Representative Kelley Again Tells What

THE INTERFERENCE BILL.

Special Dispatch to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 10.—The President viil doubtless veto what is known as the Military-Interference bill, but what should be more properly called a bill to bind the arms of the Executive. The President, of course, does not since the pill passed the House he has conversed with such freedom with various Senators and Representatives who have called upon him that To one gentleman who called upon him to-day the President said in substance that he DID NOT THINK THE TIME HAD COME when it was necessary to repeal the laws for the protection of the citizens and the preservation of the Republic that were signed by Washington and passed by the fathers.

To another gentleman the President has said the polls; but they will not send such a bill.
The bill reported from the Democratic caucus is the arm of Executive power; it would prevent the execution of the laws." This gentleman stated that he had no doubt that the President would veto the bill. Secretary Evarts said to-day, in conversation with a Republican Senator, that he was convinced that it would not do for the President to sign the bill. Mr. Evarts was a close listener to EVARTS WAS BARNEST. perhaps regretful in, his statement that it would not do for the President to sign the bill. A gentleman with whom the President conversed to-day, a Northern Representative who is held in high esteem by many Southern men, said, speaking of the President's position and of the South: "The Southern people do not know the President. They do not understand him. They have thought that he was all peace and reconciliation, and would surrender on every point.

They are mistaken in him. They do not know that on all issues growing out of the War he is as radical and stalwart as any Republican in Congress, and that he will surrender nothing of the results of that contest, so far as it is possible for him to prevent it. I tell you the South-will not be coerced." THE PRESIDENT'S VETO MESSAGE will, it is confidently predicted by those who have the best means of information on the subject, be founded, among other things, upon the following propositions: That the bill would tend to interfere with the operation of Art. I., Sec. 4, of the Constitution, relative to the time, place, and manner of holding elections for Senators and Representatives; that it would cripple the Executive in his constitutional right under Art. I., Sec. 8, of the Constitution, to call forth the militia to execute the laws of the Government; that it nullifies Art. II., Sec. 2, of the Constitution, which makes the President Commanderin-Chief of the army and navy of the United. States and of the militis of the several States; that it would prevent the injunction of Art. II. of the Constitution, Sec. 3, which requires that the President shall take care that the laws

BE PAITHFULLY EXECUTED: that it would prevent the President from executing the mandates of the Fourteenth and. Fifteenth amendments to the Constitution; that it would prevent Marshals of the United States from executing the law as provided by thee statute of 1789; that it would prevent the President from using the armed forces of the United. States or the militia of the States to overcome: any combinations opposing the execution of the laws of the United States, as provided by the act of 1792, and that it would deprive the United: States Marshals of their powers under the same. that it would prevent the President from

OVERCOMING FORCIBLE OBSTRUCTION to the laws of the United States, or of any individual State or Territory, as provided by the statute of 1807, signed by Thomas Jefferson; that it would prevent the President from overoming unlawful obstruction to the execution of the Federal laws, as provided by the act of 1833, signed by Andrew Jackson; that it would prevent the President of the United States from executing all the laws of the United States relative to the forcible obstrution of the Federal processes, signed from Abraham Lincoln's time until now; especially that it would work a practical repeal of the Federal Election laws, and all laws for the profection of the citizen and THE PURITY OF THE BALLOT-BOX,- that the approval of the bill and the crippling of the constitutional powers of the Commander-in-Chief in such a manner would be to expose the liberties of the people to unnecessary peril;
