$2,000,000 a month covering a period of four months. In January, 1921, $884,893.75 was paid out in addition to the $8,000,000 paid in 1920. This last sum was also paid to cover claims for traffic handled within the six months period.

Mr. Benson explained that claims paid under loss and damage accounts included expenses incurred through loss, damage and destruction. "The loss and damage was incurred through goods stolen," Mr. Benson said in answer to Mr. Powers' question on the matter.

Wallace Miller, attorney for the defense, conducted the cross-examination for the defense. He asked Mr. Benson the deficit from operation during the six months.

"The total deficit was $30,833,899.90," Mr. Benson answered. "The gross receipts for the same period were $62,772,560.65."

The story of how one customer of the alleged conspirators wanted a small pig for roasting and how, after several days of waiting, the train finally brought in a big hog, was told.

"Take it along; same price," the customer was told, according to Brinson, when he objected to the size.

Then Brinson told how another customer wanted a girl's bicycle and, after waiting 10 days without getting one on his own run, he says he stole one from another messenger's truck and made the delivery. As he was telling the story a deputy United States marshal rolled the bicycle into the court room.

"I talked often with E. E. Dunaway at Oglethorpe with reference to stolen property," Brinson said. "Once I left two suits of clothes with the express tags on them at Dunaway's and the next time I saw him he said, 'They fit pretty well.' Another time I left with Dunaway a dozen overalls, a package of pants and a package of shirts. I left them for him to sell for me."

"Once I put off some cans as his wife was doing some preserving. I didn't know whether he would need them or not. I told him to use them if he needed them, but if he did not to put them on some other train and let 'em go."

"Will Hackney came into my car at Marshallville on one trip and asked me if I had anything to sell," Brinson continued. "He said he was just opening a store in Alabama, and would pay me full value for any foodstuff I would ship him. He asked me another time for a raincoat, but I didn't have one."

Matamoros will be the first Mexican city visited.

Back Feel Lame, Sore and Achy? Are you lame every morning? Do you drag through the day with a steady nagging backache—evening find you "all played out"? Probably your kidneys are to blame. Hurry, worry, lack of rest and a heavy diet, all tend to weaken the kidneys. You back gives out; you feel depressed and suffer headaches, dizziness and kidney irregularities. Don't go from bad to worse. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Home folks recommend them. Ask your neighbor.

Here's a Pensacola Case. W. G. Farber, port Porter's Bazaar, 117 Palafox St., says: "I used to suffer considerably with my back. The lumbar muscles of my back were lame and sore and sharp pains would often catch me across the small of my back. My kidneys were in a bad state, too. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved this trouble, putting my kidneys in good condition again."

BROOKLYN BRIDGE SCENE OF SUICIDE

Man, Evidently a Foreigner, Takes Leap from Bridge Made Famous by Brodie.

(By The Associated Press.) NEW YORK, March 15.—A man, apparently 50 years old, today jumped off the Brooklyn bridge and was killed on striking the water. His body was recovered.

Seeing the body of the man fall with outstretched arms, the captain of a tugboat headed toward it. The body splashed into the water only a few feet from the craft and it was towed ashore.

An envelope in the man's pocket bore the name "Trachyok," and the address was "434 E. Seventieth-st, New York." The Christian name had been torn off the envelope. The envelope was postmarked "New Orleans, Oct. 7, 5 p. m."

The captain of the tugboat, a government craft, explained he did not have the body taken aboard because it was against the regulations to take aboard a floating body. He said he had no doubt the man was dead, because a lighter had passed over the spot where the body came up.

The man had only four nickels in his pockets. Jumping from Brooklyn bridge, made famous by Steve Brodie's spectacular leap for fame, had been attempted many times by those who sought either notoriety or death. Brodie was the first to leap into the East river from the bridge and escape with his life, but others also have done so. Several, however, have been killed in attempting to duplicate Brodie's feat.

DID NOT INTEND TO SHOOT HAMON

having snatched her into a chair beside him accused her of having been automobile riding with some one.

With the words, "Clara, you've hit me," which she said he exclaimed when she shot him the young woman came nearest to a breakdown. She said that Hamon threw back his vest and showed her a widening spot of blood on his right chest.

She said that on the morning after Hamon was shot he sent her to come to the hospital, to which he walked after being wounded. On her arrival there she found him in a room and she said that he hoped she had not been hurt during the fight and that it would not have happened had he not been drinking.

