Big Circus at Valdosta.

The Barnum & Bailey greatest show on earth is to visit Valdosta on Saturday, November 6th. Never since the beginning of time has an amusement enterprise so tremendous in size been organized as this one. Its magnitude is almost beyond belief. All America, together with every foreign country, has been secured from end to end by agents of this big show in search of novelties and the result is a performance brim full of sensational acts new to the circus world. In the big Barnum & Bailey show are nearly 400 arenic stars, most of whom are seen now for the first time. A new sensation will be seen at every performance in "JUPITER, the balloon horse." This remarkable animal with its fearless rider ascends to the dome of the circus tent in a balloon and descends to the ground in a shower of fireworks. Nearly 1000 animal wonders are to be found in the big 108 cage menagerie, 8 herds of elephants, including one herd that actually plays upon musical instruments in time and tune. A group of giant giraffes, monster trained hippopotamus, only living bi-horned rhinoceros and hundreds of other strange beasts. Barnum & Bailey's big, new, free street parade is the most gorgeous processional display ever attempted in the history of circus business. Its tremendous size and wonderful length can only be believed in the actual seeing. It is natural to expect this big circus to lead all others in quality and quantity of its streets spectacle as well as in other departments of the big show, yet never in its splendid history of nearly half a century has it displayed such extravagance as is shown this year.

Wattles' Claim Again.

The famous claim of Sydney J. Wattles against the state of Florida, that has for so many sessions of the Legislature consumed a valuable amount of that body's time, was brought before the public in a new way when a bill of complaint was filed in the circuit court of the United States in and for the northern district of Florida at Pensacola. The bill is brought from the firm of Barra, Odom and Browder, Jacksonville, and is directed against Albert W. Gilchrist governor of the state of Florida, A. C. Croom, comptroller of the state of Florida, M. V. Knott, treasurer of the State of Florida, Park Trammell, Attorney general of the state of Florida, and B. E. McLin, commissioner of agriculture of the state of Florida, as trustees of the internal improvement fund, defendants.—Pensacola News.

Census Report on Cotton.

Washington, Monday.—The census report shows five million, five hundred and twenty-five thousand, five hundred and ninety-one bales, counting round bales as half ginned, from the growth of 1909 to October 18th, as compared with six million two hundred and ninety-six thousand and one hundred and sixty-six of the same period last year. Sea Island cotton, thirty-six thousand three hundred and thirty as against thirty-two thousand and thirteen of the same period last year.

BIG DEAL IN COTTON.

Farmers' Union Disposes of Cotton at Moderate Price.

Twenty Four Cents a Pound, Regard less of Quality. Was the Price Paid by Savannah Firm.

One of the largest and most important cotton sales recorded in Alachua county for the season transpired at Alachua two or three days ago, when the Farmers' Union sold to Savannah parties about four hundred bales of the fleecy staple at a flat price of 24 cents a pound.

With an average weight of 390 pounds to the bale, it will readily be seen that this sale aggregated a considerable sum—probably $38,000—which was paid promptly by the buyers, and which naturally meant a big thing for the grower and the merchant alike, and the result is that the commercial interests of Alachua have been lively since the sale was consummated.

The growers who hold membership in the Farmers' Union have been holding their cotton, through an understanding and agreement, for better prices, and they were finally rewarded. There were three bidders from the Savannah market, and for a while bidding was lively, but the staple was finally knocked down in a "ump" at 24 cents, regardless of quality.

It was at first agreed to sell five hundred bales, but several of the growers are said to have "kicked out" on account of price, hence the sale fell about one hundred bales short.

While there have been several chances of consequence in Alachua this season, this was the first sale by members of the Farmers' Union, and the only one of such immense proportions, which is probably the most important sale of the season in the Sea Island cotton belt.—Gainesville Sun.

"Valloga" Is the Name.

Messrs. H. C. Briggs, A. E. Dimmock and W. D. Dunaway, the committee to select the name for the leading cigar to be manufactured by Mr. Byrd Belote's new factory in this city, this morning decided on "Valloga" as the most appropriate name submitted. The name is an abbreviated combination of Valdosta, Lowndes Co., Ga., and was furnished by Mr. L. M. Marshall.

Mr. Belote recently offered through the columns of The Times 100 fine cigars for the most acceptable name for his leading brand, and a large number of names was submitted. There were many good ones and the committee devoted considerable time to the selection from the long list sent in.—Valdosta Times.

We are glad to learn from the foregoing that our former fellow-townsman did not move to the far distant State of Pennsylvania but concluded to enter business nearer home, and we wish him success.

Grand Military Carnival.

With the date for the above only a little over a month away, those who contemplate taking in Jacksonville's greatest event in the fun-making line, are assured of complete satisfaction—so thorough and comprehensive have been the arrangements for the various events and parades that everyone will be satisfied. Director DaCosta has been tireless in his endeavors to present only the most enjoyable and attractive features, and to secure only the newest and most novel for this occasion.

Already the greatest interest is evinced in the Grand Coronation of King Carnival III and the subsequent ball at the Windsor. The presence of the fleet of torpedo boats and troops of cavalry will greatly interest the majority of those attending. The various committees in charge of special features and parades have carried forward to completion as far as possible those matters—notably the Floral and Fantastical Parades—and suffice it to say never has anything been offered to the visiting crowd than the results promised next month. All that hard work and money can secure will result in a thorough and satisfactory jollification.

Imperfect Digestion.

Meanless nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle. Sold by W. B. Davis.
