Pou, and George H. Hinrichs, Commissioners of the City of Pensacola, commanding them as the Board of Commissioners of the City of Pensacola, Florida, forthwith to call a special election of the qualified voters of said city, at which the following proposition shall be submitted: Shall the City of Pensacola abandon its organization under the provisions of law, providing a commission form of government and assume its former aldermanic form of government? And to take all the necessary steps for the holding of an election in accordance with law, and for such other and further relief as may seem just and proper;

Now, therefore, we being willing that full and speedy justice be done in the premises do command you Frank D. Sanders, Frank R. Pou and George H. Hinrichs, Commissioners of the City of Pensacola, as the Board of Commissioners of the City of Pensacola, forthwith to call a special election of the qualified voters of said City of Pensacola at which the following proposition shall be submitted: Shall the said City of Pensacola abandon its organization under the provisions of law providing a commission form of government? and to take all necessary steps for the holding of said election in accordance with law or that you shall show cause why you have not done so before our Circuit Court in and for Escambia County, State of Florida, in DeFuniak Springs, Florida, at 11 o'clock a. m., on the 19th day of November, A. D. 1919, and have you then and there this writ.

under and in accordance with the said law. That in and by Section 40 of said Chapter 6746 of the Laws of Florida it is provided that "After the city has operated for more than six years under the provisions of this act, it may abandon such organization hereunder and resume its former government by proceeding as follows: Upon the petition of a number of qualified voters within said city equal to, or exceeding, twenty per cent of the qualified voters at the last general city election, a special election shall be called by the board of Commissioners at which the following proposition shall be submitted:

"Shall the City of Pensacola abandon its organization under the provisions of law providing a commission form of government, and assume its former aldermanic form of government?"

That in the months of September, A. D. 1919 the relators herein, and other citizens of the said City of Pensacola being desirous of changing the form of government of said city as in said Section 40 of said Chapter 6746 provided, the relators who then were and now are qualified voters within said city and seven hundred and twenty-three other then and now qualified voters within said city, which said number exceeded twenty per cent of the qualified voters at the last preceding general election in said city, to-wit: The election held therein for the election of a Commissioner on the 2nd day of June, A. D. 1919, at which election the number of qualified voters was three thousand five hundred and twenty-seven, duly signed a petition for a special election to be called by the Board of Commissioners of said city as provided in said Section 40 as aforesaid, which said petition contained the name of each of said petitioners thereon, his residence address; that on the 31st day of July, A. D. 1919 the said petition was duly filed with James Macgibbon, who then was and now is the duly elected, qualified and acting Clerk of the Circuit Court of Escambia County, Florida, who thereupon examined into the qualifications of the signers of said petition, and ascertained that it contained the requisite number of qualified electors to call said election, and thereupon on the 28 day of October, A. D. 1919, certified said fact to the Board of Commissioners of said City of Pensacola, a copy of which certificate is hereto attached, marked "A" and made a part hereof.

That it thereupon became and was the duty of these respondents who as aforesaid constituted said Board of Commissioners of the City of Pensacola, to proceed as provided for in said Section 40 of said Chapter 6746 of the Laws of Florida, but they have failed and refused and still fail and refuse so to do for the alleged reason that the provision of said section 40 of said act of the legislature of this state are not recognized by them as being in force and effect.

The premises considered your relators pray that this Honorable Court will grant a writ of mandamus directed to said Frank D. Sanders, Frank R. Pou, and George H. Hinrichs, as said Board of Commissioners of the City of Pensacola, Florida, commanding them as such Board to call a special election of the qualified voters of said city at which the following proposition shall be submitted: Shall the City of Pensacola abandon its organization under the provisions of law providing a Commission form of government, and assume its former aldermanic form of government? and to take all necessary steps for the holding of said election in accordance with law; and to grant such other and further relief as may seem just and proper; and as in duty bound they will ever pray, etc. J. HERRON D'ALEMBERTE, DUDLEY R. SAUNDERS, WILL L. MOYER, E. C. Maxwell, Sullivan & Sullivan, attorneys for petitioners.

A ROMANCE OF INDUSTRY. The new plant of the Pensacola Chero-Cola Company will be opened to the public on Tuesday, and the growth of the parent company and the magnitude of the enterprise is clearly indicated in this edition of The Journal, which presents not only the history of Chero-Cola and its wonderful development, in the printed word, but in the views of the great industry, clearly shows how the company has expanded since Chero-Cola originated in Columbus, Ga. Much of the success of this splendid ten-page section is due to the enterprise of Thomas L. Hackett, of Columbus, publicity director of the Chero-Cola Company.

creased pay would come soon and remove their desire to leave the service. The officers cannot force acceptance of the resignations.

Many of the resignations are those of young officers, graduates of Annapolis, who have served their required eight years, and find it impossible to support a family properly on the navy pay.

The warrant and petty officers of the navy, who are the real backbone of the service, are the real backbone numbers to take positions ashore at their trades of electricians, engineers, machinists, etc., at three and four times the pay given by the navy.

The navy pay increase bill now under consideration will probably be reported favorably to the house next week if congress is still in session, or early in December if adjournment is taken soon. The bill is certain to get prompt consideration in both the senate and house at the December session in order to extend relief to the navy men as soon as possible.

The increased pay will be only for the present fiscal year which ends July 1, 1919. The increases will probably be repeated next year if living conditions do not materially decline before next July.

"The morale of the navy is going to crack unless relief is had and had soon," said Rear Admiral Cowie, appearing before the house naval committee. "The officers and men are up against it—conditions are getting unbearable." The admiral's solemn warning aroused deep concern among the committee members.

"It seems to me," continued Admiral Cowie, "that the proposed increase of only 30 per cent for the officers and 50 per cent for the men should appeal to you gentlemen as being so reasonable and considerate of the country's resources as to command your instant approval. The case needs no argument. The high cost of living is a disagreeable factor, and it is a fact you face, not a theory. "Other nations are watching conditions in our armed services—I am telling no secret in this, and when morale cracks it spells demoralization. I give you my word that, hard pressed as the officers and men are today, personal considerations are not their main motive in asking for pay increases. They need it—God knows—but what moves them principally is the love of the service and of the country—they know what the navy means to the country, and they want to preserve the navy intact, its initiative high, its morale unimpaired, ready to meet any condition.

GO TO CHURCH There will be an all day service at Union Hall Church, Myrtle Grove, November 30th. Everybody is invited and all members living in Pensacola are especially invited, as that is the day for the Seventy-five Million Campaign. "And the condition of world affairs now is such that absolutely no chance should be taken of our navy becoming demoralized, and hence inefficient. The navy is the country's first line of defense; and as professional men, thoroughly aware of all conditions, they know it to the heart. This matter of a pay increase is just a plain business proposition, one in which the whole country is interested. It is simply a matter of ordinary business prudence." Admiral Cowie showed that the dollar of 1908, when the navy officers had their last increase, is in purchasing power equal to only 48 cents today. "No increase in pay," said he, "has been granted since 1908, and the naval affairs committee with its knowledge of the unprecedented great increase in living costs now prevailing and affecting the necessities of life, is bound to be aware of the serious disadvantages, the really heart-touching burdens, under which both the officers and men are laboring in vainly trying to take care of their families in 1919, on the basis of salaries established back in 1908.
