The Evening Star.

WASHINGTON, D. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1929—THIRTY-EIGHT PAGES.

MILLS WOULD CUT BORDER PORTS TO STEM LIQUOR FLOW

Treasury Program Will Be Given Joint Committee as Soon as Named.

Unified Patrol System Included in Proposals.

Council of States Officials Necessary to Change Cities of Entry.

COAST GUARDS KILL FLEEING SUSPECT

President Moves Into New Office

Buffalo Police Lieutenant's Son Blends to Death From Bullet Wound.

By R. G. DODD, December 25.—An officer of the Buffalo police force has been shot and killed today by a man wanted by the authorities.

The body of the officer was found in the police station today, having been shot in the head and stomach.

The murderer, who is a known criminal, was killed by the police when he resisted arrest.

The body of the officer is at the hospital, where he died.

A search is being made for the murderer.

DONALD Mrs.

DORAN

B. R. DORAN, President of the Board of Trustees of the University of Virginia, has been appointed to the position of secretary.

He was formerly a member of the faculty of the University of Virginia.

RASSEY

R. E. RASSEY

R. E. RASSEY, one of the leading figures in the development of the University of Virginia, has been appointed to the position of general director.

He was formerly a member of the faculty of the University of Virginia.

DECEMBER

To: The President.

From: The Senate.

Said President-elect Roosevelt will attend the inauguration.

WILEY

H. W. WILEY

H. W. WILEY, Secretary of Agriculture, has been appointed to the position of congressman.

He was formerly a member of the faculty of the University of Virginia.

RASSEY

R. E. RASSEY

R. E. RASSEY, one of the leading figures in the development of the University of Virginia, has been appointed to the position of general director.

He was formerly a member of the faculty of the University of Virginia.

DECEMBER

To: The President.

From: The Senate.

Said President-elect Roosevelt will attend the inauguration.

WILEY

H. W. WILEY

H. W. WILEY, Secretary of Agriculture, has been appointed to the position of congressman.

He was formerly a member of the faculty of the University of Virginia.

RASSEY

R. E. RASSEY

R. E. RASSEY, one of the leading figures in the development of the University of Virginia, has been appointed to the position of general director.

He was formerly a member of the faculty of the University of Virginia.