TOWN TOPICS.

Our Phone 76.

Kinder damp this week, eh? Gloyes for everybody at Taylor's. Earl Wilson of Cairo, Ga., spent last Friday in town. Seed Irish Potatoes, the best varieties at Smith's Drug store.

J. C. West, one of the prominent business men of Greenville, was a visitor to our town Friday.

Wm. Ivey, the paper boy, Ladies Home Journal and Saturday Evening Post.

Miss Kathleen Robertson left Friday afternoon for Lake City where she will visit friends for some time.

Fleischmann's Yeast received at Dial's Grocery Store fresh twice a week.

Henry L. Parramore, a popular young traveling man of Jacksonville, was in the city on business Saturday and remained over Sunday.

All persons indebted to the late C. B. Ashley, will call on me and make settlement. Chas. E. Davis, attorney for Mrs. Cora P. Ashley, administratrix.

The names of Howell Yates, Ruth Wheeler, Wilna Coffee and Floride Randall grace the Honor Roll of the 7th and 8th grades for the month of February, they having made an average each of more than 93 per cent. in all studies.

See the new style collar at Taylor's.

To-night is the time for the holding of the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade and it is hoped and expected that every member of the organization will be present at the Council Chamber promptly at half past seven o'clock.

At the opera house to-night the Madison Orchestra will favor the music loving public with one of its choice concerts. This organization deserves the encouragement and support of everybody in town and we hope that the house will be filled to the doors.

Married at the home of the bride's parents at San Pedro, in this county, by Rev. Dr. Mickel, Mr. J. P. Hannah of Foley, Ala., and Miss Trudie Hunter Feb. 23, 1910. The best wishes of all follow the happy couple to their new home. Florida loses one of her fair daughters but what is our loss is Alabama's gain.

The first announcement of county candidates appears in this week's paper, the candidate being Hon. J. Ellis Blanton who aspires to represent the Tenth District (Madison county) in the Senate of Florida. Mr. Blanton is an experienced legislator and with a strong following throughout the county will make it interesting for his opponents.

The handsome drug store of Daniel G. Smith has been rendered even more attractive by the installation of a beautiful cold drink fountain, the product of the artistic conception and skill of the American Soda Fountain Co. The apparatus embodies the latest ideas and improvements known to the manufacturers of such things, and is indeed a thing of beauty in varicolored marble, finest plate glass, richest wood, handsomely carved, and gleaming silver. To properly appreciate its beauty one must view it, and Mr. Smith will heartily welcome all visitors.

Overcoats at Taylor's
Alonzo Rowe of West Lake was in the city Sunday.

Early Seed Corn—a fresh supply at Smith's drug store.

Mrs. W. A. Hammerley of Tampa is visiting Mrs. D. H. Yates.

Miss Hattie Hays of Greenville spent last Friday in the city with her sister, Mrs. L. C. Ruter.

Par-a-sit-a-cide cures Itch in 30 minutes. Price 50 cents. Sold by D. G. Smith.

Mrs. J. R. Kelley and little daughter Delores, have gone for a short visit to relatives in Bradford county.

Reward to anyone who can find better clothing than that at Taylor's.

Capt. W. D. Griffin, one of the county's oldest and best citizens, was a business visitor in the city Monday from his home at Greenville.

Lost:—Red and black spotted sow, marked swallow fork and underbit in right ear, swallow fork in left ear. Reward for return to Willie Chackelford.

Mr. A. E. Patterson and family have moved to town from their Moseley Hall home and are occupying the Thomas cottage near the electric plant. We are glad to welcome this estimable family as residents of our town.

Shoes? Why yes—at Taylor's.

Now that "the ice is broken" we naturally expect that the candidates for county offices will "fall over themselves" to let the people know their desires and we predict that next week several new announcements will appear in these columns.

Miss Nannie Campbell who has been the attractive guest of Miss Stacie Dial for several weeks, left Friday afternoon for her home in Fayetteville, N. C., going first to St. Augustine where she will spend a week visiting and viewing the sights of that ancient city.

Mr. N. D. Wilson, who lives and farms in the Ebb neighborhood, was a caller at our sanctum last Saturday and renewed his subscription for this paper. Mr. Wilson is enthusiastic because of the agricultural contest inaugurated by the Board of Trade and will enter the contest on the corn proposition determined to capture the cash prize.