Twice during her story on the witness stand, the young woman stepped down from the data and with the automatic pistol which Hamon was shot in her hand, walked before the jury to show in what manner he had been wounded. On cross-examination, Attorney General Freeling a man of approximately the same build as Hamon, had for point the witness stand, she assumed the position she said Hamon was in.

When on direct examination she dropped the pistol to indicate how it had fallen from her hand when the chair hit it, the noise reverberated through the packed court room, so silent and intent on her words had the spectators become.

Only a short time before Clara Hamon went to the witness stand, she had been led from the room almost in a condition of collapse.

Father Wanted to Kill Hamon. Mrs. V. B. Walling, sister of the defendant, had testified that for a long while she had not known of the illicit relations between her sister and Hamon, but that when her father, J. L. Smith, of El Paso, Texas, learned of them he came to America and was arrested. He was disarmed by the sheriff. The state objected and was sustained, and V. P. McLean, of Fort Worth, Texas, leading counsel for the defense, insisted the question was proper and that how the entire family accepted the matter should be brought out.

H. H. Brown, special prosecutor, instructed the jury to know who they took it, the old woman and all.

Mr. McLean was on his feet instantly and asserted that Mrs. Smith, who had been referred to as "the old woman," was the equal, in his estimation of the mother of any lawyer in the trial.

A roar of handclapping greeted his words. The court was thrown into a turore and was adjourned one hour. The spectators were warned the case would be tried without their presence, should another demonstration take place. Clara Hamon said:

"I don't care what they do with me, but they must let my poor old mother alone."

Breast and Hands Were Bruised. Mrs. Walling and her 14-year-old daughter, Phyllis, testified that on the morning after Hamon was shot, Clara Hamon came to their home at Wilson, 18 miles west of here, to bid them good bye before she left Ardmore on instructions of Hamon and his business manager, Frank L. Ketch, and that her throat, breast and hands bore bruises.

Mrs. Smith testified that her daughter came to her four days later at El Paso, Texas on her flight into Chihuahua, Mexico. The bruises still remained. Mrs. Smith testified that Clara is 29 years of age, as the defendant herself did a few minutes later.

That had been one of the state's chief points of contention, it being sought to prove that she was a mature woman when she took up her acquaintance ten years ago with Colonel Hamon.

SEARCHING FOR ROBBER. (By The Associated Press.) CHICAGO, March 15.—Police and private detectives today were searching for a nurse who is charged with attacking Mrs. Caroline Griswood, of New Orleans, a patient in a hospital here, and robbing her of jewelry and money which the police valued at $15,000, but which hospital authorities said amounted to only $1,500.

WILL CARRY FIGHT TO LABOR BOARD

Railroad Workers Decide to Reject All Proposals and Await Results.

(By The Associated Press.) NEW YORK, March 15.—Railroad workers in the east have decided to reject all proposals of wage reductions and carry their fight to the railroad labor board, if the cuts are put into effect.

Representatives of the workers who have been holding conferences here, it was definitely learned tonight, have decided upon this course, taking the position that the present wage standard must be maintained and economic conditions will not permit any reduction.

There is little danger of any cessation of work should the railroads put the reductions in force, union officials said, as the employees will appeal to the railroad labor board at Chicago and abide by its decision. The railroad managements, it is understood, will also obey the board's edict.

The position of the workers was officially made clear today when representatives of the unskilled men notified the management of the New York Central railroad that they flatly refused to consider proposed wage cuts of from 17-1/2 to 21 per cent as "we find that those employees today are not receiving sufficient income to maintain their families properly."

Representatives of the skilled workers of the New York Central, with the exception of those in the "big four" brotherhoods, it was learned, have decided to reject proposed wage cuts. Altogether approximately 70,000 employees of the Central lines have decided to oppose any reduction. After receiving proposals for wage reductions for unskilled labor, ranging from 7 to 18 1/2 cents per hour, effective April 15, from the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railway, labor representatives in conference here, it was learned, practically decided to reject this offer.

They will make their final answer at another conference called for March 23. Union leaders declared tonight that if the New York Central put the proposed decreases into effect April 1, without getting permission from the labor board, it would be a violation of the transportation act. Railroad officials said that board would be requested immediately to authorize the reductions.

BLAMES ARREST TO HIS LANDLADY

(By The Associated Press.) MADRID, March 15.—Police officers who searched Pedro Mateo, the young anarchist who yesterday confessed that he was one of the assassins of Premier Dato, found a list of the names of prominent Spaniards and they believed the persons named had been marked for death by the anarchists.

