A WAITING GAME.

ENGLAND PURPOSES DELAYING THE CONGRESS.

LONDON, March 21—5 a. m.—The full text of the preliminary treaty between Russia and Turkey will arrive here Saturday, and shortly thereafter Germany will issue definite invitations for a meeting of the Congress. April 2 is now thought to be the day which will be designated.

NO AGREEMENT.

As to the points to be discussed by the Congress has been reached, but it is probable that each Power will point out the special provisions of the treaty which it wishes to have discussed, and the Congress will then decide whether they are or are not to be taken up. Still, it is claimed that England will not even go into the Congress unless the stipulation is first agreed by Russia that every point shall be submitted. The present state of uncertainty cannot long continue after the invitations are issued, for England will then have to decide definitely to accept or refuse it. In many well-informed circles here, among the Liberals and Conservatives also, there is prevalent the opinion that England intends to delay any definite settlement until all her own preparations are complete, since every day adds to Russia's pecuniary difficulties. It is believed that by the end of April England will be in a position, financially and otherwise, to be a match for Russia alone, and direct pressure will then be applied by England to force Russia to give up some of the important advantages claimed by her. It is thought that, however bitter such concessions would be to Russia, she will be unable to raise money for a war with England, and will be forced to yield.

RUSSIAN OCCUPATIONS.

The Russians have relinquished the intention of embarking the Imperial Guards at Baykudera, on the Bosphorus, owing to the protest of the Porte. They will embark at San Stefano for Odessa, their final destination being still unknown.

DIPLOMATIC.

ENGLAND WARNED.

VIENNA, March 20.—It is urged in official circles that England has no ground to make war without first going to the Congress. If she does, she will have the disapprobation of both Germany and Austria. If England communicates the Congress, Count Andrassy's policy will be thwarted, and the hopes of an ultimate Anglo-Austrian understanding must be abandoned. The Berlin Cabinet holds the same view.

AUSTRIA'S RETURN.

BERLIN, March 20.—North and South German journals express great anxiety about Austria's future.

SALTPEETER.

Russia is buying large quantities of saltpeeter and sulphur.

CONTRADICTION.

The semi-official Pollitische Correspondenz of Vienna prints a St. Petersburg letter, which declares that England's claim has produced so bad an impression in Russia that a meeting of the Congress is doubtful. Nevertheless, it is believed in Vienna and Berlin that the Congress will meet on the 24 of April.

THE PEACE TERMS.

LONDON, March 21—5 a. m.—A Vienna correspondent summarizes the official text of the treaty of peace. The treaty is substantially the same as already telegraphed. The territory ceded to Montenegro is, however, twice as large as the Montenegro could have claimed on the basis of uti possidetis. This accession of territory is principally to the north-east. Serbia being considerably increased on the southwest. The Turks, to gain access to Bosnia and Herzegovina, without entering Serbia or Montenegro, must cross the Balkan mountains. The frontier of Bulgaria extends further west than at first stated, the new boundary being formed by the River Struma, approaching within a few miles of Salonica. Russia, however, has made the concession that in one year after the introduction of the new regime in Bulgaria, the Porte, Russia, and the European cabinets may agree to associate special delegates with the Russian Commissioner, who is charged with the reorganization of the province.

THE TREATY CONCLUDES.

"After the exchange of ratifications, a place and time will be agreed upon for providing this act with the solemn forms usual with treaties of peace; but the contracting parties are formally bound from the moment of ratification."

A correspondent remarks that thus, although the co-operation of the Powers will not be distinctly mentioned as necessary to make the treaty definitive, still the admission is indirectly made that something more is required.

RUSSIA WILL YIELD.

LONDON, March 21—5 a. m.—The Press Association says it learns, on excellent authority, that within the last few hours the Government has received a hint that Russia will yield on the point now at issue.

SALT PASHA HAS DECLINED TO GO TO THE CONGRESS. It is thought that Vekfi or Musurus Pasha will go.

RUSSIA'S POSITION.

LONDON, March 21—5 a. m.—Russia is about to leave an intimation that she recognizes the right of each Power individually to treat the discussion of any stipulation in the treaty, but reserves the right of refusing to submit such stipulations to the sanction of the Powers even if a majority desire it.

WILL RESIST.

It is reported that England has decided to resist the Russian annexation in Asia Minor.

STILL UNSETTLED.

LONDON, March 21—5 a. m.—A Vienna dispatch says Russia's admission of the right of Congress to discuss what points of the treaty are of European interest does not seem to have been made directly to England, and the difference is still unsettled.

WILL MAKE CONCESSIONS.

