TITANIC SURVIVORS ABOARD THE CARPATHIA.

NATION IN TRIBUTE TO TITANIC'S DEAD

(Abridged from Post Dispatch.)

DISTRESSING SCENES AS HUSBANDS SAY GOOD-BYE TO WIVES

NEW YORK, April 13. (Special Dispatch.)

William and Beau Smith, two of the survivors from the Titanic, went down to the immigration station yesterday with their families, and said good-bye to their wives and children.

Mrs. Smith, who lives in New York, is a native of England.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who are both in good health, have been married for three years.

They have two children, a boy and a girl, who are now in England.

Mr. Smith, who is a tailor, said:

"I am going to the ship because I want to get away from this place.

"I have been on the Titanic for six days, and I have not been able to see my family.

"I hope to reach England in time to see my children before they go to school."