W. O. W. UNVEILING NEXT SUNDAY AT TWO CEMETERIES

TOTAL OF EIGHT OR NINE SHAFTS TO DEPARTED SOVEREIGNS WILL BE DEDICATED WITH USUAL CEREMONIES.

Two local camps of the Woodmen of the World, Live Oak No. 1, and Hickory No. 21, will conduct an impressive unveiling ceremony next Sunday, when eight or nine shafts to departed Sovereigns will be dedicated.

At 2 o'clock members of the two lodges will assemble at the hall, at the corner of Romana and Baylen streets, and thence proceed to St. Michael's cemetery, where one or more shafts will be unveiled.

Dr. Waite's Wife Has Filed Suit For a Divorce

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. Grand Rapids, Minn., April 4—Mrs. Clara Louise Peck Waite today filed suit for divorce here against her husband, Dr. Arthur Warren Waite of New York, who has confessed to the murder of her father and mother.

In her bill of complaint, Mrs. Waite charges that he gained her consent to marriage by fraud; that he treated her with extreme cruelty after marriage; plotted to murder her father and mother and intended to kill his wife and members of her family.

The joint committees having this service in hand will hold a meeting tonight, just previous to the regular meeting of Hickory camp, and all details for the Sunday ceremonies will be satisfactorily arranged.

The State Superintendent and the Book Companies

DR. KELLEY'S REPLY TO THE REPORTER-STAR

The Reporter-Star, a paper edited in Orlando by J. H. Reese, has published an editorial dated March 11, 1916, in support of the candidacy of State Superintendent Sheats for re-election, in which it has the following to say: "The Reporter-Star has no doubt that Dr. Kelley, of Gainesville, who is running for Superintendent of Public Instruction against Superintendent Sheats, is personally a pleasant and cultured gentleman, but he is associated with the wrong crowd. It ought to be fatal to the candidacy of any man aspiring to the high position which Dr. Kelley is seeking to be suspected of being close to any text-book interest."

MR. SHEATS' RECORD. The Hon. W. N. Sheats has been a cunning opponent of the Uniform Text Book Law. Please read what he has to say in his Biennial Report, June 30, 1906, page 45: "It was recommended that a law requiring county uniformity be enacted. Such a law was passed by the last Legislature. Books have been adopted in accordance therewith in all the counties, and their use is binding for five years from July 1st of the present year. This law meets all the requirements of uniformity, and gives general satisfaction to county school officers, teachers and to a large majority of patrons. The books are secured at as low prices as similar books can be secured under any system of adoption. It must not be forgotten that all books do not cost and are not worth the same money."

MY RECORD. I assumed the duties of County Superintendent of Alachua County in January, 1905, was a member of the Superintendents' Convention in Tallahassee, April, 1905; was chairman of a committee of three, appointed by that convention to investigate and report on the advisability of recommending that the Legislature pass a Uniform Text-Book Law. One member joined me in making a favorable report, Superintendent Wood dissenting. Our recommendation was voted down almost unanimously by the Convention. I was a member of the Text-Book Commission in 1911, and voted for all the books adopted except the Wheeler Readers, thereby supporting the books I considered best, regardless of the publishers. The following letter will convince any reasonable man that the American Book Company is not favorable to me:

Mr. S. Robt. Dean, Editor and Manager Miami Daily Metropolis, Miami, Fla. Dear Sir:—My attention has been called to an editorial contained in your paper of the 18th instant: "Dr. Kelley Should Be Given Strong Support." I must insist that you make retraction editorially of the following statement contained in the editorial referred to: "His opponent has already started a base canard about his alignment with book publishers."

AMERICAN BOOK COMPANY. Publishers of School and College Textbooks. Incorporated by J. E. McLean. 21 North Fourth Street, Chicago, Ill. October 27, 1915.

Dear Dr. Sheats: I have just returned from a somewhat "wild" trip to various points in Florida. While in the State, I heard some things about my friend Dr. J. L. Kelley that have caused me to re-examine his account and on account of the strong interests of Florida. Some people said Dr. K. would not fight against Dr. Sheats for State Superintendent of Public Instruction. I know your close relations to Dr. K., and I therefore, taking liberty to say to you that I hope Dr. K. will not enter the race. If he does, the result will be a loss to the State and you also lose the best interests of education in Florida. Besides, Dr. Sheats really deserves another term in order that he may carry out his announced plans for the advancement of education in your State. It shall be glad to hear from you at your convenience. Very truly yours, William Sheats, Jr.

William Sheats, Jr., has for years been the agent for the Wheeler Company and the Rand McNally Company. It is alleged that he has had free access to his father's office.

Mr. Frank Spahn is the agent for Ginn & Co., and has had his headquarters in this city for the last few months. The following affidavit explains the attitude of Ginn & Co.'s agent towards me:

State of Florida—Alachua County. Personally came before me F. W. Buchholz, who, being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says: That during the month of February, A. D. 1916, he had a conversation with F. O. Spahn, representative in Florida of GINN & COMPANY, text-book publishers, and in the course of the conversation Mr. Spahn said in substance that he had promised to vote for W. N. Sheats in his candidacy for State Superintendent; and that he had made such promise to Mr. Sheats several months previous to the date of the conversation. F. W. BUCHHOLZ. Sworn to and subscribed before me this 18th day of March, A. D. 1916. J. C. ADKINS (Seal) Notary Public State of Florida at Large. My commission expires Sept. 13, 1919.

