CHILD TOURISTS SAFE WITH THEIR PARENTS

Found in Alexandria and Returned to Their Homes.

HAD JUST "A SPLENDID TIME"

Little Romee Rawson and Hartmowig, who shared the splendid time at the 1900 World's Fair and the ruins of the ancient city of Rome, were brought home to their parents in Alexandria, via the District of Columbia, yesterday morning.

The two girls, sisters of Romee Rawson, 14, and Hartmowig, 12, who had been visiting their parents in Alexandria, had received a surprise visit from their parents, who had arrived a few days before the fair opened.

Their parents, who were visiting in New York, had arranged for the girls to attend the fair and had brought them to the city. They had planned to return home after the fair, but decided to stay for a few more days.

A LITTLE LACERATION OF THE SCALP DRESSED

Bead of a bullet in the scalp of the Miller Family.

William Miller, a resident of this city, was shot in the scalp by a stray bullet in his home yesterday afternoon, as he was engaged in converting the old mill to a residence.

The bullet entered the man's head and lodged in the skull, causing a little laceration of the scalp. The wound was dressed at the home and the man is expected to recover.

VIRGINIA COAL OUTPUT.

Fueled by the Great War, the output of the Virginia, West Virginia, and Kentucky coal fields has increased tremendously in the last year. Many new mines have been opened, and the output of the old mines has been doubled.

The Virginia coal fields, which are the largest in the country, have produced more coal in the last year than in the previous 10 years.
