Compare the Work— Compare the Workmanship— You will choose the Royal typewriter

Compare the work of the Royal typewriter—put it to the deciding test of actual results.

Compare the ease with which the work is done, because of the personal touch adjustment.

Compare the perfect presswork insured by Royal construction.

Compare the appearance of the work—the clean, clear, legible letters; the exact, correct lines.

Compare the increased efficiency of the operator, because more work and better work is done with less effort.

Compare the time saved by the operator, through the mechanical responsiveness of the Royal.

Compare the money saved through the ending of excessive repairs—the money saved because the Royal does not have to be “laid off.”

Compare the greater value in a typewriter which is not built to be sold with the understanding that it will have to be “traded out” in two or three years.

Royal typewriting will stand the test.

Compare the workmanship of the Royal from any and every point of the highest standard of mechanics.

Compare the elegance of its appearance, to the minutest details of its enameling and nickeling.

Compare its absolute symmetry—its air of high grade workmanship, that peculiar something which is built into an article by master workmen who love their work.

Compare the honest workmanship, the obvious desire to build long life and real service into a piece of machinery.

Compare the exquisite finish of the working parts; the exactness of the fit of each bearing.

Compare the use of the proper high grade metal and other materials where cheaper substances might be used.

Compare the simplicity of its construction—the directness with which its parts do their work.

Compare the marvellously accurate timing of every working part so that all act together as a perfect whole.

Royal workmanship will stand the test.

Get the facts. Know the Royal. Telephone or write us and a representative will call. Without the slightest obligation on your part you can “compare the work” of the Royal in your own office and under your own working conditions.
