DAILY THOUGHT.

It does not take a great deal of practice to be able to throw off any ordinary symptom of indisposition by holding firmly in the mind the opposite tho't, health and cheerfulness. Insist that you will not give up; that you will do your day's work to the best of your ability, and it is probable before the day is done you will feel better. This is not theoretical; it is scientific.

KEEP GOING.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox in The Nautilus.
Is the goal distant, and troubled the road,
And the way long?
And heavy your load?
Then gird up your courage and say,
"I'm strong",
And keep going.

Is the work weary and endless the grind,
And petty the pay?
Then brace up your mind
And say, "Something better is coming my way,"
And keep going.

Is the drink bitter life pours in your cup—
Is the taste gall?
Then smile and look up,
And say, "God is with me whatever befall,"
And keep trusting.

Is the heart heavy with hope long deferred?
And with prayers that seem vain?
Keep saying the word—
And that which you strive for you yet shall attain.
Keep praying.

PARENTS-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION CLUB ANNEX HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING.

With a large attendance of patrons and friends the last meeting for the year of the Parents-Teachers association of the Clubb Annex of which Mrs. N. D. Thomas is principal, held on Thursday afternoon was a most interesting and successful one.

A splendid literary program was rendered followed by a business session. A full report was made on the amount of money subscribed for the support of three French war orphans adopted by the school and for whom money to the amount of one hundred and two dollars was raised to continue their support for another year. For the past three weeks the teachers and pupils of the school have been very busy devising ways and means by which funds might be raised to continue the support of the orphans adopted by them and through soliciting subscriptions, and cake and candy sales have been eminently successful. They received donations of a gallon of cream each from two of the local ice cream dealers. An especially fine record in raising funds was made by one grade of the school and the pupils are exceedingly gratified with their splendid success.

A talk by County Superintendent A. S. Edwards on the needs for better and more adequate school buildings in the city was heard with great interest. He also spoke on other points of interest in connection with the school.

The following interesting literary program which was carried out was the most enjoyable feature of the afternoon.

- Song, "America."
- Reading of compositions by children of the Fifth Grade on the following subjects:
 - "French Orphans"—Mary Moore.
 - "The Late War"—Edwin Dillard.
 - "The Victory Loan"—Gale Whiting.
 - "Mothers Day"—Mary Chittenden, followed by song, "Mother."
 - "The Red Cross"—Marion Fleming.
 - A spelling test by four pupils of Grade Six.
 - Reading of Original Paragraphs.
 - "A Picture"—Carolyn Johnson.
 - "The Blimp"—William Carbine.
 - "Flowers"—Hilma Kahn.
 - "Washington"—Hilma Kahn.
 - "Woodrow Wilson"—Markaret Weekley.
 - Demonstration lessons in history by children of Fifth Grade.
 - Recitation, "Dates"—Marion Fleming.
 - Song.

"SPRING FESTIVAL" BEAUTIFUL AFFAIR ON EAST CAMPUS A. V. CLUBS SCHOOL.

A chorus, "Welcome Springtime," sung with spirit and enthusiasm by forty pupils of grade six was the opening number on the program of the beautiful "Spring Festival," given on the east campus of the A. V. Clubb's grammar school of which Miss Pauline Reese is principal, last Friday night. This was followed by a dance of the flower maidens by ten girls of grades seven and eight. The girls taking part with their graceful and airy movements and in frocks of dainty pink, blue and yellow organdie seemed more like fairies just from Flowerland, the elfin scene blending perfectly into the lovely woodland setting of stately southern pines outlined against the clear sky of a perfect spring night with a beautiful arrangements of shrubbery and flowers among which twinkled myriads of electric lights in circles. Two great pines guarded the stage opening and a trellis work of southern smilax on either side added greatly to the wonderful effectiveness of the scene.

Following the dance of the flower maidens a much enjoyed number on the program was the folk dance by twenty pupils of grade five. "The Pigeon House" was a beautifully executed motion song and "The Farmer" and "Auld Lang Syne," won heavy applause. "Swing Song" a chorus sung by thirty pupils of grade five was another lovely number on the program which was heartily applauded. A beautiful exhibition of rhythmic motion was "The Scarf Dance," by Mary Rogers Mitchell, the lovely and talented little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Mitchell. She was most picturesque in a fancy costume of blue with blue scarf. This was followed by more group dancing by the "Flower Maidens," and as a fitting close to the beautiful program, was a chorus, "Springtime," sung by thirty pupils of grade seven. Miss Vera Keller, music instructor in the school, under whose direction the festival was given, played the piano accompaniments for the evening assisted by Miss Johnson.

Delicious ice cream and candy was served from two beautifully flower-decked booths on the campus under great pine trees and softly lighted by Japanese lanterns. Presiding at the booth on the south campus was Miss Ruby Bell, Miss Ellen Kerle and Warren Connor. Miss Eria Williams, Miss Myrtle Williams and Idore Klitzko had charge of the booth on the north campus.

The festival was largely attended and a most artistic success in every way, and Miss Keller and the pupils taking part are to be highly congratulated.

More than a hundred pupils took part in the festival among whom were:

- From grade five: Mary Rogers Mitchell, Elizabeth Holzer, Hazel Stiles, Carl Daw, Louis Pericola, Eleanor Buck, Dorothy Ceruti, Flora Athey, Louise Harper, Lula Bell Abbott, Mildred Hatch, Aleene Hicks, Wilma Oppenborn, Mary Blitch, Wilmer Hoyt, Harry Hopper, R. LADIES CIRCLE EAST HILL BAPTIST CHURCH SEWS FOR CHILDREN AT PEARL EAGAN ORPHANS HOME
The ladies of the East Hill Sewing Circle of the East Hill Baptist church greatly assisted Mrs. Eldredge and added much to the pleasure and comfort of the children at the Pearl Eagan Orphans Home recently when they made a number of dresses, aprons, blouses and rompers for the children from goods which had been given them by friends.

The children are much in need of clothes for the coming months and as Mrs. Eldredge has very nearly all that she can do in the routine work of the home not much time is left for sewing. The ladies themselves furnished the buttons and any trimming for the garments and for their kindness Mrs. Eldredge and the children wish to express their sincere appreciation to the following members of the circle: Mesdames J. A. Daw, Simpson, Rose Wilson, Hendrix, Barker and W. Brown. Last week the children were delighted with a number of articles of wearing apparel and some of candy received through the aid of some absent friend. A pair of shoes were also a welcome gift from a thoughtful friend.
