

U. S. Experts Plan War Changes for Port of New York

Sailings, Cargoes and Land Shipments May Be Controlled by Board

A plan for the organization of the Port of New York for efficient and economical government service, which has been submitted to Secretary of War Baker, was described yesterday in a statement by Edward D. Page, director of the Merchants' Association and chairman of the New York Advisory Committee to the War Department.

executive management resting with the War Department. The taking over of the Hoboken piers by the government and the removal of the Canadian liners tied up there would facilitate the work.

Plans have been submitted showing how railroad connections with the piers can be improved and enlarged. The War Department may lease the property of the Hoboken Shore Road and put itself in a position to use piers, tracks and yards practically as a single proposition.

Dr. Moskowitz Says Movement Is Impracticable
Dr. Henry Moskowitz, Dr. David De Sola Pool and Dr. Maurice H. Harris discussed Zionism at a symposium on the Jewish question at Temple Emanu-El last night.

The Weather Report
Washington, May 13.—There were local rains in New England and showers in Western Nebraska, Western Kansas, Eastern Colorado, southeastern Wyoming and in the far Northwest.

"Long Island's Efficient Suburban Service"
The Long Island Railroad's suburban travel is an important factor in its business, hence every invention for the safety of passengers and the efficiency of service, every convenience to add to their comfort; and improvements to take care of the future growth in travel, are carefully sought and adopted, resulting in a new standard of efficiency in suburban service.
It is the endeavor of the management to arrange schedules to best meet the requirements of the majority of its patrons, and all warranted suggestions are given careful consideration.
The cars are clean, well ventilated and lighted; employ courteous; and sixty-trip commutation tickets for daily travelers are sold at a greatly reduced rate per ride.
"Long Island's Efficient Suburban Service"
The Long Island Railroad's suburban service is a marked contrast in comfort to the rush and crush of the city transportation lines. Doesn't this alone mean something to you in your trip between home and office?