In his confession Mateo said he bought the motorcycle in which the assassins were riding at Barcelona. He went to Saragossa by train and from that city rode the train to Madrid. He blamed his landlady for betraying him to the police, saying "You had better pay her the money she has earned in denouncing me for possibly she will not live long to enjoy it."

INCREASE IN EXPORTS OF GULF PORTS

67,161,000 feet in 1919 to 31,769,000 feet in 1920, while pine shipments increased from 69,212,000 to 98,850,000, corresponding to the increase from other gulf ports.

Cypress and all other woods showed decreases while gains were made over the previous year in fir, redwood and spruce. Timbers showed a falling off. Exports of staves were fairly well up to normal proportions.

Exports of naval stores show decreases over 1919. One of the important features of the statistics show the large diversion of naval stores shipments to southern ports. From all ports in the United States those on the gulf shipped $58,425 barrels of 230 pounds out of a total of 1,180,385 barrels. Total shipments decreased 49,242 barrels. Gulf ports shipped 6,007,387 of the 9,182,607 gallons of turpentine exported in 1920. Total exports of turpentine decreased 1,509,409 barrels.

of forgery. The name of Chambers was brought into the proceedings several times during the past week, when handwriting experts testified that he was the writer of the signature on a warrant which was said to have been taken out of the pocket of Albert C. Felts, one of the victims of the battle.

Both sides of the lengthy trial are anxious to begin their arguments to the jury tomorrow. In this connection, Judge Bailey made announcement that he will give each side 10 hours for summing up.

INCOME TAXES ARE PILING UP

reported individual incomes due to "playing the ponies" and "bridge parties." One man confined in the Tombs prison sent in a request for a 30 days time extension, explaining that he was "temporarily detained." Several waiters reported tips approaching $1,000. No totals or approximations of the amount received by the government through the income tax returns completed today were issued.

TO LEAVE CASE IN HANDS OF GOMPERS

Efforts to Be Made by Meat Cutters to Have Him Become One of Labor's Representatives.

(By The Associated Press.) CHICAGO, March 15.—Stockyards workers affected by the recent wage reduction announced by the big five packers plan to place their case entirely in the hands of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, it was said today by officials of the Amalgamated Order of Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America.

Efforts will be made to induce Mr. Gompers to become one of the two labor representatives to attend the mediation conference with Secretary Davis. If he accepts, the policy of the workers at the conference and afterwards will be placed in his hands.

If Mr. Gompers does not accept, Redmond Brennan, of Kansas City, attorney for the Stockyards Union, probably will be chosen, it was said. Dennis Lane, secretary of the union, is expected to be the other delegate.

PRODUCTION TO BE CURTAILED

(By The Associated Press.) CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 15.—Further drastic curtailment in production by the southern soft and hard yarn spinning mills generally in the early future was predicted today by Robert Chapman, of Cheraw, S. C., president of the Southern Consolidated Yarn Spinners' association, following a meeting here of the executive committee of the organization.

Summarizing the present situation, Mr. Chapman declared that the yarn spinners realize that curtailment of production is inevitable "unless there is a radical change in the market conditions and that is not an immediate prospect."

Most of the mills are now running three and four days a week, a small number are completely idle, while another small number are running full time, "practically all of them on hopes, with very few sales," said Mr. Chapman, adding that all night work has been eliminated long since.

The situation outlined, Mr. Chapman explained, is the basis of his prediction of more drastic curtailment of production in the near future.

FEDERAL JUDGE IS DISQUALIFIED

(By The Associated Press.) ST. LOUIS, March 15.—Federal Judge Paris late today disqualified himself from presiding in the injunction suit of the government to dissolve the Southern Pine association.

The judge's action caused arguments in the suit, scheduled to be heard today to be deferred until the case is assigned to another judge. The judge disqualified himself on motion of the defense, because in 1913, while a member of the state supreme court he wrote the opinion holding that the Southern Pine Manufacturers' association "had violated the Missouri anti-trust law."

JAPANESE TO PURCHASE AIRPLANES IN EUROPE

(By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, March 15.—Embarkation by Japan on an elaborate program of naval aviation is to be expected in the opinion of officials here by the recent activity of the Japanese government in the purchase of airplanes in Europe and in the endeavor to enlist the expert advice of British naval flyers.

Until quite recently, statistics show Japan had made little or no provision for naval aviation but advice received today in official circles declares there has been unusual activity in that branch of national defense on the part of the Japanese government.