Mrs. N. C. Bevan was the charming hostess of the Berean Class Thursday afternoon. There was a short business session and election of officers which are as follows: President, Mrs. J. J. Newman; Teacher, Mrs. N. C. Bevan; Assistant Teacher and Class Reporter, Mrs. Al. Vano; Recording Secretary, Miss Dickinson; Treasurer, Miss Agnes Parramore. A pleasant feature of the afternoon was a literary contest in rhyme. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess.

We have in prospect an engagement of the celebrated Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette Company of Chicago, and it is expected that they will be secured to give one of their delightful entertainments about the 15th inst. This company gives a program of the greatest variety, consisting of lady quartettes, mandolin and guitar club, string, violin and vocal solos, amusing readings. In the Schubert we will get a musical entertainment that is enjoyable from the first to the last—not a long, dull, classical affair, but a bright, interesting program of music's choicest gems.

Underwear at Taylor's.

Walter Southall of Quincy was in the city last Friday on a visit to friends and relatives.

Lost:—My old hat and found a new one at Taylor's.

R. E. Wilson of Cairo, Ga., spent last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilson, at Hamburg.

Fresh and full line of Garden Seed just received at Smith's drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Southall of Quincy spent last week with their home folks in the Hamburg neighborhood.

A dollar will buy 100 cents worth at Taylor's.

Bayard B. Shields, one of Jacksonville's prominent young lawyers, was a business visitor in the city Saturday having business in the county judge's court.

Lost:—A gold buckle and locket watch fob. Monogram on locket, "J. J. N." Finder will be rewarded by returning to J. J. Newman.

Aborn Harris Smith, jr., arrived Sunday night from his home at Dalton, Ga., and will spend several weeks with the family of his uncle, Columbus B. Smith. Later he will visit his uncle, Samuel B. Smith, at Hampton Spring.

The D. P. C. and H. S. S. club have returned from the hunting grounds in the vicinity of the mouth of the Aucilla river where the members spent something more than two weeks in quest of big game. Yes, the boys report fair success but that they didn't have the great big time usual on their hunting trips is evidenced by the fact that none of them are talking much. Ordinarily, before the hunters have been at home as long as they have from this trip "Bully" Griffin has talked to everybody in reach about the quantities of game killed and the many hairbreadth escapes of the party from death and annihilation. This time, however, "Bully" has been strangely quiet from all of which we are forced to conclude that there wasn't "much a-doing" this trip.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. William H. Dial gave her friends a delightful game of Whist in her lovely home in honor of her daughter and the three attractive young ladies who were her house guests. The decorations of crimson camelias and violets blended beautifully with the vines of southern smilax that draped the mantels and windows of the spacious parlors. The refreshments were elaborate and required painstaking efforts to make them so effective. Mrs. Dial in a becoming gown graciously presented to her guests Miss Campbell of Fayetteville, N. C., Miss Muford of Richmond, Va., and Miss Robertson of Jacksonville. Miss Dial looked "as pretty as a picture," standing within a decorated alcove in the reception hall serving punch from a bowl decorated with cherries and luscious bunches of grapes. The game was good naturedly contested. A number tied for the prize, Mrs. Taylor was the fortunate possessor, a handsome belt pin. Miss Mary Burton kept the score of the nine tables. The hostess presented the four young ladies—the honorees—with bows of exquisite design with pins attached on which was inscribed the date of the pleasant function. The wee maid of the home, Miss Elizabeth, assisted materially in keeping up the prestige of a house so well known for its hospitality.

Pants for papa, pants for son, at Taylor's.

Monday night's trains brought fifteen additional students for entrance at the Normal. It is a fact that the town is becoming congested with pupils from other parts of the State. Hardly a home in the town but has one or more boarders who are here attending the school. Many more could be easily persuaded to come if we could provide them with accommodations. The matter is important. Some provision must be made. Hurry up the dormitory.

Fine Clothing at Taylor's.

For Disease of the Skin.
Nearly all diseases of the skin such as eczema, tetter, salt rheum and barbers' itch, are characterized by an intense itching and smarting, which often makes life a burden and disturbs sleep and rest. Quick relief may be had by applying Chamberlain's Salve. It always relieves the itching and smarting almost instantly. Many cases have been cured by its use. For sale by W. B. Davis and B. F. Moseley.
