WASHINGTON. Another Day of Strong Debating by the Republican Minority.

The Army Bill in the House the Subject of the Talk. Pinning the Democrats Down to Uncomfortable Positions.

The President's Lawful Authority as Commander-in-Chief of the Army. Inability of the Democrats to Avoid This Snag.

Characteristic Treatment of the Bogus Iowa Election. The Soft-Money Lunatics Still Harping on Schemes of "Relief."

Conclusion of the Testimony in the Cameron-Oliver Unpleasantness. THE ARMY BILL.

A POWERFUL MINORITY. Social Dispatch to the Tribune. WASHINGTON, D. C., March 28.—The long fight over the Appropriation bill began in the House to-day.

Accordingly the gentleman who has charge of the bill was very courteous, and proposed to give the Republicans all the time for debate they might desire.

EX-SUBMARINE ROBBERS. In a series of logical questions, forced the Democrats, led by Carlisle, into such a perplexing situation that the latter were glad to take advantage of an opportunity to adjourn.

NO SUGGESTION OF SURRENDER anywhere, and all legislation is drifting with the bitterness of parties is intensified, and the necessities and interests of the country are disregarded.

FINANCIAL SUCCESS. In Stock Operations it is only necessary to proper union of Capital and Experience.

WHO'S CHAS. LINDSAY'S TAILOR 33 N. Clark-st.

In the Cabinet disposed to Johnsonize. William M. Everts is the man. Secretary Schurz is reported to be as firm and determined as any Republican could wish.

Postmaster-General Key, in this as in nearly every political question, shows himself to be one of the most radical of Republican converts.

PERMIT THEM TO BECOME LAWS without his signature, and Republicans generally since the caucus take a more cheerful view of the situation in view of the possible failure of the bills at the end of this fiscal year.

THE LAST DITCH of which the Democrats are now talking in connection with their present campaign against the laws guarding the ballot-box, is a recess of Congress till December in case the President vetoes the Appropriation bills.

THE POINT IS MADE that the power to call Congress was given to the President in order that, since Congress cannot meet of its own accord except on the first Monday in December, it might be possible to assemble Congress on any extraordinary occasions.

MUST FORGET THEIR "TONGUE." The Democrats, in view of the determined front of the Republicans, and the refusal to enter into pairs, are endeavoring to introduce a resolution.

IOWA ELECTION CASE. A VIEW OF THE PRESENT SITUATION. Social Dispatch to the Tribune.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 28.—The Democratic House to-day put a great indignity upon the State of Iowa by a unanimous vote.

ALREADY SWORN IN. It would not be surprising if, in view of the scanty Democratic majority in the House, and the pressure of party necessity, the Democrats really should attempt the Republican representation.

THE GREENBACKERS. PROPOSED LEGISLATION. Social Dispatch to the Tribune.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 28.—The National Representatives, assisted by Judge Kelley and eight or ten Democratic members of the House, held a caucus in one of the House committee-rooms this evening.

NOTES AND NEWS. SLIGHTLY MIXED. Social Dispatch to the Tribune.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 28.—The Evening Star contains the following: Mr. Samuel Dymally, of Illinois, who was one of the Assistant Commissioners to the Paris Exposition, was requested to make a report on stock-raising based upon the exhibits of that character made at the Exposition.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 28.—A declaration of the Commissioner of the General Land Office respecting the claims of the McGregor & Missouri River Railroad Company and the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad Company, the latter receives about 112,000 acres.
