

WASHINGTON.

Roscoe Conkling Closed for Three Hours with the President.

The Democrats Will Put the Government on a Precipice.

They Will Demand that the Vice-Presidency Shall Go to a Democrat.

It Will Then Be Within the Power of Any Assasin to "Remove the President."

All the Spills of the Great Republic Will Then Fall to the Bourbons.

Specimen of the Senseless Wordiness of an Indictment for Assassination.

The Pension Exposures Not Followed by Further Interesting Developments.

Mrs. Christianity Testifies to Acts of Her Husband Which Would Seriously Compromise a Brute.

ROSOCOE CONKLING. THEY MET WITH THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—Roscoe Conkling arrived here on the early train this morning, called at the Jones mansion about noon, and was closed with the President for at least three hours.

THE SITUATION. IT IS HAID.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The Senate does not meet until Monday morning, but the Democrats have already shown that all the talk of compromise was the direct line of the party's memory, but they propose to take advantage of his death.

THEIR GREAT GAME. out they have decided to steal the Presidency of the Senate from the Republican party, and to avail themselves of the direct line of the party's memory, but they propose to take advantage of his death.

THEIR PRESIDENTIAL OFFICER. speaking in the Democratic position, said to-night that he had an agreement with the party caucus to agree upon a plan of action.

THE REPUBLICAN STATEMENT TO THE COUNTRY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—After adjournment Chairman Senator Anthony prepared the following statement as the Republican version of the Democratic caucus.

IT HAS BEEN WELL KNOWN. between public and private meetings had been arranged to meet at the same hour Saturday for the express purpose of a conference.

THE THIEVES. DUDLEY TALKING SO AS NOT TO SAY MUCH.

IT IS SAID THAT DAVID DAVIS has a candidate for the Secretaryship, and the Republicans opposed to Gorham.

THE CABINET. FOLLOWS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The indications tonight were that the President would be advised by President Arthur to Justice Polzer.

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

take the other offices. Indeed, they had the same kind of right to refer the credentials of the members of the caucus to the President.

THE ASSASSIN. THE GRAND JURY IN COURT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—At 10:30 the grand jury met in the morning and presented the indictment against Galt.

THE INDICTMENT. To the Western Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—Following is a synopsis of the several counts of the indictment against Galt.

FIRST COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

SECOND COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

THIRD COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

FOURTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

FIFTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

SIXTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

SEVENTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

EIGHTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

NINTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

TENTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

ELEVENTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

TWELFTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

THIRTEENTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

FOURTEENTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

FIFTEENTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

SIXTEENTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

SEVENTEENTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

EIGHTEENTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

NINETEENTH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

TWENTIETH COUNT. The grand jurors of the United States of America, in and for the county and district of Columbia, do hereby present to you the following indictment against Charles J. Galt.

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

any considerable opportunity for reputation in the Treasury Department, as all these things were done by Mr. Boutwell.

HERESY. The Brethren at Sycamore Shocked by Thomas' Charges.

His Able and Documentary Use of the Word "Lying a Bombshell."

The Bishop Unwilling to Squelch Any Charge So Painfully Direct.

Proceedings Before the Council of Fifteen, Sitting as a High Court of Heresy.

Pronounced Effect of the Great Speech of the Accused Before the Tribunal.

Address of Dr. Miller, Counsel for the So-Called Heretical Theologian.

The Effort Half-Justificatory and Half-Apologetic, with a Crack at Parkhurst.

Thomas Is "Manly, Loving, Gentle, but His Theological Knowledge is Held in Little Esteem."

THE "TRIBUNE." ALL THE BRETHREN SAY TO FIND OUT WHAT IS GOING ON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The President has already been subjected to pressure to relieve the Treasury Department of the duties of Secretary of the Treasury.

THE WEATHER. SIGNAL SERVICE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—Indications for the Ohio Valley and Tennessee, fair weather; in the Ohio Valley, fair, higher barometer, and lower temperature.

LOCAL OBSERVATIONS. CHICAGO, OCT. 8—10:15 a. m.

ST. PAUL, MINN. Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

THE THIEVES. DUDLEY TALKING SO AS NOT TO SAY MUCH.

IT IS SAID THAT DAVID DAVIS has a candidate for the Secretaryship, and the Republicans opposed to Gorham.

THE CABINET. FOLLOWS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The indications tonight were that the President would be advised by President Arthur to Justice Polzer.

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

ferred to the Presiding Elder where the Rev. M. Parkhurst is stationed for further investigation.

HERESY. The Brethren at Sycamore Shocked by Thomas' Charges.

His Able and Documentary Use of the Word "Lying a Bombshell."

The Bishop Unwilling to Squelch Any Charge So Painfully Direct.

Proceedings Before the Council of Fifteen, Sitting as a High Court of Heresy.

Pronounced Effect of the Great Speech of the Accused Before the Tribunal.

Address of Dr. Miller, Counsel for the So-Called Heretical Theologian.

The Effort Half-Justificatory and Half-Apologetic, with a Crack at Parkhurst.

Thomas Is "Manly, Loving, Gentle, but His Theological Knowledge is Held in Little Esteem."

THE "TRIBUNE." ALL THE BRETHREN SAY TO FIND OUT WHAT IS GOING ON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The President has already been subjected to pressure to relieve the Treasury Department of the duties of Secretary of the Treasury.

THE WEATHER. SIGNAL SERVICE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—Indications for the Ohio Valley and Tennessee, fair weather; in the Ohio Valley, fair, higher barometer, and lower temperature.