A Vienna dispatch says Russia has declared her readiness to make concessions relative to the boundaries of Bulgaria, and all misunderstanding between the three Emperors is removed.

INCIDENTAL.

ON THEIR DOMITORY.

LONDON, March 20.—Hobart Pasha invited the principal leaders of the insurrection at Manizha to meet him on Saturday, with a view to the suspension of hostilities in Thessaly. His letter was addressed to the "Chiefs of the malcontent party." They replied that if Hobart Pasha wished an interview with the "Chiefs of the Provisional Government of the Province," they would send envoys to meet him.

TRIP TO ASIA.

LONDON, March 20.—A dispatch from Tiflis states that typhus is raging among the Russian troops in Asia. Gen. Milkoff, Soloweff, and Schelkoff are reported to have died. It is believed that more men have been lost by sickness since the cessation of hostilities than on the battle-field during the war.

NOUVEAU.

LONDON, March 20.—A special from Fern, 10th, says Gen. G. de Staff and many other officers are for Odessa today. Gourko himself remains at San Stefano. The departure of the guard is delayed in consequence of the Porte's refusal to permit the embarkation at Baykudera.

CAME TO TERMS.

LONDON, March 20.—A dispatch from Athens reports that Hobart Pasha having agreed not to bombard the villages on the coast of Thessaly, the insurgent leaders consented to enter into negotiations with him at Volo today, on condition that their official status be recognized.

IT IS REPORTED THAT HOBART PASHA OFFERED THE INSURGENTS AUTONOMY.

THE RUSSIAN FLEET.

LONDON, March 20.—A Constantinople dispatch says the Russian vessels have left Buderer and anchored off St. Stefano.

SIXTEEN BATTERIES.

of Turkish artillery have occupied the Litros Boudyruks and Sweetwaters, near Constantinople.

SEIZED.

LONDON, March 21—5 a. m.—A Vienna dispatch states most positively that Gen. Tchorkosky, late provisional Governor of Bulgaria, committed suicide because he had been threatened with removal.

ORDERED HOME.

A dispatch from Paris says the British Government has telegraphed to Gen. Sir Arnold Kemball to return home immediately.

THEIR AIR.

A special from St. Stefano reports that the Russians have abandoned the idea of embarking at Baykudera, because Minister Lyard informed the Porte that, if Turkey granted them permission to embark there, the British fleet would come up the Bosphorus.

THE PEDESTRIANS.

THEIR PROGRESS.

LONDON, March 20.—At 7 o'clock last evening O'Leary and Corkey had each completed 74 miles; Vaughan 101; Brown 170. The highest score of the remaining competitors is 148. O'Leary finally abandoned his running tactics and recovered from his attack of dizziness. He is now apparently fresh, making steady progress. Vaughan is forcing the pace, and making his miles to much quicker than O'Leary's.

Corkey has retired to take a short rest. Some of the remaining contestants exhibit evident signs of distress, and will probably soon be compelled to withdraw. The pace from the start has been too fast for amateurs. The betting, which has lately been even on O'Leary against the field, has now become somewhat odd. The odds are 2 to 1 against O'Leary, and 3 to 1 against Corkey. The excitement continues unabated, and the immense crowds constantly thronging the building enthusiastically encourage the pedestrians in their monotonous circle around the hall.

The large attendance and enthusiasm have the effect to spur the others on to renewed effort to win the prize. The contest is now confined to his same steady stride during the night, when the hall is deserted by all except the trainers and time-keepers, as he does when the enthusiasm is at its height. In presence of spectators and strains of encouraging music of bands.

The walking thus far is the fastest on record. Many notable persons have attended, including Sir John Ashley, Lord Lytton, whose carriage enters the contest regularly.

O'LEARY STILL AHEAD.

Immense crowds are assembled in the Hall last night, and the enthusiasm is intense. At 1:30 this morning O'Leary had completed 200 miles; Corkey 194; Brown 188; Vaughan 194, and Sir John Ashley 200. O'Leary and Corkey then retired for rest.

DINING.

At 6 o'clock this morning O'Leary had made 212 miles; Brown 202; Corkey 196; Vaughan 191. There were sixteen men walking. O'Leary had taken a good rest and was in excellent condition. Corkey, his most dangerous rival, is losing ground.

O'LEARY'S BACKERS.

The book-makers are busy laying odds against all the contestants. The odds are 2 to 1 against O'Leary, 3 to 1 against Corkey, 4 to 1 against Vaughan, 5 to 1 against Brown, 6 to 1 against Sir John Ashley, 7 to 1 against Sir John Ashley, 8 to 1 against Sir John
