FILIPINOS UNFIT FOR INDEPENDENCE

Dickinson Gave Views in His Special Report.

MORTON CHARGE NOT UPHELD

According to Mr. Thomas F. Center's report on the racial condition of the Philippines, the United States has been deprived of a real strategic advantage in the Pacific by the unwise use of its influence and of its political resources. The Filipinos have shown a marked disinclination to their own nationality, and we have not been able to force the issue. The United States has been unable to maintain any semblance of an American government in the Philippines.

The United States has been unable to maintain any semblance of an American government in the Philippines. The Filipinos have shown a marked disinclination to their own nationality, and we have not been able to force the issue. We have been unable to maintain any semblance of an American government in the Philippines.

In this connection it may be noted that the United States has been able to maintain an American government in the Philippines for several years. The Filipinos have shown a marked disinclination to their own nationality, and we have not been able to force the issue. We have been unable to maintain any semblance of an American government in the Philippines.

To prevent this from happening again in the future, it is necessary for the United States to be able to maintain an American government in the Philippines. The Filipinos have shown a marked disinclination to their own nationality, and we have not been able to force the issue. We have been unable to maintain any semblance of an American government in the Philippines.

Republican Views of Message Differ

Electorally Tendencies Are Seen by Insurgents.

President McKinley's message has been met with a mixed response by the Republicans. Some have praised it as a fine piece of work, while others have condemned it as a poor effort. The general consensus is that the message is not very well written and is not likely to be accepted by the people.
