ALLIES SEEK POSSESSION OF BIG BERTHAS

Colombia, Feb. 16.—The allies have taken steps to gain possession of one of the most famous guns which the Germans used to fire upon Paris. The international commission at Spa has made demands upon the German commission that a long range gun be included in the peace material, which the Germans are turning over to the allies.

All the German officials whom the American officials have questioned regarding the long range guns, have asserted that all the guns, who were assigned to the task of building the "Big Berthas" were sworn to secrecy and ever since the armistice was signed, little has been known regarding the monster weapons. Recent reports were to the effect that one of the "Big Berthas" had been dismantled in West Prussia, while another report from a discharged soldier, said that a long range cannon had been seen on railway cars near Essen.

Madge Kennedy Humor Abounds in "Day Dreams."

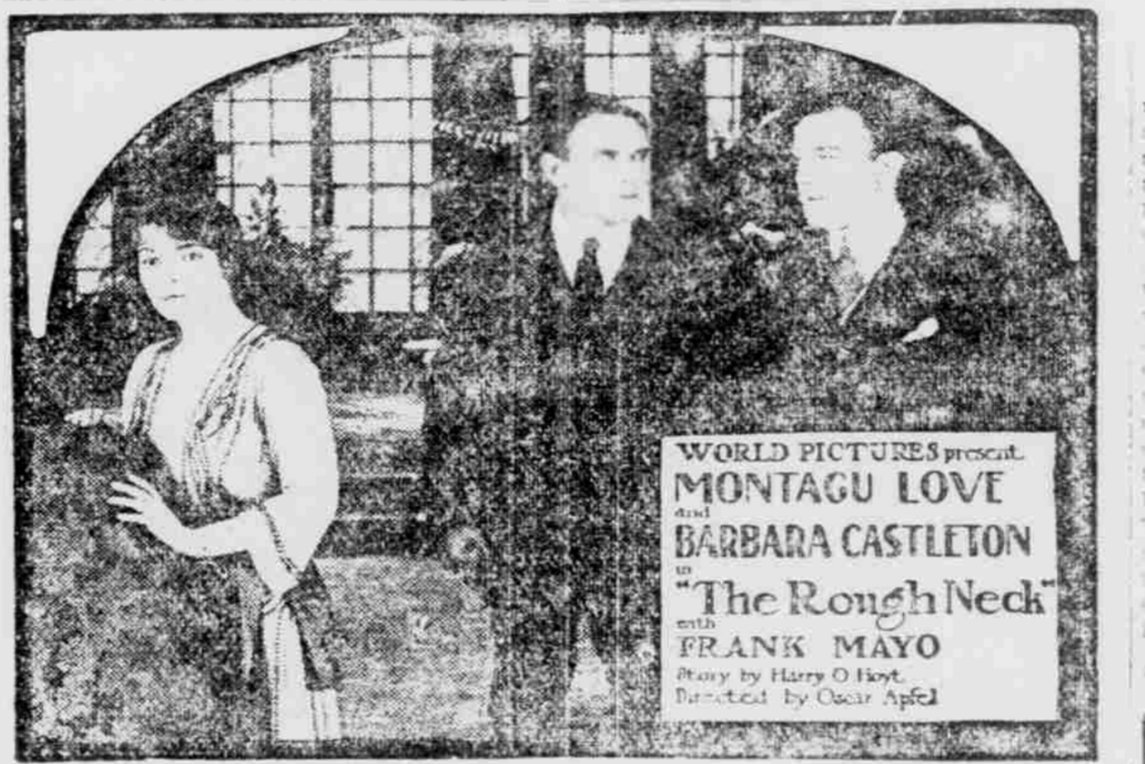

MADGE KENNEDY in DAY DREAMS Goldwyn Picture

Madge Kennedy, the irresistible artiste, comes to the Isis theatre today in her latest Goldwyn picture, "Day Dreams," by Cosmo Hamilton. Her thousands of local admirers are promised the pleasure of seeing her in situations different from any in which she has been introduced in previous Madge Kennedy successes.

She is Primrose, who dwells in a fairyland she has built for herself. Men of wealth, who seek her hand in marriage, are repulsed while she is in a similar situation.

Her head is filled with a picture of a woman who loves and who allows nothing to help her in her affections. What comes she for the conventional? Her love is idealistic, finding in the universe the only ones certain to have enjoyed seeing this star of stars in the game of love. Of course, the kiddies and some of the grown ups, as well as the thrilling social "The Lightning Rackets," featuring Miss Pearl White.
