RESEARCH BUREAU TO QUESTION CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR. The Bureau of Municipal Research, through the chairmanship of its board of trustees, R. Fulton Cutting, is said yesterday, intends to send a letter to each of the candidates for Governor, asking whether in the event of his election he will exercise all his powers to insure a state budget system. An important proposal is (1) that a budget is the first essential of efficient and economic management, and (2) that the Governor is the officer to whom the state must look for a budget, rather than the Legislature.