LOCAL OBSERVATIONS. CHICAGO, OCT. 8—10:15 a. m.

ST. PAUL, MINN. Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

THE THIEVES. DUDLEY TALKING SO AS NOT TO SAY MUCH.

IT IS SAID THAT DAVID DAVIS has a candidate for the Secretaryship, and the Republicans opposed to Gorham.

THE CABINET. FOLLOWS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The indications tonight were that the President would be advised by President Arthur to Justice Polzer.

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

ferred to the Presiding Elder where the Rev. M. Parkhurst is stationed for further investigation.

HERESY. The Brethren at Sycamore Shocked by Thomas' Charges.

His Able and Documentary Use of the Word "Lying a Bombshell."

The Bishop Unwilling to Squelch Any Charge So Painfully Direct.

Proceedings Before the Council of Fifteen, Sitting as a High Court of Heresy.

Pronounced Effect of the Great Speech of the Accused Before the Tribunal.

Address of Dr. Miller, Counsel for the So-Called Heretical Theologian.

The Effort Half-Justificatory and Half-Apologetic, with a Crack at Parkhurst.

Thomas Is "Manly, Loving, Gentle, but His Theological Knowledge is Held in Little Esteem."

THE "TRIBUNE." ALL THE BRETHREN SAY TO FIND OUT WHAT IS GOING ON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The President has already been subjected to pressure to relieve the Treasury Department of the duties of Secretary of the Treasury.

THE WEATHER. SIGNAL SERVICE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—Indications for the Ohio Valley and Tennessee, fair weather; in the Ohio Valley, fair, higher barometer, and lower temperature.

LOCAL OBSERVATIONS. CHICAGO, OCT. 8—10:15 a. m.

ST. PAUL, MINN. Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

THE THIEVES. DUDLEY TALKING SO AS NOT TO SAY MUCH.

IT IS SAID THAT DAVID DAVIS has a candidate for the Secretaryship, and the Republicans opposed to Gorham.

THE CABINET. FOLLOWS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The indications tonight were that the President would be advised by President Arthur to Justice Polzer.

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

There was no response, and Dr. Hatfield went out in pursuit of him, and the court took a break.

HERESY. The Brethren at Sycamore Shocked by Thomas' Charges.

His Able and Documentary Use of the Word "Lying a Bombshell."

The Bishop Unwilling to Squelch Any Charge So Painfully Direct.

Proceedings Before the Council of Fifteen, Sitting as a High Court of Heresy.

Pronounced Effect of the Great Speech of the Accused Before the Tribunal.

Address of Dr. Miller, Counsel for the So-Called Heretical Theologian.

The Effort Half-Justificatory and Half-Apologetic, with a Crack at Parkhurst.

Thomas Is "Manly, Loving, Gentle, but His Theological Knowledge is Held in Little Esteem."

THE "TRIBUNE." ALL THE BRETHREN SAY TO FIND OUT WHAT IS GOING ON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The President has already been subjected to pressure to relieve the Treasury Department of the duties of Secretary of the Treasury.

THE WEATHER. SIGNAL SERVICE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—Indications for the Ohio Valley and Tennessee, fair weather; in the Ohio Valley, fair, higher barometer, and lower temperature.

LOCAL OBSERVATIONS. CHICAGO, OCT. 8—10:15 a. m.

ST. PAUL, MINN. Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

THE THIEVES. DUDLEY TALKING SO AS NOT TO SAY MUCH.

IT IS SAID THAT DAVID DAVIS has a candidate for the Secretaryship, and the Republicans opposed to Gorham.

THE CABINET. FOLLOWS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The indications tonight were that the President would be advised by President Arthur to Justice Polzer.

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

There was no response, and Dr. Hatfield went out in pursuit of him, and the court took a break.

HERESY. The Brethren at Sycamore Shocked by Thomas' Charges.

His Able and Documentary Use of the Word "Lying a Bombshell."

The Bishop Unwilling to Squelch Any Charge So Painfully Direct.

Proceedings Before the Council of Fifteen, Sitting as a High Court of Heresy.

Pronounced Effect of the Great Speech of the Accused Before the Tribunal.

Address of Dr. Miller, Counsel for the So-Called Heretical Theologian.

The Effort Half-Justificatory and Half-Apologetic, with a Crack at Parkhurst.

Thomas Is "Manly, Loving, Gentle, but His Theological Knowledge is Held in Little Esteem."

THE "TRIBUNE." ALL THE BRETHREN SAY TO FIND OUT WHAT IS GOING ON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The President has already been subjected to pressure to relieve the Treasury Department of the duties of Secretary of the Treasury.

THE WEATHER. SIGNAL SERVICE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—Indications for the Ohio Valley and Tennessee, fair weather; in the Ohio Valley, fair, higher barometer, and lower temperature.

LOCAL OBSERVATIONS. CHICAGO, OCT. 8—10:15 a. m.

ST. PAUL, MINN. Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

THE THIEVES. DUDLEY TALKING SO AS NOT TO SAY MUCH.

IT IS SAID THAT DAVID DAVIS has a candidate for the Secretaryship, and the Republicans opposed to Gorham.

THE CABINET. FOLLOWS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The indications tonight were that the President would be advised by President Arthur to Justice Polzer.

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit:

THE CHARGES AGAINST PARKHURST. The committee to whom was referred the paper of Hiram W. Bates, and the following to wit: