DAILY THOUGHT.

I would so live as if I knew that I received my being only for the benefit of others. —Seneca.

THE ISLE OF LONG AGO.

Oh, a wonderful stream is the River of Time.

As it flows thru the realm of tears, With a faultless rhythm and a musical rhyme,

And a broad'ning sweep and a surge sublime As it blends with the Ocean of Years.

How the winters are drifting like flakes of snow, With summers like buds between,

And the years in their sheaves—how they come and they go On the river's breast, with its ebb and its flow,

As it glides in the shadow and sheen! There's a magical isle up the River of Time,

Where the softest of airs are plying; There's a cloudless sky and a tropical clime,

There's a song as sweet as vesper's chime— And the Junos with the roses are straying.

And the name of the isle is the Long Ago.

And we bury our treasures there; There are brows of beauty and bosoms of snow;

There are heaps of dust!—Oh, we loved them so! There are trinkets and tresses of hair.

There's a fragment of song that nobody sings, And a part of an infant's prayer;

There's a lute unswung and sharp with-out strings, There were broken vows and pieces of rings,

And the fragrance she used to wear. There are hands that are waved when the fairy shore

By the mirage is lifted in air, And we sometimes hear thru the turbulent roar

Sweet voices he heard in the days gone before, When the wind down the river is fair.

Oh, remember for aye be that beautiful isle

All day of life until night, And when evening comes with her beautified smile,

And our eyes are closing to slumber awhile, May that "Greenwood" of souls be in sight!

—Benjamin F. Taylor.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF STANLEY-BEELAND ENGAGEMENT.

Friends of Miss Mary Beeland, of Greenville, Ala., are much interested in the announcement of her approaching marriage to Mr. John Glenn Stanley, which takes place on the afternoon of August 12th.

The following invitations have been received by Pensacola friends of the bride-elect:

Mr. and Mrs. William Jefferson Beeland invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter, Mary Louise, to Mr. John Glenn Stanley, on Tuesday afternoon, August twelfth, nineteen hundred and nineteen, at three o'clock, Methodist Episcopal church, Greenville, Alabama.

Miss Beeland has frequently visited in Pensacola as the guest of Miss Myrtle Rice and other friends, and has been very popular with the younger set in the city.

OLSEN-WAHLBERG.

Yesterday afternoon at three fifteen o'clock a wedding of interest took place when Miss Frances Sophia Victoria Wahlburg, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Wahlburg, became the bride of Mr. Herman Ferdinand Olsen, of Fort Worth, Texas. The double ring Swedish ceremony was performed in the presence of only immediate friends and relatives by Rev. C. F. Wahlburg, pastor of the Silver Hill Baptist church, of Alabama. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents on South Alcaniz street.

The bride was given away by her father and there were no attendants. She wore a Paris gown of white-silk batiste, beautifully embroidered and carried pink astors with fern.

The ceremony was performed in front of an improvised altar, palms ferns and potted plants having been arranged to effect an altar. The rooms were artistically decorated with ferns and cut flowers.

After the ceremony a five course dinner was served, place cards being attached to pink astors and placed beside the plates.

Mr. Olsen left with his bride on the six forty trains for St. Augustine, where they will spend two weeks. When they return they will make their home with the bride's parents. Miss Wahlburg's traveling suit was of dark blue serge.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Pastor and Mrs. Wahlburg and Mrs. Ed Feldt, of Silver Hill, Alabama.

Miss Wahlburg is president of the Business Woman's Club of Pensacola, is a member and at one time president of the B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church and is also a Sunday School teacher of that church. She has hosts of friends among social, business and church circles who will wish her a most happy married life.

Mr. Olsen was stationed for some time at the local naval air station, but since being mustered out has been employed with the Pensacola Shipbuilding company.

CANNING CENTER CLOSES THURSDAY.

The canning center at the Pensacola high school, in charge of Miss Grace Andrews, closes Thursday. The rooms open at 9 o'clock that morning and nothing will be received for canning after 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Tomorrow morning work begins at 8 o'clock and the rooms will be closed at 1:45 on account of the launching at the shipyard.

The canning center has been the scene of much activity during the season and quantities of material have been canned for future use. Fruits, meats, vegetables, soup mixtures, spaghetti, in short, anything that is cannable, has been canned and all of the work has been in complete charge of Miss Andrews, a young girl from Pleasant Grove, Fla., whose present enthusiasm for the work was fostered by Miss Lonnie Landrum, at one time county demonstrator for Escambia when Miss Andrews was a schoolgirl member of the Girls' Canning Club at Pleasant Grove.

Miss Andrews will be in the junior class of the Pensacola high school next year and after finishing high school hopes to be a county demonstration agent, and later go to college. If ambition, enthusiasm and determination have anything to do with it, indications are that she will excel in her chosen profession. Miss Andrews was assistant home demonstrator last year to Miss Helen Carter and to Mrs. J. W. Kehoe.

CHOIR REHEARSAL FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

The weekly choir rehearsal at the First Baptist church which was to have been held on Thursday evening, will be held Wednesday evening instead, at 7 o'clock, just preceding the prayer meeting. A full and prompt attendance is requested.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Doesn't hurt at all and costs only a few cents

Magie! Just drop a little Frezzone on that touchy corn, instantly it stops aching, then you lift the corn off with the fingers. Truly! No humbug! Try Frezzone! Your druggist sells a tiny bottle for a few cents, sufficient to rid your feet of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and calluses, without one particle of pain, soreness or irritation. Frezzone is the discovery of a noted Cincinnati genius.

FIVE HUNDRED CLUB HAS MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR MRS. BRAZIL.

Mrs. Howell Brazil (Mrs. C. B. Lewis) a recent bride and a charter member of the Five Hundred Club which plays for the benefit of the Old woman's Home, was the honoree when the club members entertained with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. C. E. Driver, 1109 North Ninth avenue, yesterday afternoon. The shower followed a short business meeting of the club and Mrs. Brazil was completely surprised when Mrs. Driver entered with a wash basket saying that evidently the washwoman had made a mistake in delivering her clothes. Upon investigation the basket was found to contain an assortment of lovely and useful articles of various kinds, which were taken out of the basket by Mrs. Driver and presented to the honoree. A delightful social afternoon was enjoyed and a dainty ice course and punch were served. Mrs. Frank L. Mayes dispensed the punch from a large cut glass bowl placed in a mass of yellow blooms. Mrs. Driver was assisted in serving by Mrs. Edwin King, Mrs. Roy Jones and Mrs. Leslie Smith, of Gull Point.

Great baskets of flowers and ferns added to the attractiveness of the galleries and a profusion of summer flowers and ferns converted the rooms into a near-flower garden. The color motif of yellow was effectively carried out in the dining room with flowers and ferns.

Included among the guests were the honoree, Mrs. Howell Brazil, her sister, Miss Laura Emyart, of Brenham, Texas; Mrs. Dick Carroll, Mrs. Frank L. Mayes, Mrs. Lemuel Colson, Mrs. Chas. Cottrell, Mrs. J. G. Jorner, Mrs. Wade Morgan, Mrs. Ernest Lusk, Mrs. Ed. Gale Quina, Mrs. Van Ausdale, Mrs. Frank Welles, Miss Blanche White, Mrs. Chas. A. Born, Mrs. Walter Bogart, Miss Occie Clubbs, Mrs. Edwin King, Mrs. Roy Jones, Mrs. Leslie Smith, of Gull Point; and the hostess, Mrs. C. E. Driver.

After the ceremony a five course dinner was served, place cards being attached to pink astors and placed beside the plates.

Miss Kelly Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Newark, N. J.—"For about three years I suffered from nervous breakdown and got so weak I could hardly stand, and had headaches every day. I tried everything I could think of and was under a physician's care two years. A girl friend had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and she told me about it. From the first day I took it I began to feel better and now I am well and able to do most any kind of work. I have been recommending the Compound ever since and give you my permission to publish this letter." Miss FLO KELLY 476 So. 14th St., Newark, N. J.
