Hayden Mickel Died in Union Point, Ga.

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Mickel, formerly of Madison, where Dr. Mickel was pastor of the First Presbyterian church for many years, will regret to learn of the death of their son, Hayden, who passed away at the home of his parents in Union Point, Ga., on last Monday, after a protracted illness of eight weeks with typhoid fever.

The deceased is well remembered here, he having lived in Madison the greater part of his life. Born in Kentucky, he came here with his parents a child of ten years, and it was only about sixteen months ago that he moved with his parents to Georgia. He was twenty-two years of age at the time of his death.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Coffee and Mr. Harris Mickel left for the Georgia city but arrived too late to see the little brother alive. He was buried at Union Point Tuesday.

The many Madison friends of the young man united in the parents extend their sympathy to the sorrowing family.

Notice to the Public.

All parties who have bills against the late Mrs. S. M. Wardlaw will please present them at once to Mr. A. Livingston Jr., at the Citizens Bank.

Frank W. Webb.

Palmetto Items.

Hello, Mr. Editor, as I never see any news from this place, I decided I would send in a few items.

The farmers are all about through pulling fodder in this community.

Misses Mamie Martin and Valmie Powell returned home last Wednesday after a most pleasant visit to relatives and friends in and around Quitman.

R. Z. Chaney, of Quitman, spent the week-end with J. W. Martin and family.

Protracted meeting closed at Live Oak Sunday night with two members added to the church.

Pasco Kiser, of Hanson, was a visitor in our burg last Sunday.

Marion Young, of near Hanson, attended church at Live Oak Sunday night.

Miss Emma Fox is on the sick list this week.

Perry Fox and Miss Etta Faglie attended church at Live Oak Tuesday night.

Cleveland and Russell Barker are visiting friends at San Pedro this week.

Frank Fox and Pasco Kiser and Miss Alla Mae Bembre were the guests of Misses Annie and Mamie Martin last Sunday.

Little Willie J. Laney is confined to his bed this week with fever.

Irvin Newbern and children passed through our community Thursday.

The people of Palmetto are having quite a time attending fish fries, as there is one somewhere in the community every Saturday. The next one will be at Sam Odom's next Saturday. Come over, Mr. Editor, and help us eat fish and chicken.

As news is scarce, will ring off, with best wishes to the Enterprise-Recorder.

Wade Brown Under $300 Bond

The preliminary trial of Wade H. Brown was called before Judge Martin last Saturday, when the defendant waived examination and was released on a bond of $300 for his appearance at the next term of the circuit court. Brown is charged with mayhem, and the case grew out of the altercation between him and O. J. Williams some three weeks ago.

Norton Creek Items.

Mrs. R. L. French spent last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. D. M. Albritton.

Miss Ida Tregree, teacher of the Horne School spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday with parents and relatives near Greenville. She was accompanied by Miss Agnes Terry.

Friends are glad to know that Miss Catherine Phillips has recovered from her sickness and is up again.

Will Brown, of Dowling Park, spent the latter part of last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roe Brown.

Mrs. J. B. Albritton spent a few days this week with her mother and brother, C. D. Harvill.

Mr. and Mrs. Velts, of Moseley Hall spent the latter part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barker.

J. B. Terry and S. E. Phillips made a business trip to Madison Monday.

Mrs. John Williams spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. D. M. Albritton.

D. M. Albritton spent Saturday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Albritton.

Mrs. May Velts spent Saturday afternoon with Miss Mae Albritton.

Perry Fox, Leonard Albritton and John Bonds spent Sunday afternoon at D. M. Albritton's.

G. W. Albritton and Tom Pension spent Saturday on Norton Creek fishing and caught a good many black fish.

Archie Faircloth spent last Friday night with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Harvill.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

A Painful Accident

S. T. Goza, who is engaged with West Bros. at Ellaville, happened to a painful and what came near being a very serious accident on last Friday morning. While out with a crew repairing a burned bridge, one of the iron beams was detached and hit the ground and then bounded to one side and struck Mr. Goza on the head with considerable force. The injury has caused him quite an amount of trouble, although Mr. Goza expects to be able to resume work again in the next day or two.

Miss Sarah Fraleigh Entertains

On Tuesday evening, at the handsome home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fraleigh, Miss Sarah Fraleigh entertained a number of her young friends in honor of Miss Virginia Mays, of Monticello, who is spending several days here as her guest.

There were some twenty of the younger folks present and the evening was delightfully spent. "Jack Straws" was the game played.

At a late hour the guests departed, each having enjoyed the evening to the utmost.

Mrs. W. A. Cate has returned to her home in this city from a pleasant visit of the past several weeks at her old home in Nellie, Ohio.

Gas and Wind in Your Stomach

After eating is caused by fermenting undigested food. Sloat's Vegetable Bitters puts what you eat where it belongs, digests your food, relieves that heavy uncomfortable feeling and strengthens the digestive organs.

Sloat's Vegetable Bitters

Whenever you suffer from headache, indigestion, biliousness, dyspepsia and kindred trouble, take one or two tablespoonfuls of

Sloat's Vegetable Bitters.

Sold everywhere this paper circulates.

ASK FOR

Sloat's Vegetable Bitters

NOTICE OF ELECTION

WHEREAS, the Legislature at its 1913 session proposed amendments to Article V of the Constitution of the State of Florida, providing for the establishment of Circuit Courts, prescribing their jurisdiction, and the number of Judges thereof, and the manner of their election, and providing for the establishment of Criminal Courts of Record in certain counties, prescribing their jurisdiction, and the manner of election of Judges thereof, and providing for the abolition of the office of County Judge in certain counties, and providing for the transfer of the jurisdiction of County Judges to Circuit Courts, and providing for the transfer of the records, papers and dockets of County Courts to Circuit Courts, and providing for the transfer of pending causes from County Courts to Circuit Courts, and providing for the appointment of Circuit Judges and Criminal Court of Record Judges, and providing for the appointment of Assistant Prosecuting Attorneys for the Criminal Courts of Record, and providing for the appointment of Assistant Solicitors for the Criminal Courts of Record, and providing for the appointment of Bailiffs for the Criminal Courts of Record, and providing for the appointment of Court Reporters for the Criminal Courts of Record, and providing for the appointment of Clerks for the Criminal Courts of Record, and providing for the appointment of Deputy Clerks for the Criminal Courts of Record, and providing for the appointment of Stenographers for the Criminal Courts of Record, and providing for the appointment of Interpreters for the Criminal Courts of Record, and providing for the appointment of Court Attendants for the Criminal Courts of Record, and providing for the appointment of Jury Commissioners for the Criminal Courts of Record, and providing for the appointment of Court Physicians for the Criminal Courts of Record, and providing for the appointment of Court Stenographers for the Criminal Courts of Record, and providing for the appointment of Court