

With Welling Helpless on Ropes Referee Stops Fight in Fourteenth Round and Declares Leonard the Winner

BENNY LEONARD'S KNOCK WELING OUT IN 14TH

Leonard Gives Chicago Rival a Terrific Beating in Garden Arena.

Referee Stops Contest as Joe Is Practically Unable to Defend Himself.

By CHARLES F. MATHISON.

Benny Leonard's lightweight crown still sits jauntily on his glossy black hair, but it cannot be denied that Joe Welling, the Chicago Bohemian, gave the title holder the surprise of his championship career in Madison Square Garden last night.

Welling battled with Leonard and for twelve rounds gave the title holder a hard contest. The closest right-hand punches to the jaw that Leonard was able to send across and which landed with a solid effect seemed to have not the slightest effect upon the Chicagoan.

At the end of the twelfth round it seemed almost a certainty that Welling would remain the limit. He came out for the thirteenth round, however, and started the contest aggressively. The champion, however, who had been pounding Welling about the face for twelve rounds, finally landed his trusty left on the point of the chin, following with a heavy right to jaw which staggered the Chicagoan and spelled defeat for the Bohemian.

Welling never recovered from the effects of those two punches, and while, by a remarkable exhibition of courage, he managed to last the round, yet his vigor was sapped and he seemed to have disappeared.

Leonard First in Ring. Leonard was first to enter the ring and his black hair was never brushed more smoothly. Welling followed immediately and the Chicagoan had a very serious expression on his face.

Welling Floored Four Times. To the astonishment of the onlookers Welling, who had been floored four times during the thirteenth round, was on his feet when the contest began.

Duffy Beaten by McGuire. Jack Duffy, the Chicagoan with an impressive knockout record who recently stopped Terry Mitchell in forty seconds, met a tartar in Frank McGuire of Williamsport, Pa., who outboxed Duffy from the start.

Kennedy Wins. ROCHFESTER, Nov. 26.—Joe Stecher failed to throw Ivan Karanoff, a Russian, and George "Farmer" Bailey, of New England, in a half-hour handicap match here to-night. Stecher threw Karanoff in 10th, but Bailey was on his feet when time was up.

Story by Rounds of Lightweight Battle

ROUND ONE—Leonard was first to lead. He sent a left hander to the body, which he repeated, and then shot a right hander over the head.

ROUND TWO—They came to close quarters and exchanged body blows with no effect. Leonard reached Welling with a straight right hander to the chin which Welling ducked.

ROUND THREE—They fell into a clinch at the outset, and on the break away Leonard sent a left hander to the face, which Welling ducked.

ROUND FOUR—They came to a clinch and Leonard sent a right hander to the face, which Welling ducked.

ROUND FIVE—Leonard opened with two left handers to face and body, and when Welling clinched the referee went before him.

ROUND SIX—They exchanged left handers and Leonard sent a right hander to the face, which Welling ducked.

ROUND SEVEN—Leonard opened with several left handers to face and body, and when Welling clinched the referee went before him.

In a series of sprints which lasted more than half an hour and ended with a nasty spill a few minutes before midnight, Arthur Spencer, the American sprint champion, and Frank Corry, his partner, were lapped last night in the six day bicycle race in the Twenty-second Regiment Armory.

Spiesens and Buyse, the Belgian team which had been lapped in the afternoon, started the spurt. They seemed determined to make up the lost ground and they did not stop doing their best until the spill in which Magin and Walker came to grief after leaving the east embankment.

ROUND TWELVE—Leonard sent in a series of left handers to the face, which Welling ducked.

ROUND FOURTEEN—Welling was clearly in very bad condition when he came to the center of the ring with full force on his punches to body and jaw.

ROUND FIFTEEN—Leonard opened with several left handers to face and body, and when Welling clinched the referee went before him.

ROUND SIXTEEN—Leonard opened with several left handers to face and body, and when Welling clinched the referee went before him.

ROUND SEVENTEEN—Leonard opened with several left handers to face and body, and when Welling clinched the referee went before him.

ROUND EIGHTEEN—Leonard opened with several left handers to face and body, and when Welling clinched the referee went before him.

WOODLAND GOLFER IS HARD FIGHTER

C. J. Dunphy Takes W. M. Reekie to Home Green at Lakewood.

By KERR N. PETRIE.

Special Despatch to The New York Herald. LAKESIDE, N. J., Nov. 27.—Should Gardner W. White of Nassau, this year's metropolitan championship runner up, succeed in eliminating Fred W. Knight of Whitmarsh Valley, Philadelphia, to-morrow morning there will be an all metropolitan final to the Thanksgiving golf tournament of the Country Club of Lakewood.

It was an ideal session last night for the fanatics who crave for sprints. From 7 o'clock the session was replete with sensational sprints. Almost every half hour a team attempted to steal away from the field, and each time a terrific sprint followed for the "chief" was caught.

At the end of the session Magin and Madden were leading with 333. Goulet and Hill were second with 215 and Eaton and Kaiser third with 247.

ARMOUR'S DEFEAT IS GOLF SURPRISE

Scotfield Is Another Favorite to Be Beaten in Pinehurst Tourney.

Special Despatch to The New York Herald.

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 26.—Two surprising upsets occurred in the semi-final round of the autumn golf tournament here to-day. Tom Armour, the well known Scottish winning amateur in the amateur-professional affairs which ended here on Monday, medalist in the present tournament, and an easy favorite for the final honors in the present tournament, went down to defeat at the hands of Chris Diddel of the Youngtown Country Club, who won the match by 2 and 1.

Everybody expected would come through to the final in company with Armour; was not only beaten by W. E. Wells of the Oakmont Country Club, but lost by the surprising margin of 5 and 4.

Scotfield of Stamford, whom everybody expected would come through to the final in company with Armour; was not only beaten by W. E. Wells of the Oakmont Country Club, but lost by the surprising margin of 5 and 4.

Peter, here's word from the woods! Certainly slipped on not tipping you that Mr. Bacon invited me to join his shooting party up here.

Arrived at his Northeast Carry Camp at sunset yesterday. And a riot started before we squashed up to the venison steak! Histr, old bull pup—my tale's short!

Bleak Nixon, chief guide while unpacking, made the terrible discovery that ALL the Camel cigarette supplies had been swiped in transit! Never heard such a howl as the whole outfit set-up!

Nixon swore in Indian-plus-Canuck! Just wouldn't be pacified! Bleak's been rooting for Camels since November 1915. Say there never was such smoothness, or refreshing flavor, or mild body in a cigarette as Camels provide!

(Pete, Bleak is OK on that!) While the row was on what does Nixon do but hop into his canoe and disappear into the depths of the dark, dank night!

About three this morning there was a roar such as no man ever heard in the wild woods! It was Nixon yelling like a double-decked bull moose!

That bird had crossed the lake, picked up a trail and beat it to a little way-back store where he got the boss out of bed and made him come across with all the Camels he had!

The storekeeper tickled like a handfull of acs—but, Bleak always gets what he goes after! It's the nerve, old tooth! And, now we're all filled with the milk of human kindness and Camel Contentment! We'll get game!

Peter, think of digging up a bunch of Camels in the depths of Maine's densest woods! And, that's the way it is all over the U.S.A! You're never out of luck when you smoke Camels!

Peter, old hub, I've spoke—as the Camp Cook puts it! Back in New York—well, — SOON!!! — your old pal Shorty.
