Death of Mrs. Theodore Randell.
Shortly after nine o'clock last Wednesday evening, 19th inst., the sad news reached town of the death of Mrs. Moseley Parramore Randell at her home, Sampala, nine miles South of town. She had been ill two months, or longer, and her death was not entirely unexpected though none the less sad because of the fact.

Mrs. Randell was a native of Madison, being a daughter of the late Captain and Mrs. Smith Parramore, and nearly her entire life had been spent in this county. She was a noble type of womanhood, cheerful, kind, unostentatious and home loving. She sympathized with those in distress and gave aid wherever aid was needed. In her young womanhood she united with the Baptist church in this city and her life has been one of beautiful christian character.

Besides a devoted husband she leaves to mourn her death her sons and daughters, Messrs. Vans, Redden and Borr and Mesdames T. C. Smith of this city and Sydney Hinley and Cary Hardee of Live Oak, Misses S. A. and "Tote" of this city.

The funeral services were conducted at the family home at Sampala Thursday afternoon by Pastor Ivey of the Baptist church after which the body was brought to Oak Ridge cemetery and tenderly consigned to its last resting place among those of her loved ones who have gone before. The pall bearers were Messrs. F. J. Beggs, C. B. Ashley, L. A.

Fraleigh, B. B. McCall, W. B. Davis, W. P. Knight, S. A. Smith and E. C. Hassell.

To the stricken husband, sons and daughters we offer our sincere sympathy in their hour of bereavement.

Valuable Books to be Given Away.

Congressman Dannitte H. Mays has sent the editor of this paper a large number of copies of a valuable book treating of the Diseases of Cattle, issued by the Agricultural Department of the Federal government. From a casual examination of the book we are convinced that it should be of value to raisers and owners of cattle, treating as it does of the various diseases to which cattle flesh is heir, consequently we will be pleased to distribute the books among those of our people who desire them. Call at this office and secure a copy. They will be given away free of cost as long as they last, first come, first served.

If You are Worth $50 000 Don't Read This.

This will not interest you if you are worth fifty thousand dollars, but if you are a man of moderate means and can not afford to employ a physician when you have an attack of diarrhoea, you will be pleased to know that one or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will cure it. This remedy has been in use for many years and is thoroughly reliable. Price 25 cents. For sale by B. F. Moseley & W. B. Davis.

Unveiling Monument.

At the time of putting this issue to press the handsome Confederate monument is being unveiled with appropriate ceremony. Elizabeth Harris Chapter, U. D. C., is in charge of the exercises and a large number of Confederate Veterans and citizens are participating in the exercises.

The program includes band music, a presentation address by one of the ladies of the U. D. C., acceptance by a veteran on behalf of Colquitt Camp U. C. V., acceptance by Mayor Rowe on behalf of the Town, and a patriotic address by Hon. Knox Livingston of Bennettsville, S. C.

The monument was furnished by The McNeel Marble Co., of Marietta Ga., upon the order of Elizabeth Harris Chapter, U. D. C. It cost $1250. It stands twenty-three feet in height and occupies the center of the city park.

We shall have more to say next week concerning the exercises.