Mr. Spahn was a citizen of Georgia until October, 1915, and will not be permitted to vote in the June primary. The book companies were not satisfied with the support they received from me when a member of the Sub-Text-Book Commission, hence their opposition to my candidacy. If elected, I shall, as I have done in the past, exert whatever influence I may have in the matter toward the adoption of books solely on the basis of their excellence and merit, totally regardless of the companies publishing the books.

I am making a candidacy in harmony with the dignity of the office to which I aspire, and I regret very much that Mr. Sheats and his supporters have made it necessary for me to write this communication. I am convinced, however, that no fair-minded man will censure me for refuting the charges made against me. I have no desire to be unfair to my opponent, and therefore affirm that even if he is especially partial to one or more book companies, it will still be impossible for him to render them much support, as the school books are adopted by a majority vote of the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions. This commission is composed of the Governor, Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Secretary of Agriculture, Attorney General and State Superintendent of Public Instruction. I offer the following in support of the above affirmation: "Chapter 6178, Acts of the Legislature of 1911. Section 1. That the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions be, and is hereby, constituted a State Text-Book Commission, whose duty it is to select and adopt a uniform series or system of text-books for use in the public schools in the State of Florida."

I am advised that my religious affiliations have been misrepresented in different sections of the State. While in my religious belief I am a Baptist, I do not ask the support of any one on this basis. Sectarianism has no place in our schools, and during the nearly twelve years of my Superintendency in Alachua County, I have carefully guarded the schools from sectarian entanglements. Respectfully, Gainesville, Fla., March 18, 1916. J. L. KELLEY. P. S.—Since writing the above article the following correspondence has been received by me:

STATE OF FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION TALLAHASSEE. March 20, 1916.

Mr. S. Robt. Dean, Editor and Manager Miami Daily Metropolis, Miami, Fla. Dear Sir:—My attention has been called to an editorial contained in your paper of the 18th instant: "Dr. Kelley Should Be Given Strong Support."

I must insist that you make retraction editorially of the following statement contained in the editorial referred to: "His opponent has already started a base canard about his alignment with book publishers." This statement is maliciously false, and made more so when you state: "One newspaper in the state is assisting in spreading the sly accusations."

In order that you may realize the injustice of your charge, I enclose the only campaign literature issued by me to date—one piece a hand-out card, the other an open letter, as published in the Florida Record of this city on the 18th inst. My only reference to the matter of school books is contained in this letter under the sub-head "Advocated Law," and only states what I endeavored to do in the interest of this worthy measure.

Should it be your desire to inject the matter of history connected with the school book fight made before several different Legislatures, I will most cheerfully advise the people of your section of my activity in the interest, and match records with my opponent.

I will also compare my record as an educator with that of my opponent. Yours very truly, W. N. SHEATS. (Signed) (Copy) March 23, 1916.

Hon. W. N. Sheats, State Superintendent, Department of Public Instruction, Tallahassee, Florida. Dear Sir:—I have your letter of March 20th, and note that you appear to be somewhat irritated as a consequence of the Dr. Kelley editorial which appeared in the Metropolis on March 18th, and that you insist the Metropolis make editorial retraction of this statement: "His opponent has already started a base canard about his alignment with book publishers."

I note also that you say this statement is maliciously false. Now, Mr. Sheats, I beg to disagree with you. You certainly have not forgotten your conversation in my office, and in my presence, if not to me, when you said you had to make your fight against big odds as "Book Company money was all on the other side," and your opponent "was being supported by these interests." I will remember your remark that you intended to show up this connection with a book concern later in the campaign. I do not recall that you mentioned Dr. Kelley's name; but you spoke of your opponent, and Dr. Kelley was your only opponent at that time, and is your only opponent now, so far as I know, thus I was led to believe that Dr. Kelley was the gentleman to whom you referred.

I am informed that you made similar statements to others in Miami, and hence, did not consider your remark in my office as confidential. Very truly yours, Editor and Manager, Miami Daily Metropolis. Injecting the book company question into this campaign. J. L. KELLEY. (Paid Advertisement.)

MONK COWL NEWEST IN VELS; IT'S JUST A WHIFF OVER LOWER PART OF THE FACE

If it's on the Map it's on the Bell System. These are the days when time is the all-important factor—when pressure of business puts a premium on dispatch. The man with the goods to buy, business tangles to unsnare, consults his Bell directory, calls the waiting operator and laughs at the limits of time and of distance. Bell long distance rates are surprisingly low. Try it today. Call Long Distance for rates.

There's nothing sadder or severer about a monk's cowl—not the kind of monk's cowl Miss Ethel Hill, society dancer, has introduced to fashion. The cowl is just a whiff of tulle caught to the bodice of the gown and gathered hood-fashion at the back of the head and around the lower part of the face where it forms an elusive mask.
