her position.

Man's Life Under:

In America, a man's life is governed by the law of the land. In Japan, his life is governed by the law of his wife. What he does and what he says are subject to the approval of his wife. Even his business and social engagements must be approved by her. If he is the head of the family, he is not the master of his own house but only the head of it. His wife is the master of the house.

HUSBAND FOR HIRE:

In America, a man is the master of his own house. In Japan, he is the servant of his wife. He has no choice but to obey her. If she is not satisfied with his work as a wife, she can divorce him. A man in Japan is the servant of his wife, and what he does is subject to her approval.

DIVORCE IS EASY:

There are over 2,000 divorces a year in Japan. Women are not required to give any reason for the divorce. The woman can divorce her husband for any reason she chooses. A man can divorce his wife only if she has committed adultery.

WIDOW'S INHERITS NOTHING:

A widow in Japan inherits nothing. She is not entitled to anything. She must rely on the charity of her family or friends. If she has no family or friends, she must support herself. A widow in America is entitled to an annuity, but in Japan, she cannot even support herself.

INDIAN BRAIDS:

An Indian woman's hair is not braided. She wears it loose. The braiding is usually done by another woman. The Indian woman's hair is not braided, but she wears it loose.

WOMAN'S PLACE IN JAPAN:

The woman's place in Japan is not enviable. She is not respected and is not given any freedom. She is not free to choose her own husband. She is not free to work. She is not free to earn her own living. She is not free to express her own opinions. She is not free to do anything.

The French cartoons on this page are not to be taken seriously. They are meant to be humorous and are not intended to be taken as a reflection of the true state of affairs in France.

The French are not given any freedom. They are not free to choose their own husband. They are not free to work. They are not free to earn their own living. They are not free to express their own opinions. They are not free to do anything.

The French cartoons on this page are not to be taken seriously. They are meant to be humorous and are not intended to be taken as a reflection of the true state of affairs in France.

The French are not given any freedom. They are not free to choose their own husband. They are not free to work. They are not free to earn their own living. They are not free to express their own opinions. They are not free to do anything.

The French cartoons on this page are not to be taken seriously. They are meant to be humorous and are not intended to be taken as a reflection of the true state of affairs in France.

The French are not given any freedom. They are not free to choose their own husband. They are not free to work. They are not free to earn their own living. They are not free to express their own opinions. They are not free to do anything.

The French cartoons on this page are not to be taken seriously. They are meant to be humorous and are not intended to be taken as a reflection of the true state of affairs in France.

The French are not given any freedom. They are not free to choose their own husband. They are not free to work. They are not free to earn their own living. They are not free to express their own opinions. They are not free to do anything.

The French cartoons on this page are not to be taken seriously. They are meant to be humorous and are not intended to be taken as a reflection of the true state of affairs in France.

The French are not given any freedom. They are not free to choose their own husband. They are not free to work. They are not free to earn their own living. They are not free to express their own opinions. They are not free to do anything.

The French cartoons on this page are not to be taken seriously. They are meant to be humorous and are not intended to be taken as a reflection of the true state of affairs in France. 