When you hear a man announce that he has quit politics and religion, watch him. He who neglects his country's welfare and forgets his God is somewhat dangerous.

The orange grower is now "tossing the new mown hay." Orange sprouts have made a good growth. A good many orange and grape fruit buds have been put in, while the average that lived was small. Those that did live are doing well and making fine growth. "Parson Brown" orange buds are the favorites. This orange ripens very early in September. Many buds will be put induring this month and next to remain dormant until next spring.—Weir Park item in Times Union.

MAGNETIZING horseshoes with happiness from the heads of happy people and then making people afflicted with melancholia wear them is a clever notion of a Paris doctor. Whatever starts in Paris in the way of medical experiment is sure to have a hearing in England and America. It has been popularly supposed that happiness is in the heart, but as it would be difficult to put a horseshoe around the hearts of the healthy and happy, the Parisian scientist takes another and more intellectual view of it. His horseshoe on the head is a sort of visible mind-cure in active operation.—Boston Transcript.

SHOT IN CHURCH.

An Eighteen-Year Old Colored Boy Shot During Services.

Last night at 8 o'clock, while services were being held at St. Phillip's, a new colored Baptist church erected on the Flemington road, about eight miles from town, two colored boys, about eighteen years old, were sitting side by side. One of them, Sam Samsor, began talking, and the other, Jim Wilkinson, remonstrated with him and tried to keep him quiet, whereupon Sam pulled out a pistol and shot Jim, the ball entering the center of his thigh and lodging somewhere in the limb.

The weapon used was a .32 caliber and inflicted a very painful, though not necessarily serious, wound.

Early this morning Jim's father loaded him into a wagon and drove into town, when Jim was taken up to Dr. Hood's office, where, when seen about 9 o'clock this morning by a STAR man, the doctor was probing for the ball, but had not been able to locate it.

Jim was good good grit, and although not under the influence of any opiate, did not flinch or utter a groan. Sam is still at large, and no warrant has been taken out.

A CORRECTION.

Dr. Thompson asked us to state that in the case of Pete Whidden, who was badly injured by a fall from a scaffold in Citrus county some time ago, the Times-Union and local papers stated that he was Dr. Hood's patient, and that an arm would have to be amputated.

The injured man is a son of E. B. Whidden, former manager of the Ocala House. An incompetent physician set the wrist which was fractured and otherwise out of joint, and did such a poor job that Dr. Thompson had to treat it again, but it was too late to save it from disfigurement.

The other arm also sustained a fracture. Dr. Thompson says there is no foundation whatever for the report that the arm would have to be amputated.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Saturday's Proceedings Given in Brief.

State vs. Creola Crews, for murdering her new-born child, was called, and parties all being present and ready, trial was continued. A jury was empaneled and after hearing the evidence retired to consider the case and returned a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment. The judge passed sentence of six months at hard labor in county jail of Marion county.

Case of state vs. A. S. Morgan for murder was continued till next term and bond fixed at $1000, to be approved by clerk.

State vs. Jim Owens, for larceny. Upon application of defendant and counsel, bond heretofore fixed at $200 was changed to $50.

Case of state vs. Captain Williams was continued till next term.

Court then adjourned till Monday.
