The County Cannot Progress Without Good Roads. Vote For Bonds December 2

AMERICA GIVEN NO ANSWER

In the Jenkins case, it is reported to have been given a new lease, Dolly & Evons.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The American government's three-year-old administation is on the rocks. The Senate has rejected the administration's latest effort to pass a tax bill. The rejection, which came after a heated debate, was seen as a blow to President Wilson's efforts to stave off a constitutional crisis.

One Way or Another, the Debt to the Mutual Savings Bank is to End

unions have now declared a nationwide strike, a move that threatens to bring the country to a standstill. The strike, which started yesterday, is the latest in a series of labor disputes that have swept the nation.

MARION MUST KEEP THE PACE WITH PROGRESSIVE COUNTIES

Speaking of "current news," do you have that the good roads and street improvements already authorized in Florida this year cover all the main roads and cities? If not, take the bond issue right now, and we'll have a good roads system in Marion County as soon as next year.

Do you want Marion county to keep up with the progressive counties, or not behind them? You've got a chance to vote yes or no. If you want Marion county to lead, then vote for Bonds December 2.

Do you know that Marion county has already been in the lead in the fight for good roads and street improvements? It has been in the lead for four years. If you want Marion county to remain in the lead, then vote yes to the bond issue.

Do you know that Marion county is likely to be in a better position for the future if we have a good roads system? It will be easier to attract industry and new residents. If you want Marion county to be in a better position, then vote yes to the bond issue.

UNCUSTOMARY

If you think Marion county is not in need of good roads and street improvements, then you are mistaken. Marion county needs them now more than ever. If you want Marion county to be modern and progressive, then vote yes to the bond issue.
