What Has Been Played During the Past Week.

High Tragedy at Three Theatres This Week.

Last Week of the Union Square Company at the Grand.

REVIEW OF THE WEEK.

The attendance at all the theatres during the past week has been very large indeed, "standing room only" being the rule every evening at nearly all of them.

The closing of the Exposition has filled the city with strangers, and they have constituted the majority of the audience.

At Haverly's Theatre during the past week Mr. John McCullough, supported by a much better company than is usually given to a "star," has been seen in four different characters.

At Hooley's Theatre Mr. T. W. Keene appeared on Monday and Tuesday as Jedediah; on Wednesday matinee as Shiloh; on Thursday evening and Saturday matinee as Henry; on Friday evening as Shiloh; and on Saturday night as Shiloh.

At McVicker's Theatre "The Grand Opera-House of the Union Square" has been the talk of the city.
