CONFIRMATION SALE POSTPONED

Confirmation of the sale of the G. F. & A. R. R. has been postponed to Feb. 14, 1920 by the United States District court here. Judge Sheppard granted this continuance after the consent of the bond-holders and other parties interested had been obtained.

The unsettled industrial conditions, particularly the recent coal strike made a continuance of the confirmation of the sale necessary. John T. Steele, receiver of the railroad and I. L. Lewis, attorney for the stock-holders who were here in the interest of the confirmation have returned to New York.
