WAR COUNCIL OF RED CROSS NAMES DIV. INSPECTORS

The war council of the American Red Cross has named the following division inspectors: Mrs. Garry, division inspector of the east; Mrs. R. G. Strong, division inspector of the west; Miss M. S. Conant, division inspector of the south; and Miss A. M. J. Pool, division inspector of the north. These division inspectors are all successful business women or otherwise active women who have had foreign experience in nursing or similar work. They will at once begin to develop aplan for the working out of the various chapters in charge of a divisional director of the supply service.

Dr. Lichfield will be out of the city this week.
