

The Atlantic gateway to the Panama Canal. A picturesque scene from one of the parks at Colon, showing some of Uncle Sam's fighting ships riding at anchor in the port, ready to take part in maneuvers.

© Associated Press Photo.

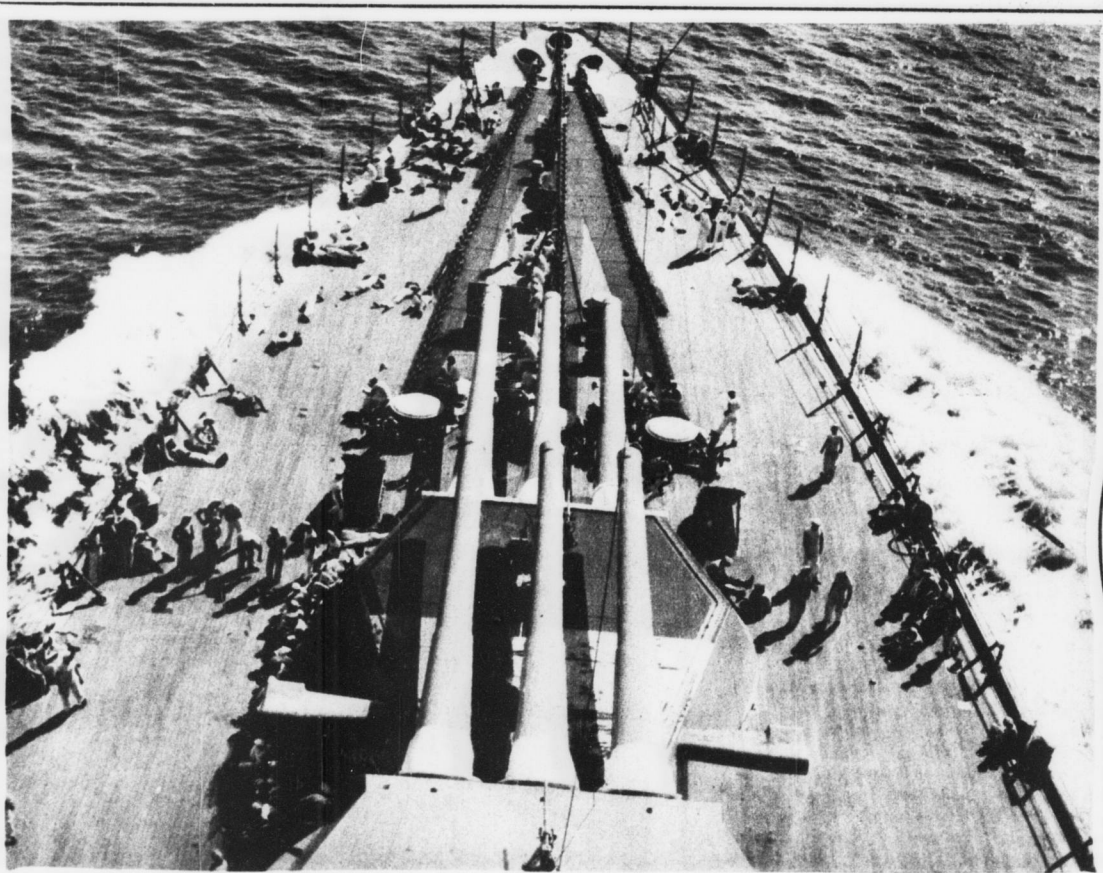

The Huguenots "land" at Charleston, S. C. Descendants of the original Huguenots re-enact the landing in 1680 of the first French Protestants to flee to Carolina after the edict of Nantes.

© Associated Press Photo

At right: Royalty takes a tumble. The Duke of Norfolk executes an equestrian dive as his mount stumbles in a steeplechase at Hawthorn, England.

© F. & A. Photos.

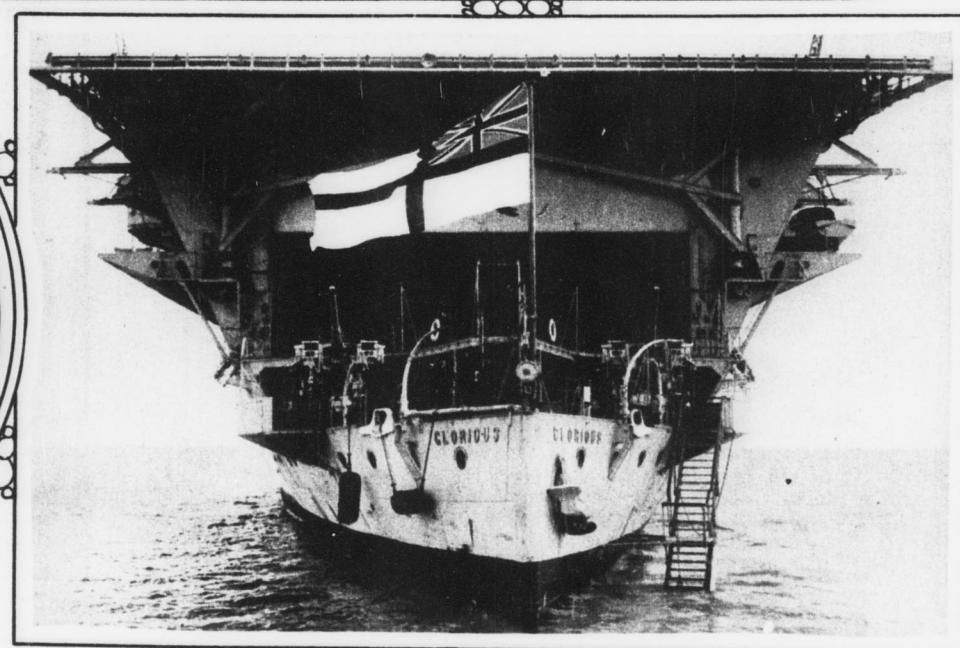

Midday relaxation for American tars at sea. Deck games or a nap on the sun-bathed deck of the battleship California are the popular pastimes as viewed from the cage mast.

© P. & A. Photos.

A fair luminary of the English stage. Miss Elsie Randolph, who has been gaining popularity in London productions this season.

© P. & A. Photos.

A new floating aerodrome for the British Navy. View of the converted cruiser H. M. S. Glorious, showing the immense proportions of her landing deck.

© Underwood & Underwood.