Dorothy Dalton's "Other Men's Wives"
Strong Photoplay.

A week-end party in the Adriatic with a hallowe'en party in an elaborate mountain lodge, a metropolitan jazz band and carnival trimmings supplied by the millionaire owner is the refreshing atmosphere given in Dorothy Dalton's latest photoplay, "Other Men's Wives," which comes to the Isis theatre as offering for tomorrow.

Miss Dalton is featured in a fascinating character. She is supported by an exceptionally strong cast including Forrest Stanley, H. H. Herbert, Dell Boone, Hal Clements and Elsie Larimer. It was directed by Victor L. Schertzinger under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince.

The plot is one that will interest women as it is based on a clash of women's emotions. One wife, tired of her husband and in love with another, manipulates through her lover to force another (played by Miss Dalton) to compromise the husband so she can get a divorce.

The husband wins the respect and admiration of the girl who is trying to work his undoing and there comes a terrific struggle between the two women.

Major Robert Warwick Scores Triumph in "Secret Service", At Isis.

Major Warwick, war hero, actor and motion picture star, scored a triumph in his first Paramount-Artcraft special picture, "Secret Service," a picture of William Gillette's famous stage success, which was presented at the Isis theatre before large and delighted audiences yesterday. The photoplay is a stirring one and was directed by Hugh Ford with excellent results.

The scenes of "Secret Service" are laid in Richmond, at the crucial time when the capital of the Southern Confederacy was seriously threatened by the Federal army. Two brothers, named Dumont, members of the United States secret service, have been detailed to secure control of the Richmond telegraph office. By sending a false dispatch to the general commanding the Confederate forces, ordering him to withdraw his forces from a certain point, the Union army is to break down and capture the city.

A beautiful romance is woven into the theme, presenting on the whole a fast-moving story with plenty of human touches to make it an admirable screen subject.

A notable cast appears in the photoplay, which is one of the most elaborate ever produced.

Sweet Dreams "A Godsend"

That's What a Big Banker Said About This Wonderful Mosquito Remedy.

We all know that bankers aren't given to idle talk and that their praises are few but forceful.

Pointing to a bottle of Sweet Dreams in a drug store at Montgomery, Ala., the president of one of the leading banks of that city said: "That mosquito remedy is a Godsend."

He knew for he had just returned from a vacation at a Gulf Coast resort where he had just given Sweet Dreams a most severe test.

And he said it was a "Godsend."

You can get a bottle just like the banker had. Sold by Balkcom Drug Co. and all druggists everywhere.—Adv.
