CHERO COLA TO PLAY RAIL ROAD BUNCH TONIGHT

The Chero Cola team will play Mac Lewis' L. & N. Ship team in a regularly scheduled Twilight League game at 8:15 this evening.

The shop team is a hustling aggregation and once in a while the players are a little too insistent in making kicks.

The Chero Cola team has been practicing hard and Manager Arthur Olsen figures on taking today's game.

The fans are sure to turn out well as this is the last game of the week in the Twilight League.

The Journal's trophy, a handsome silver cup, has been ordered and will be on exhibition in a local jewelry store either the last of this week or early next.

Mayo got into hot water in the second inning, after Herring dropped Sanchez's long fly. Oliver struck out, but Merritt and R. Diaz drew passes to first, filling the bases.

In the fourth inning, the only run of the game made without the assistance of errors was registered, when Oliver got bumped by one of Mayo's fast ones, went to second on Merritt's single, and scored on R. Scarritt's single.

Richardson forced Roland at third, Carroll struck out, but Herring walked, filling the bases. Pritz spoiled a good chance however by fanning, ending the frame.

Besides the pitching of Bonifay and Mayo, another feature of the game was the good work of Richardson at third, Rouke and R. Diaz.

This was the first appearance of the new Shipyard team, and the crowd was agreeably surprised at their good showing.