Disappointed at the failure of the British naval air mission to send to Japan this year at the request of the Japanese government 30 officers and men to give expert instruction in naval flying, the Japanese government has obtained instead a private mission of 20 ex-naval flying officers and men from the Vickers company in Great Britain, according to the reports.

The Japanese government, according to the same reports, has ordered recently from France, airplane equipment as follows:

Three six-passenger span type; 50 Frequet type equipped for day bombardment; 10 Niouport type double command, and 20 of the similar type with single command.

(By The Associated Press.) DUBLIN, March 15.—There was an attack today on two military motorcyclists in the Dolphin's Barn district of Dublin. One of the riders was shot dead and the other was shot in the lung, receiving injuries which, it is believed, will prove fatal.

In an attack on military dispatch riders crossing Rialto bridge, Dublin, a soldier was wounded.

OKMULGEE, Okla., March 15.—Announcement was made today that the Okmulgee Times and Okmulgee Democrat, morning and afternoon newspapers under the same management, which suspended publication a week ago because of a strike of printers, had signed new contracts with the typographical union and would resume publication immediately.

ORGANIZE NATIONAL AMERICAN COUNCIL

(By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, March 15.—Representatives of nearly 80 civic and patriotic organizations engaged in Americanization work meeting here today organized the National American Council. The objects of the new organization were declared to be the coordination of the work and plans of the various organizations engaged in patriotic and civic activities, the obtaining of the cooperation of the public, elimination of duplication and waste, and minimization of financial appeals for support. The constitution adopted by the council limits the activities of the organization to the promotion of education for patriotism and good citizenship, and specifically forbids it entering economic, industrial, sectarian or partisan political fields.

Dr. David Jayne Hill, former ambassador to Germany, in taking the chair as permanent presiding officer of the conference, said those engaged in the Americanization work must confine their efforts to the United States and have nothing to do with foreign governments.

A united effort is necessary to see that hyphenated Americanism doesn't raise its head once more, asserted H. J. Ryan, chairman of the Americanization commission of the American Legion. Col. H. L. Livingston, president of the Boy Scouts, told the conference that foreigners must be prevented "from using us as battle grounds" for their interests, otherwise "we are liable to disintegrate into groups fighting for foreign governments." The object of Americanization he added, should be "to make Americans in love with their own country."

URGES KANSAS GOVERNOR TO MAKE INVESTIGATION

(By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, March 15.—Governor Allen, of Kansas, was urged today in a telegram by Senator Ladd and Representative Sinclair, of North Dakota, to investigate mob attacks on non-partisan league organizers at Great Bend, and to clear up charges that members of the American legion were involved. Senator Ladd said at Fargo, but Mr. Sinclair explained that he had telegraphed permission to sign his name to the protest. "Knowing your sense of fairness and in view of the wide publicity given the mobbing of two non-partisan league organizers at Great Bend," the message said, "we respectfully request that you promptly start investigation of the lawless action in your state by alleged members of the American legion and others opposing the farmers' movement. Such action reflects seriously not only upon your state but upon the nation for its unconstitutional, un-American, unjustifiable and cowardly invasion of the rights of free men. We further suggest that you ask the cooperation of the commander of the American legion in clearing said organization of the nationwide charges that it was involved in the recent Kansas outrages."

ANGLO-RUSSIAN TRADE AGREEMENT TO BE SIGNED

(By The Associated Press.) LONDON, March 15.—The Anglo-Russian trade agreement will be signed tomorrow, according to present expectations. The negotiations between Lord Krassin, the Russian representative, and the board of trade have resulted in the reframing of the clauses in a manner acceptable to the British government. The main principle is said to be that Russia undertakes to cease all propaganda outside of Russia, while England undertakes to observe neutrality in Russian internal affairs.

PACKING HOUSE EMPLOYEES WILL MEET IN CHICAGO TODAY

(By The Associated Press.) CHICAGO, March 15.—Representatives of employees in the packing industry from all parts of the country will meet in Chicago tomorrow to plan for united action against the reduction in wages and readjustment of working hours, which was put into effect Monday. The American Federation of Labor will be represented by Thomas Rickert, vice-president. While strike votes are being taken in various parts of the country today, employees of Armour & Co. took the first step to put into effect the plan for an industrial democracy recently announced by the company by electing 24 of their fellow employees to act as a committee in carrying out further details of the conference plan.
