BOLSHEVIKI CLEAN RUSS UP NOW, CLAIM

(N. E. A. Special.)
London, Feb. 12.—If the summarization by the New Statesman of conditions under Bolshevik rule is correct, the Bolshevik will enter the Princes' Island parley with an impressive record of accomplishment.

The New Statesman is a radical but highly respectable organ comparable to the Nation and the New Republic in America. It says:

"Order in Russia is more thoroughly established than at any time since the fall of the czarism, and food distribution is better organized than at any time during the whole war. Factories are restarting work so far as raw materials can be obtained. The management of factories by committees of employees failed and management by the Soviets (with consultative employees' committees for certain purposes) has been substituted.

"The Bolsheviks are, although they have been hampered by undesirable tools, cleaning the country of bribery and corruption. The terror has ceased and has been exaggerated. Had Lenin not been in bed with his wound there would have been no terror—at any rate, in Moscow. No execution has taken place in Moscow for two months. During the terror 400 executions took place there, of which over 50 per cent were of corrupt Soviet officials. Corruption is almost stamped out. Inefficiency is being remedied by recruitment among the educated classes.

"The Red army has become a disciplined force. Its numbers are not less than 600,000. It has rifles, machine guns, and cartridges in plenty, but not much artillery ammunition. "Many of the professional and petty bourgeoisie have gone over to the Bolsheviks. In the large towns the workmen are generally supporters of the Soviets. The peasants were for a long time hostile. But the formation of the 'poverty committees' which administer the affairs of every large village in the interests of the peasants has changed that."

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or Bladder troubles you.
Salts is fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—adv.

After-the-War Problems Affect Telephone Service

While the nation was under the stress incident to winning the war, we asked our subscribers and the public to be patient with the telephone service and to limit its use as much as practicable in order that we might handle the urgent business of the nation efficiently.

Now that the armistice has been signed and hostilities have ceased, we are confronted with problems of the reconstruction period, which are equally as serious and which will require time and patience for solution.

The policy of frankness which we have practiced prompts us to make it clear that the difficulties under which we are now operating are such that it will be many months before we can bring the service back to the standard of efficiency prevailing prior to the European war.

These difficulties are the same as those confronting other business enterprises. We outline them briefly so that you may understand why your service has not become normal overnight.

More than 850 of our most skilled, trained, technical men volunteered for service in the army and a large majority of them are still in Europe. Very few of them returned, and we cannot expect the balance to return soon. Few men of this type have been available and those we are training by no means equal our demand. This shortage of experienced technical men hampers our plans for extensions to plant and in turn delays installations.

Lacking the men we are also lacking the material needed to enlarge and extend our plants. True the government's demands have practically ceased, but equipment must first be engineered, then ordered and then manufactured before it can be installed. This involves time and if prompt delivery could be made many months would elapse before we could receive equipment for imperative needs. This is a situation confronting all telephone companies and one over which we have absolutely no control.

The abnormal increase in the volume of telephone calls due to war activities created a need for a greater number of operators and we have been diligently building up an enlarged operating force. Other industries were seeking girl and women workers and the inflated wages offered for emergency work attracted some of our operators and made it increasingly difficult to secure the required number of young women.

When this situation was very well in hand last fall the Influenza epidemic played havoc with our forces and our losses from illness and death are still alarming. As a result of this combination of circumstances, the percentage of new and inexperienced operators is large and there is now a serious shortage although our training schools are graduating large classes every month.

Although our service has suffered from these causes the public has been considerate and we have been able to handle a heavier traffic than seemed humanly possible and have installed promptly and operated efficiently the telephone plants required by the government at army camps and other similar institutions.

The situation confronting our service is more serious than it was when fighting was in progress. The public has relaxed from its tension and is inclined to expect our service to at once assume its pre-war efficiency. We deem it our duty to make this frank statement and urge you to continue the conservation of the service which proved so helpful during the time of our nation's greatest need.

We are operating the telephone system as agents for the federal government under the supervision of the Postmaster General, and our loyal organization is making a patriotic effort to perfect the service. Your continued co-operation and encouragement will be appreciated.

J. T. PEELE, District Manager.

Getting Rid of Colds.

The easiest and quickest way to get rid of a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This preparation has been in use for many years and its value fully proven. No matter what remedy you use, however, care must be taken not to contract a second cold before you have recovered from the first one, and there is serious danger of this. A man of middle age or older should go to bed and stay in bed until fully recovered. It is better to stay in bed three days at the start than three weeks later on.—adv.

Dreadful Cough Cured.
A severe cold is often followed by a rough cough for which Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven especially valuable. Mrs. F. W. Olsen, Marysville, Mo., writes: "About two years ago my little boy Jean caught a severe cold and coughed dreadfully for days. I tried a number of cough medicines but nothing did any good until I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It relieved his cough right away and before he had finished taking one bottle he was cured. I think it is just fine for children."—adv.
