BOY CAUGHT ON CONVENTION OF U.S. WORKERS SEPT. 3

In respect to the memory of Warren G. Harding
Our late President
This store will be closed all day Friday, August 10

An all-day national meeting of the American Federation of Labor was held at Detroit. The annual convention of the Federation is held every year to discuss labor issues and to make recommendations to policymakers. This year's convention was expected to address topics such as worker safety, immigration, and union rights.

COOKING

COOLIDGE LIKES 'AUNT MARY'S COOKING'

New Willard Chef Worries and Prays for Power to Equal Her

By ELEANOR EARLY

Coolidge has his Aunt Mary's cooking in mind as he worries and prays for power to equal her. Aunt Mary, a renowned chef, is known for her delicious recipes and is a constant inspiration to Coolidge in his culinary pursuits.

In Honor of the Memory of Our Late President Warren G. Harding

POWERS ARE MARVELOUS SAYS R. F. D. MAN

Dreco Relieves Him of Liver Trouble, Bad Stomach Gives Him Strength.

G. W. BARNES.

In the image, there is a newspaper article dated Thursday, August 8, 1923, featuring various local and national news stories. The articles cover topics such as labor conventions, cooking, and the death of Warren G. Harding. The newspaper also includes advertisements for various products and services, such as Sanitary Grocery Co., Inc., and a recipe for an Orange-Lemon Recipe Contest Run Only One More Day. The text is formatted in a typical newspaper layout with headlines, subheadings, and paragraphs of text. The articles are written in a formal style, consistent with the style of journalism from the early 20th century.